RUSSIA CHALLENGED

LBJ Calls For Cooperation

. . . VIET WAR NO BARRIER

Arco, Idaho (AP) — President Johnson visited an atom-harnessing center dedicated to peace Friday and challenged Russia to cooperate in ending the danger of instant nuclear destruction.

Speaking at the National Reactor Testing Station in the southeastern Idaho desert, Johnson said the war in Viet Nam need be no barrier to this cooperation because it is limited to protecting independence of the people and thus poses no threat to vital interests of the Soviet Union.

"And we cannot be satisfied," the President said, "with a situation in which the world is capable of extinction in a moment of error, or madness, or anger."

This, he said, is why we have always been required to show restraint as well as resolve; "to be firm but not to walk heavy-footed along the brink of war."

"This," Johnson said, "is why we also recognize that the heart of our concern in the years ahead must be our relationship with the Soviet Union.

"Both of us possess unimaginable power; our responsibility to the world is heavier than that ever borne by two nations at the same time. A common interest demands that the wise exercise of that responsibility is an essential requirement in the years to come."

10,000 In Crowd

Looking out from a red, white and blue speaker's stand with a huge welcome sign in the background, Johnson peered across a crowd which Atomic Energy Commission officials estimated at 10,000

Beyond the people loomed the first nuclear reactor to produce electricity on a usable basis—15 years ago. After his talk Johnson toured the facility and a plaque was presented marking it as a national historic site. Mrs. Johnson accompanied him.

This was the first of three formal speeches by Johnson on another long day of getting out to meet the voters at campaign time. It was his third such expedition in three weeks. But the White House continued to maintain a measure of bipartisanship.

The other major stops of the day—and night—were at Denver, Colo., and at Pryor, Okla.

Broader Terms

The occasion for the Denver appearance was an invitation to dedicate a research building for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and to receive an honorary degree—Both on the Denver University campus. Foreign policy in broader stripes than in Idaho was the presidential topic there.

Johnson was invited to Oklahoma for a third ceremony—the breaking of ground for a new water and sewer sysem at the Mid-America industrial site.

Domestic affairs was the subject for Johnson there.

But the address at Arco offered the outstanding proposal of the day, for trying to find a way for more cooperation between the two greatest world powers.

And Johnson said there are reasons to hope the Soviets share a desire to enlarge an existing area of agreement.

Attempts are under way, he noted, to work out a treaty limiting future activity in space to peaceful purposes, an agreement is being sought to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons, also by treaty, Johnson said.

He expressed a belief that an acceptable compromise can be found.

To Stymie Takeover

Turning then to Southeast Asia, the president said the United States is fighting to keep the North Vietnamese from taking over South Viet Nam by force.

"That conflict," he said, "does not have to stop us from finding new ways of dealing with one another."

He said this country never sought war or the destruction of Russia but rather "to increase our knowledge and understanding of the Russian people with whom we share a common feeling for life, a love of song and story, and a sense of the land's vast promises."

Tiny Flag-Waver Takes Johnson Kiss In Stride

Denver (UPI)—A little Denver girl will have something to remember from President Johnson's visit Friday — a presidential kiss.

The President stopped his motorcade en route from Stapleton International Airport to the University of Denver when he saw 5-year-old Jillian Goldman standing along the road, waving a flag.

The President reached out of the car, picked Jillian up in his arms, and gave her a kiss.

Jillian, according to her father, Paul Goldman, came home quite unimpressed. "But after all," Goldman said, "she's a Republican."

School's Business Affairs Head, Computer Start Jobs

By LUCILLE HUTCHINSON
Star Staff Writer

Arrival of the Lincoln school district's $200,000 computer in the business affairs office signaled the start of an electronic transformation in the conduct of school matters just as the new business head assumed his duties.

Dr. Robert Den Hartog, Lincoln's assistant superintendent in charge of business affairs, took charge Aug. 1, only days before the long-awaited computer was ready for use.

The schedule of computer assignments does not end, Den Hartog said, emphasizing that it is his intention to provide service to all phases of the school district in addition to the business office.

Although the assistant superintendent's proposal is to "automate as many routine procedures as possible," he emphasized, "We don't ever want machinery to get in the road of decision-making."

Checks Schedules

Computerization in the Lincoln district started with a tentative check of junior high and senior high school student schedules for the fall semester to find class conflicts needing alteration.

Then the schools anticipated starting the transferral of internal records and accounting information from the former data processing system into the computer.

"We're not keeping any more records than before. We're just making them more accessible," said the experienced business manager.

Den Hartog came to Lincoln from the Omaha Public Schools where for nearly two years he was in charge of computer research and data processing and for another year served as acting assistant superintendent in charge of business affairs.

Personnel First

First on the computer will be personnel accounting, because, Den Hartog believes, "you control the operation of a school system through the assignment of personnel."

Another high priority in computer use is the recording of an "immediate and perpetual inventory of equipment and supplies," he added.

Along the way the final student scheduling will be accomplished after late registrations are in and previously discovered conflicts are handled. The whole process for some 12,000 students — described by principals as their greatest job — also includes printing class lists.

With the new equipment the schools will be able to grade objective tests as well as standardized tests. One-day service for teachers is expected as 1,200 tests can be graded each hour, according to Den Hartog.

In addition, the computer will provide a list of the test scores, a statistical evaluation of scores and even a conversion into a letter grade, I.Q. or mental age rating.

Predicting that the cost of the computer will be mortized within five years, Den Hartog estimated that last year the Omaha schools saved $25,000 on test scoring alone.

Grade Compilation

Other computer projects Den Hartog and the data processing staff headed by Marvin Miller have slated for this year include compilation of grades for report cards and progress reports, recording grades for permanent record cards, reporting attendance and "probably" pupil accounting.

With an additional $95,000 worth of equipment the schools could keep complete student records, including grades, schedules, test scores, evaluations and other personal data, the business manager commented.

The school district's new machine has two disks, with capacity for two million digits on each. As many as eight disks could be lined up on this computer on which to feed and draw information.

While information for the computer demands more exact decision-making on the part of administrators and principals, none of it will be taken over by the machine, asserted Den Hartog.

Teachers still will determine right answers, student schedule still will be determined with counselors, and schedule conflicts still will be rectified by principals, Den Hartog insisted. "The computer just does what it is told."

Tentative Pact With Pressmen May Put New Paper On Street

New York (AP)—The World Journal Tribune Inc. reached tentative contract agreement with the pressmen's union Friday, ending a four-month labor stalemate.

The accord appeared to remove the major roadblock that has long delayed the publication of a new afternoon daily and Sunday newspaper in Manhattan.

"We'll know better next week," said Matt Meyer, president of the World Journal Tribune, when pressed to set a definite publication date. Minor contract adjustments remain to be worked out with nine other industry unions.

Wednesday

An over-all labor agreement by next Wednesday was considered necessary to assure publication of the new daily and Sunday World Tribune after the Labor Day weekend.

The new daily would be in competition with Manhattan's only present afternoon paper, the Post.

The Sunday paper would be Manhattan's third, competing with the Sunday Times and Sunday News.

Herald Tribune Dead

The 125-day labor deadlock involving the World Journal Tribune cost the life of the old Herald Tribune, planned as a reorganized morning paper by the new corporation. Abandonment of the Herald Tribune, with a heritage going back 131 years, was announced Aug. 15.

The rank and file of the AFL-CIO pressmen's union were scheduled to vote Sunday on the tentative agreement with the World Journal Tribune. Union leaders said they would recommend acceptance.

Chief issue in recent bargaining had been a union demand for a 6½-hour Saturday night shift, in putting out a Sunday morning World Journal Tribune. The Sunday News and Times pressmen have an 8-hour shift.

THE WEATHER

LINCOLN: Fair and warmer with southerly winds 15 to 20 mph. High near 90. Saturday night, fair. Pricipitation probability, 5 per cent.

Bennet Man Is Drowned

Ira E. Wertz, 73, of Bennet was found drowned in a farm pond 4 miles east of Roca Friday evening.

The Lancaster County Sheriff's office said Wertz, who was apparently fishing, drowned in the pond on the Chris Rosenthal farm.

Tenants on the farm found the body.

Wertz is survived by a son, Ira Jr., of Mexico City, Mo.

Funeral services are pending at Metcalf's, 245 No. 27th.

Callan To Seek Boxcars From East Coast

Rep. Clair Callan said Friday that he will ask the Interstate Commerce Commission and the White House to try to have more railroad boxcars moved from the east coast to the Midwest to transport grain.

Callan said he will make the necessary contacts when he returns to Washington next Monday.

The boxcar shortage is "real, critical" once again, Callan said, despite legislation enacted by the current session of Congress in an effort to alleviate the situation.

"It is apparent that legislation now on the books is not going to get the job done," the First District Democrat noted.

"This situation," he said, "also points out what I consider to be the need for a new department of transportation."

Callan said he will support legislation to create such an evecutive department when it comes to the floor of the House for a vote next week.

The congressman said he believes there is merit to the proposal to create an air cargo center at the deactivated Lincoln Air Force Base and that such a facility "could alleviate the boxcar situation a little bit."

While it is unlikely that grain would be moved by air transport, some other commodities might be transported by air, thus freeing more boxcars for grain shipments, Callan noted.

"There has got to be some way to provide incentive for railroads or companies to build boxcars," Callan said, and the means to do so may need to be a tax incentive.

Minimum Wage Raise Bill Passed By Senate

Washington (AP)—The Senate passed a bill Friday night that would raise the $1.25 an-hour minimum wage to $1.60 in 1968 and bring an additional seven million workers under the Wages and Hours Act.

The roll call vote was 57 to 17. Sens. Carl Curtis and Roman Hruska, both R-Neb., voted against the bill.

The bill, strongly backed by President Johnson and high on the AFL-CIO's legislative list, was sent to conference with the House.

A major difference between Senate and House bills is that the $1.60 floor would take effect Feb. 1, 1968, under the Senate version, and Feb. 1, 1969, under the House bill. Johnson urged the 1968 date.

The new coverage provisions of the Senate measure would bring in about one million less than the House version.

However, both measures contain important breakthroughs in coverage.

First-Time Protection

Some farm workers would be given the protection of the act for the first time. The law also would be extended to employes of hotels, motels, restaurants, laundries and some other industries which are not now covered.

Administration forces were able to beat off most crippling amendments in three days of floor debate.

However, they lost one skirmish Friday afternoon when the Senate adopted 41 to 38 a Republican amendment to eliminate coverage of 185,000 workers of smaller retail stores, hotels, motels and restaurants.

Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., floor manager for the bill, noted that the adoption of a $1.60-an-hour wage minimum would mean for the first time that the annual income of the lowest paid workers under the act would go above the officially recognized $3,000-a-year poverty level.

The over-all effect of the new minimum, he said, would be an additonal $2 billion a year in purchasing power for the affected workers.

Miniscule But Great

"This is miniscule in terms of our $732 billion gross national product but it means a great deal to the working poor in terms of additional income and purchasing power," he declared.

The bill would set up three different wage schedules:

For the 19.5 million already covered by the law, plus 665,000 non-civil service federal workers brought in by the bill, the floor would go to $1.40 next Feb. 1 and to $1.60 a year later. About 5.9 million of these now get less than $1.60.

For the 390,000 farm workers covered by the bill, it would start at $1 an hour next Feb. 1 and go up to $1.15 in 1968, to $1.30 in 1969.

For the approximately six million other newly covered workers, the scale would be the same as for the farm employes except that there would be two additonal steps—to $1.45 in 1970 and $1.60 in 1971.

Coloradan Dies In Brady Crash

Brady, Neb. (UPI) — John D. Allison, 33, of Westminster, Colo., was killed Friday afternoon when the pickup truck he was driving collided with an auto on U.S. 30 near here.

The Nebraska Safety Patrol said Allison's east bound pickup collided with the left rear wheel of an eastbound auto driven by Elsie E. Arnett, 31, of Cozad. The patrol said Allison's auto went out of control after the collision and overturned. Mrs. Arnett's car went into the ditch and back on the highway without upsetting. Neither Mrs. Arnette nor six children riding with her were injured.

7 Judges Will Hear Duane Pope Appeal

By BOB SCHREPF
Star Staff Writer

Attorneys for Duane Pope will be allowed to argue the convicted slayer's appeal from the death penalty before a full panel of U.S. Circuit Court judges, The Star learned Friday night.

In an order issued earlier in the day, the Eighth circuit bench also delayed the oral arguments one month and granted counsel on both sides one hour each in which to argue the case.

The court ordered the case heard Oct. 14th, "en banc", said circuit court clerk Robert C. Tucker in St. Louis, Mo.

Tucker said the usual procedure is for a three-judge panel to hear 30 minute arguments in appeals such as Pope's.

Asked By Attorneys

Motions to increase the argument time and to have the appeal heard by the full court of seven judges had been filed by Pope's court-appointed attorneys, former Nebraska Gov. Robert Crosby and University of Nebraska law professor Wallace Rudolph.

The 23-year-old Kansas man has been quartered in the Nebraska penal complex since being convicted by a Federal Court jury last Dec. 3 of shooting to death three employes during a June 4, 1965, bank robbery in Big Springs.

The jury recommended the death penalty and Judge Robert Van Pelt sentenced him to die in Nebraska's electric chair on Mar. 3. The sentence was stayed for the appeal.

Crosby Pleased

Informed of the circuit court order, Crosby said, "We are naturally pleased that the court has allowed additional time for the argument and that the entire court will hear the argument.

"We feel that some very important points of law are involved in this case — such as, the question of the definition of insanity and the selection of the jury."

The attorneys who won the government's case against Pope and who also will argue against his appeal are U.S. District Attorney Theodore Richling and his assistant, Frederic Coufal, both of Omaha.

Herald Tribune Dead

The 125-day labor deadlock involving the World Journal Tribune cost the life of the old Herald Tribune, planned as a reorganized morning paper by the new corporation. Abandonment of the Herald Tribune, with a heritage going back 131 years, was announced Aug. 15.

The rank and file of the AFL-CIO pressmen's union were scheduled to vote Sunday on the tentative agreement with the World Journal Tribune. Union leaders said they would recommend acceptance.

Chief issue in recent bargaining had been a union demand for a 6½-hour Saturday night shift, in putting out a Sunday morning World Journal Tribune. The Sunday News and Times pressmen have an 8-hour shift.

THE WEATHER

Bennet Man Is Drowned

Ira E. Wertz, 73, of Bennet was found drowned in a farm pond 4 miles east of Roca Friday evening.

The Lancaster County Sheriff's office said Wertz, who was apparently fishing, drowned in the pond on the Chris Rosenthal farm.

Tenants on the farm found the body.

Wertz is survived by a son, Ira Jr., of Mexico City, Mo.

Funeral services are pending at Metcalf's, 245 No. 27th.

Callan To Seek Boxcars From East Coast

Rep. Clair Callan said Friday that he will ask the Interstate Commerce Commission and the White House to try to have more railroad boxcars moved from the east coast to the Midwest to transport grain.

Callan said he will make the necessary contacts when he returns to Washington next Monday.

The boxcar shortage is "real critical" once again, Callan said, despite legislation enacted by the current session of Congress in an effort to alleviate the situation.

"It is apparent that legislation now on the books is not going to get the job done," the First District Democrat noted.

"This situation," he said, "also points out what I consider to be the need for a new department of transportation."

Callan said he will support legislation to create such an executive department when it comes to the floor of the House for a vote next week.

The congressman said he believes there is merit to the proposal to create an air cargo center at the deactivated Lincoln Air Force Base and that such a facility "could alleviate the boxcar situation a little bit."

While it is unlikely that grain would be moved by air transport, some other commodities might be transported by air, thus freeing more boxcars for grain shipments, Callan noted.

"There has got to be some way to provide incentive for railroads or companies to build boxcars," Callan said, and the means to do so may need to be a tax incentive.

Chicago Protests End

Chicago (AP)—A summer of civil rights marches in Chicago, marked by violence and growing racial tension, ended Friday—at least temporarily.

Dr. Martin Luther King and Chicago integration leaders called off future demonstrations in return for promises by city, church and business leaders to promote open housing vigorously.

The agreement came after a 2½-hour meeting between King, Mayor Richard J. Daley and what the civil rights forces call the city's "power structure."

While the agreement was being worked out, Dr. King asked the mayor th withdraw a pending injunction suit limiting the size and number of civil rights marches and forbidding them during rush hours. Daley refused.

No Cicero March

An immediate and significant result of the agreement was the postponement of a march set for Sunday in suburban all-white Cicero, for which Gov. Otto Kerner had promised to call out the Illinois National Guard to maintain order.

However, a spokesman for another integration group, the West Side Organization, said, "There will be a march sunday in Cicero."

Chester Robinson, president of the organization, said his group and six others were going ahead with plans for a march.

Knows Nothing

A spokesman for King's group said he knew nothing about the West Side Organization's plans.

It was in Cicero, 15 years ago, that three days of rioting erupted when a Negro bus driver rented an apartment.

This time, Dr. King had promised to send 3,000 marchers parading through town, demonstrating against housing discrimination.

"To demonstrate our good faith," King said, "we will defer this march to Cicero. This does not mean we will cancel the march. It is postponed."

While It's Effected

King's group, the Chicago Freedom Movement, pledged "to a cessation of neighborhood demonstrations . . . so long as the program is being carried out."

The program, spelled out in an 11-page document, binds the city, the real estate industry, churches, labor unions and others to what King called "far-reaching and creative commitments."

It includes such action as more vigorous enforcement of the city's fair housing ordinance; steering Negroes on relief or displaced by urban renewal to the best housing available, regardless of the racial character of the neighborhood; and church and city support to real estate agents who seek to abide by opening housing regulations.

Ben W. Heineman, conference chairman, along with King, Daley and others, described the agreement as a landmark.

"The city of Chicago, through all the elements of society represented here, has taken today a giant step forward," Heineman said.

Jelly Bomb Error Kills Many Yanks

Saigon (AP) — A company of U.S. infantrymen suffered heavy losses Friday when American jets mistakenly dropped two canisters of flaming napalm into its position during a close-quarter battle with the Viet Cong.

More than a score of soldiers were killed and many others were wounded by the accident in the second day of an American fight against 500 hard-core-Viet Cong 20 miles north of Saigon.

U.S. officials gave correspondents exact figures on how many 1st infantry Division men were killed and wounded but asked that these not be used in dispatches.

Other 1st Division troops replaced the company and moved in to search for the elite Viet Cong battalion, but the guerrillas apparently had fled.

2 Super Sabers

The accidental bombing of American troops was carried out by two Air Force F100 Super Sabers. They were on a mission against a Viet Cong base camp 25 miles north of Saigon.

Maj. Gen. William E. DePuy, commander of the "Big Red One," said one of the napalm canisters fell short, the other long.

"The 1st Division called in air strikes very close because there was close contact—but not on top of our own troops," he said. "This is a rough business and there was an error of only about 50 meters (about 50 yards)."

But he said the Air Force was not to blame for "this unfortunate napalming of our own troops."

He said. "We would have lost more if we had to winkle them (the Viet Cong) out of their bunkers. We would call for napalm again."

Elsewhere in the war:

—American jets flew 133 missions Thursday against North Viet Nam, attacking 14 oil storage depots and other targets mostly in North Viet Nam's southern panhandle.

—In air action over South Viet Nam, U.S. pilots flew 406 sorties and claimed damage or destruction of 315 Viet Cong huts, trenches and fortified positions. South Vietnamese pilots flew an additional 323 sorties.

More Terrorism

—Terrorists garbed in South Vietnamese army fatigue clothes machine-gunned a police checkpoint jeep at the edge of Saigon. They killed five policemen and wounded three marines and three civilians. The raid apparently was pegged to communist efforts to disrupt the Sept. 11 election.

Three American battalions totalling several thousand men were out to crush the veteran enemy unit after hard fighting Thursday.

Four U.S infantry companies suffered moderate to heavy casualties, he said. Losses among the others engaged were reported light. A battalion commander and two company commanders were among the American dead.

Hurricane Path Misses Puerto Rico

Miami, Fla. (AP)—Her wrath slightly diminished and speed slower, Hurricane Faith spun in the Atlantic Friday night on a course that kept her north of densely populated Puerto Rico.

Drizzling rain, some high seas and occasional gusts were Faith's major marks on the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, warned and well-prepared for 24 hours.

The storm rolled between a west and northwest track some 140 miles northeast of San Juan after she swept past the scenic Leeward Islands earlier in the day.

Her winds—down to 80 and 90 miles an hour from a mighty 100 pulled down some power lines and tore trees in Philipsburg, St. Martin, in the Leewards.

Her slight swing to the north not only spared Puerto Rico, but also brightened the possibility that Faith may slip into a target area where U.S. Project Stormfury scientists waited to bombard her with silver iodide crystals in hope of breaking her power.

Slow Reform Efforts Breed Trouble

. . . OMAHA MAYOR TESTIFIES AT SENATE PROBE

Washington (AP)—An investigating senator and the mayors of two riot-plagued cities agreed Friday that slow-motion reform efforts breed urban violence. But they disagreed heartily on who is to blame for this tardiness.

Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., said "We fail to move in these tragic situations until we are up against absolute violence." And he made clear his belief that swifter municipal action could have averted or decreased racial disorders in Cleveland and Omaha.

But the mayors of these two cities, appearing as witnesses in a Senate subcommittee's investigation of big-city ills, described federal regulations as a major obstacle in rectifying slum housing and other conditions which contribute to out-breaks of violence.

Fewer Strings Asked

Like other witnesses before them, Mayors Ralph Locher of Cleveland and A. V. Sorensen of Omaha said, in effect:

"Give us more federal money and attach fewer strings to our spending of it."

In saying Cleveland needs federal assistance, Locher asserted the city officials appreciate this help but "we do not always care for the red tape that accompanies it."

Sorensen was more emphatic, saying federal officials are guilty of "nitpicking on details that would try the patience of Job." He added that the housing program is a "federal obstacle course."

Both mayors asserted that the federal government should share income tax revenues with cities — Locher called it "a matter of right" —and let the municipalities use the money as they see fit.

Omaha Mayor Urges

Sorensen urged local responsibility and management because "we just happen to believe we can do the job locally, do it better and cheaper." But he conceded Omaha can't finance the necessary programs.

Sorensen acknowledged also that Omaha voters twice have defeated urban renewal proposals. Ribicoff asked him how, in view of this, he can blame the federal government for delays in meeting housing troubles.

Sorensen replied he thinks federal funds earmarked for urban renewal should be allocated to the cities "and let us get our citizens out of the ghetto in our own way."

Sorensen blamed the July 4 Omaha rioting on a small group of Negro youths and said that two of the ringleaders now have jobs under a post-riot program which found employment for 400.

"Why couldn't these 400 jobs have been found a month before the riots took place?" Ribicoff asked.

Robert C. Weaver, secretary of housing and urban development, issued a statement denying his department is dragging its feet in helping Omaha.

Weaver said: "Omaha has no pending applications for public housing, has not elected to participate in urban, renewal, and has applied for but one rent-supplement development of 40 units . . "

"Again, I invite the mayor to present proposals which qualify for federal assistance."

Titan Bearing Eight Satellites Blows Self Up

Cape Kennedy, Fla. (UPI) — America's mightiest military rocket, carrying eight communications satellites for flashing messages to U.S. troops in Viet Nam, exploded itself in a flash of orange and pink fire 80 seconds after a perfect launch Friday.

The failure shattered a string of four straight launch successes for the triple-barreled Titan 3C and stalled Defense Department plans to double the size of its spaceborne network of radio relay stations.

Three hours after the spectacular blow-up, the Air Force traced the trouble to a faulty 17-foot-long satellite cover on the Titan's nose. At least half of the protective fairing ripped off the 124-foot rocket as it raced 16 miles above the sea.

Railway Strike Threat To Canadian Economy

Ottawa (UPI)—Canada was hit Friday by a nationwide railway strike that also halted telegraph and ferry service and threatened to throw the country's already troubled economy into chaos.

One entire province, Prince Edward Island, and scores of northern communities were left virtually isolated.

The walkout was staged by 110,000 employes of seven railroads, including the transcontinental Canadian National and Canadian Pacific, to back demands for a 40% wage increase. Their hourly wage now averages $2.23.

Contract negotiations continued past the strike deadline but were broken off at midafternoon and not expected to be resumed until after an emergency session of Parliament Monday.

The government - operated Canadian National, with 32,656 miles of track, and the Canadian Pacific, with 21,400, are among the largest railroads in the world. The Canadian Pacific is first among privately owned lines.

The Economic Council of Canada warned that the economy could collapse if the strike lasted for more than two weeks. Estimated daily cost of the strike was $15 million.

Passengers already were feeling the effects as U.S. railroads halted service at the border.

Newspapers could find their newsprint supplies short if the walkout lasts more than a week or 10 days, a Canadian newsprint industry official said.

Housing Pump Primer Passed

Washington (AP) — Bills designed to give emergency help to the lagging housing market and to hard-pressed city transit systems went to President Johnson Friday.

The House completed legislative action passing 234 to 1 a measure to provide $4.76 billion additional mortgage purchase funds, and voting 156-86 approval of a bill to authorize $300 million transit subsidies.

Both are compromise versions of legislation passed in different form by the Senate and House. The Senate accepted the compromises.

Fast Pen Seen

Quick approval by the President is expected, especially of the mortgage bill. This was introduced, beefed up and enacted by Congress at the urging of housing industry and other spokesmen who protested that tight and expensive mortgage money was making it impossible for many would-be homeowners to buy houses.

The new funds would be used by the Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA), which buys FHA and VA mortgages from the original lenders, thus releasing more funds for new mortgages.

The bill provides $2 billion more for FNMA by changing the borrowing rules governing it. It is now allowed to borrow up to 10 times its capitalization. The bill raises the ratio to 15.

Treasury Power

Another $1.76 billion would be provided by authorizing the treasury to buy an additional $110 million of FNMA preferred stock, thus providing 15 times that amount of additional borrowing power.

Still another $1 billion would be made available by authorizing FNMA to draw an additional $500 million from the treasury and $500 million from special funds available to the President for its various special assistance programs.

Students Bus Fare Stays Up Despite Court Order

By GERRY SWITZER
Star Staff Writer

Despite a State Railway Commission order rescinding its previous action increasing Lincoln City Lines bus fares, Lincoln students will have to pay the regular rates at least until Sept. 14.

As a result of a temporary restraining order issued by Lancaster District Judge William Hastings Friday, the previous order of July 13 increasing fares effective Aug. 1 is to remain in force until a Sept. 14 hearing scheduled by the Railway Commission to review the matter.

The second order of Aug. 24 returning the fares to the levels in effect prior to the increase was issued by the Railway Commission after it was discovered that the previous preferential rates for students were omitted in the new schedule.

In a suit filed Friday by the Lincoln City Lines, the bus company asks that the previous order of July 13 which included the regular fare increases for children and adults be declared in full force and effect and that Aug. 24 order be restrained and suspended until the bus company has had proper notice and an opportunity to be heard.

The petition alleges that the order of Aug. 24 was entered without notice and without hearing contrary to law and the constitution and that in entering the order the Railway Commission was unreasonable and arbitrary and exceeded its authority.

The July 13 order included the following fares effective Aug. 1: adults, 20 cents; children from five to 12 years, 15 cents; additional zone fare for adults, 10 cents, and for children, five cents, and zone fore to the Lincoln Air Force Base for adults 15 cents.

The Aug. 24 order returned the fares to those in effect prior to the Aug. 1 hike. They were: adults 15 cents; children from five to 12 years, 10 cents; grade and high school students, 10 cents; additional zone fare for adults, 10 cents, and for children, five cents, and zone fare to the Lincoln Air Force Base for adults 15 cents.

The bus company alleges that the Railway Commission's Aug. 24 order was illegal, unconstitutional and void because it was entered before the official transcript of evidence had been prepared; the plaintiff was not given notice of hearing; plaintiff was denied the right to appear and present evidence, and the order does not contain findings of fact consisting of concise statements of conclusions.

Civic Leaders Hear Omahan Urge Plan For Lincoln Air Cargo Center

By BOB SCHREPF
Star Staff Writer

An Omaha public relations man revealed to Lincoln civic leaders Friday a plan to make Lincoln the air cargo transportation hub of the nation.

The export-import and second-point-haul industry would inject $100,000,000 a year into the city's economy and the state capitol would blossom into a metropolis of a half million within the next score of years, said J. P. Ortega.

The Omahan said the project would require a feasibility study costing the area's economic resources $35,000 over a six-month period. If the plan proves practical, he said, a $500,000 selling campaign would be needed — an area effort — spread out over two years at a minimum.

Ortega predicated his plan on the use of the deactivated Lincoln Air Force Base—the miles of vacant concrete runways and abandoned facilities he said, would accomodate the jumbo jets, the supersonic transports of the seventies.

'In To Air Age'

"This is a program which staggers conservative thought . . . this could catapault Lincoln into the very heart of tomorrow's air age," he told business leaders, members of the Lincoln Airport Authority, City Council and Mayor Dean Petersen.

He told his audience that the idea would involve non-stop shipping of marketable products between Lincoln and Northern Europe and South America, with the region's existing transportation industries providing the access to markets.

Lincoln, by virtue of geography, lack of metropolitan problems, facilities and nature, is ideal to handle the gigantic air cargo tonnage of the future, he said.

Ortega's plan was unsolicited by the community, but Lincoln Chamber of Commerce officials said Ortega, head of an Omaha public relations and marketing firm with world-wide connections, asked the chamber to act as a vehicle to determine Lincoln's reaction to the idea.

Achieve Position

He called for the following to achieve Lincoln's position as an international air cargo complex:

—Thei nformation of an ad hoc committee locally to coordinate the feasibility study and produce financial resources.

—The feasibility study itself, to be conducted over a six-month period.

—"The biggest selling job in Lincoln's history," Ortega said, "We must sell, and aquire the support: moral, political and financial of the state, airlines, railroads and trucking lines".

He said that if the community implements the idea, it could expect jealous competition from what he termed the nation's 20 "hub cities"—cities which Lincoln's position could overcome because of its physical and geographic resources.

"We must therefore move with all deliberate speed," he said.

Lincoln leaders, council members in particular, were impressed with the presentation, but wondered aloud about the financing aspect.

Ortega said the proposal has already received enthusiastic support from Gov. Frank Morrison, Omaha and Lincoln business interests, the regional office of the Department of Commerce and the Pan American and Boeing Aircraft companies.

Ortega said air freight will reach 19.5 billion tons by 1980, 20 times its present volume.

Council Approves Budget

The City Council Friday approved the second highest budget in the city's history, and set a tax levy of 26.90 mills—up 1.4 from last fiscal year.

The 1966-67 budget, as authorized by the council in a special morning session, shows an increase of $333,333 over the $9,573,791 proposed by Mayor Dean Peterson to support expenditures supported wholly or in part by taxes.

The total budget—including tax-supported and self-sustaining accounts reaches $41,280,929, second only to last year's outlay of $46.2 million.

The levy was combined with a 1.1 mill levy for the Lincoln Airport Authority for a 28.0 mill total, requiring Lincoln property owners to pay $28 on each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Not counting the tax money needed for debt service on City Hall bonds, issued by voter approval in April 1965, the tax levy increase will amount to only one-half mill.

Council action followed several weeks of debate and an Aug. 16 public hearing in which council members and other city officials battled to hold down city spending.

Included late in budget figuring was $112,000—the city's share—to finance an addition to Bennett Martin public library. Other additions included healthy increases in the police and recreation budgets.

The budget appropriation and mill levy resolutions were passed with affirmative votes by council members Mrs. Helen Boosalis, Lloyd Hinkley, John Selleck and Carroll Thompson. Absent were John Comstock, John Mason and Ervin Peterson.

The city fiscal year starts Sept. 1.

Greek War Planes Transport 22 Tons Of Quake Relief

Istanbul, Turkey (AP)—Five Greek air force transport planes arrived here Friday carrying 22 tons of relief supplies for victims of last week's killer earthquake in eastern Turkey.

It was the first time Greek war planes had been over Turkish soil since trouble broke out on Cyprus at Christmas time in 1963.

A spokesman said the planes carried 12 tons of medicine provided by the World Council of Churches and 10 tons of foodstuffs and blankets donated by the Greek Red Cross.

King Constantine of Greece was among the first to offer condolences following the quake a week ago, which claimed at least 2,477 lives.

Actress Novak Suffers Possible Back Injuries

Santa Maria, Calif. (UPI)—Actress Kim Novak, 33, suffered possible back injuries and lacerations Friday when she was involved in an automobile accident here, according to a spokesman for Sisters Hospital.

"We don't think it is real serious," said a hospital spokesman. He said she was being given x-rays in the hospital's emergency room to determine the extent of the injuries.

Authorities said the actress' car left U.S. 101 near the Santa Maria River Bridge and hurtled 120 feet down an embankment with the actress inside.

Railroad's Share Decreases Despite Ag Produce Rise

Chicago (UPI)—A Rock Island Railroad official said that the railroad's share of the agricultural business has decreased in the last 30 years despite a rise in agricultural production.

Albert Hatcher, chief traffic officer of the Rock Island, blamed the decrease on truck competition and a shortage of railroad cars.

Hatcher testified for the third day at Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on the proposed Rock Island-Union Pacific merger.

The Union Pacific has said it wants to take over the smaller Rock Island because the Rock Island cannot afford to maintain its trackage or equipment.

Four railroads opposing the merger contend the combined lines would have monopolistic control.

McPherson Co. Sheriff Neal Is Dead At 68

Kearney (AP) — William Earl (Billy) Neal, 68, Tryon, sheriff of McPherson County for more than 34 years, died in a Kearney hospital Friday after a two-week illness.

A lifetime resident of McPherson County, Sheriff Neal was a livestock dealer in addition to serving as sheriff.

Survivors include his wife, Donna of Tryon; three sons, Harold and Donald of Tryon, and John of Ringgold; and two daughters, Mrs. Donald Tatch and Mrs. Charles Nicholson, both of Tryon.

Omahan Named VFW Auxiliary National Guard

New York (AP) — Mrs. Paul Harmon of Omaha, Neb., was named national guard at the convention of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Friday.

She also was named deputy director of hospital work.

Mrs. Benjamin Hoden of Council Bluffs, Iowa, was named director of the auxiliary's extension program.

Memorial Rites Planned Monday For Lt. Knott

David City—Memorial services for First Lt. Kenneth R. Knott, 25, of 4129 Holdrege, Lincoln, who lost his life when his jet plane exploded over Lake Michigan, will be held at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Mary's Catholic Church in David City.

Military honors will be conferred by the Nebraska Air National Guard 155th Tactical Reconnaisance Group.

Lt. Knott, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Knott of David City, was undergoing summer training at Phelps-Collin Field near Alpena, Mich., with the 155th Tactical Reconnaissance Air Guard Group when the mishap occurred.

Surviving in addition to his parents are his wife, the former JoAnn Cockson of Bellwood; an infant daughter, Lisa Ann; two brothers, George and John, both Air Force officers; and a sister, Mrs. Merlyn Muntz.

$30 Million Flood

New Delhi (AP) — Irrigation Minister F. A. Ahmed told parliament torrential rains and floods following record regional droughts ravaged four million acres, killed 50 people and 8,700 head of cattle, damaged 25,500 homes and cost India $30.1 million.

69 Hospitals In State Plan Rate Hike This Year

Omaha (AP)—Nebraska Blue Cross and Blue Shield reported Friday that 69 of the state's 112 hospitals will increase their rates this year.

William H. Heavey, executive secretary of the insurance organization, said this compared with 55 which upped rates in 1965.

He said he does not feel the new increases were caused by Medicare. Instead, he said, they were probably the result of normal salary increases and in anticipation of proposed legislation to bring all hospital workers under minimum wage standards.

Heavey said that despite the rate increases, he expects no boost in Blue Cross and Blue Shield insurance premiums.

Antwerp, Belgium (AP)—Belgian police on a dockside search for stolen whiskey reported they found instead 250 Czech-made rifles in 25 crates marked as containing spare parts for water pumps.

Loup River Basin Development Meet Slated

St. Paul — Persons interested in the complete development of soil and water resources in the Loup River Basin are urged to attend a public meeting at St. Paul Tuesday.

The disastrous floods which hit the lower Loup River area a few days ago only emphasized in a costly way the latent water problems which are likely to become more severe as water resources are fully developed, a University of Nebraska specialist said this week.

Deon Axthelm, NU Extension water resources specialist, said unified action should be undertaken by residents of the Middle, North and South Loup River basins not only to prevent floods but to put excess water to use.

Emphasizes Co-Operation

Co-operative action by various water users is a "must" if water originating in and flowing through the Loup basin area is to be used to its maximum before leaving the basin, Axthelm pointed out. He pointed to recent suggestions that legislation be passed to transfer water from one watershed to another in Nebraska. As the pressure on water resources increases the need for coordinating water use within the basin will become greater, he said.

With the goal of developing a coordinated soil and water conservation program for the Loup basin, the Nebraska Soil and Water Conservation Commission has called the public meeting at the Legion Club in St. Paul at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

It is hoped that discussion at the meeting will lead to the formation of a basinwide organization to sponsor plans and studies which would include the entire Loup drainage system, from the upper tributaries to the mouth of the river near Columbus.

Representatives of federal and state agencies, University of Nebraska and Cooperative Extension Service will be on hand to help citizens identify problems and seek possible solutions through technical assistance and counsel.

While invitations have been issued to heads of organizations, mayors, county board members, soil and water conservation district supervisors and others, everyone interested in the future prosperity of the Loup River Basin is urged to attend the meeting, Axthelm concluded.

Students Bus Fare Stays Up Despite Court Order

By GERRY SWITZER
Star Staff Writer

Despite a State Railway Commission order rescinding its previous action increasing Lincoln City Lines bus fares, Lincoln students will have to pay the regular rates at least until Sept. 14.

As a result of a temporary restraining order issued by Lancaster District Judge William Hastings Friday, the previous order of July 13 increasing fares effective Aug. 1 is to remain in force until a Sept. 14 hearing scheduled by the Railway Commission to review the matter.

The second order of Aug. 24 returning the fares to the levels in effect prior to the increase was issued by the Railway Commission after it was discovered that the previous preferential rates for students were omitted in the new schedule.

The petition alleges that the order of Aug. 24 was entered without notice and without hearing contrary to law and the constitution and that in entering the order the Railway Commission was unreasonable and arbitrary and exceeded its authority.

The July 13 order included the following fares effective Aug. 1: adults, 20 cents; children from five to 12 years, 15 cents; additional zone fare for adults, 10 cents, and for children, five cents, and zone fore to the Lincoln Air Force Base for adults 15 cents.

The Aug. 24 order returned the fares to those in effect prior to the Aug. 1 hike. They were: adults 15 cents; children from five to 12 years, 10 cents; grade and high school students, 10 cents; additional zone fare for adults, 10 cents, and for children, five cents, and zone fare to the Lincoln Air Force Base for adults 15 cents.

The bus company alleges that the Railway Commission's Aug. 24 order was illegal, unconstitutional and void because it was entered before the official transcript of evidence had been prepared; the plaintiff was not given notice of hearing; plaintiff was denied the right to appear and present evidence, and the order does not contain findings of fact consisting of concise statements of conclusions.

Four railroads opposing the merger contend the combined lines would have monopolistic control.

McPherson Co. Sheriff Neal Is Dead At 68

Kearney (AP) — William Earl (Billy) Neal, 68, Tryon, sheriff of McPherson County for more than 34 years, died in a Kearney hospital Friday after a two-week illness.

A lifetime resident of McPherson County, Sheriff Neal was a livestock dealer in addition to serving as sheriff.

Survivors include his wife, Donna of Tryon; three sons, Harold and Donald of Tryon, and John of Ringgold; and two daughters, Mrs. Donald Tatch and Mrs. Charles Nicholson, both of Tryon.

Omahan Named VFW Auxiliary National Guard

New York (AP) — Mrs. Paul Harmon of Omaha, Neb., was named national guard at the convention of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Friday.

She also was named deputy director of hospital work.

Mrs. Benjamin Hoden of Council Bluffs, Iowa, was named director of the auxiliary's extension program.

Maneuvers Joint

Berlin, Germany (AP) — East German and Soviet troops held joint maneuvers in northern East Germany.

Memorial Rites Planned Monday For Lt. Knott

David City—Memorial services for First Lt. Kenneth R. Knott, 25, of 4129 Holdrege, Lincoln, who lost his life when his jet plane exploded over Lake Michigan, will be held at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Mary's Catholic Church in David City.

Military honors will be conferred by the Nebraska Air National Guard 155th Tactical Reconnaisance Group.

Lt. Knott, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Knott of David City, was undergoing summer training at Phelps-Collin Field near Alpena, Mich., with the 155th Tactical Reconnaissance Air Guard Group when the mishap occurred.

Surviving in addition to his parents are his wife, the former JoAnn Cockson of Bellwood; an infant daughter, Lisa Ann; two brothers, George and John, both Air Force officers; and a sister, Mrs. Merlyn Muntz.

$30 Million Flood

New Delhi (AP) — Irrigation Minister F. A. Ahmed told parliament torrential rains and floods following record regional droughts ravaged four million acres, killed 50 people and 8,700 head of cattle, damaged 25,500 homes and cost India $30.1 million.

69 Hospitals In State Plan Rate Hike This Year

Omaha (AP)—Nebraska Blue Cross and Blue Shield reported Friday that 69 of the state's 112 hospitals will increase their rates this year.

William H. Heavey, executive secretary of the insurance organization, said this compared with 55 which upped rates in 1965.

He said he does not feel the new increases were caused by Medicare. Instead, he said, they were probably the result of normal salary increases and in anticipation of proposed legislation to bring all hospital workers under minimum wage standards.

Heavey said that despite the rate increases, he expects no boost in Blue Cross and Blue Shield insurance premiums.

Spare Parts

Antwerp, Belgium (AP)—Belgian police on a dockside search for stolen whiskey reported they found instead 250 Czech-made rifles in 25 crates marked as containing spare parts for water pumps.

Loup River Basin Development Meet Slated

St. Paul — Persons interested in the complete development of soil and water resources in the Loup River Basin are urged to attend a public meeting at St. Paul Tuesday.

The disastrous floods which hit the lower Loup River area a few days ago only emphasized in a costly way the latent water problems which are likely to become more severe as water resources are fully developed, a University of Nebraska specialist said this week.

Deon Axthelm, NU Extension water resources specialist, said unified action should be undertaken by residents of the Middle, North and South Loup River basins not only to prevent floods but to put excess water to use.

Emphasizes Co-Operation

Co-operative action by various water users is a "must" if water originating in and flowing through the Loup basin area is to be used to its maximum before leaving the basin, Axthelm pointed out. He pointed to recent suggestions that legislation be passed to transfer water from one watershed to another in Nebraska. As the pressure on water resources increases the need for coordinating water use within the basin will become greater, he said.

With the goal of developing a coordinated soil and water conservation program for the Loup basin, the Nebraska Soil and Water Conservation Commission has called the public meeting at the Legion Club in St. Paul at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

It is hoped that discussion at the meeting will lead to the formation of a basinwide organization to sponsor plans and studies which would include the entire Loup drainage system, from the upper tributaries to the mouth of the river near Columbus.

Representatives of federal and state agencies, University of Nebraska and Cooperative Extension Service will be on hand to help citizens identify problems and seek possible solutions through technical assistance and counsel.

While invitations have been issued to heads of organizations, mayors, county board members, soil and water conservation district supervisors and others, everyone interested in the future prosperity of the Loup River Basin is urged to attend the meeting, Axthelm concluded.

Matter Of Self-Protection

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Collapse of the ordinance requiring the removal of ignition keys from parked cars is welcome and it is hoped that the Council now forgets about the subject. The ordinance has failed because enforcement or prosecution officials cannot establish under it who is the guilty party in a violation. The violation, leaving keys in an unattended car, can be established but not the specific offender.

This all seems a little vague to us out that appears to be the way the legal experts spell it out. It seems to us that this is the case with just about all non-moving violations since the violation is seldom determined with the actual driver present. The citation for the violation goes to the owner of the car, regardless of who might have been driving it at the time of the offense. But apparently the same kind of reasoning does not apply to all violations. Or, maybe we just don't understand the situation. Some of the technicalities of the law can be pretty tricky.

Technicality Catchy

What we do understand is that the law against leaving your keys in the car is an unpopular one and one against which frequent complaint is heard. It is not difficult to see the purpose of the law—to protect the individual and to aid in the enforcement of law and the prevention of auto theft.

All of this notwithstanding it still seems that it is going too far to fine a person for leaving his keys in his car. This is, after all, a rather small thing and something that can be done totally without thought. And it has to do strictly with the personal property of the car owner.

Nor do keys in a parked car have any adverse effect upon anyone else. Such an act is no threat to anyone, as you find in speeding or violating a stop sign. It is no inconvenience to anyone as you find in overtime parking or parking in a no-parking zone. These offenses bother or interfere with other people in varying degrees but leaving your keys in your car bothers no one. If we are to be fined for leaving keys in the car, we could be fined for a lot of things. How about a fine for leaving doors or windows unlocked at home? Open doors and windows are an invitation to thievery and locking them would be an assistance to good law-enforcement.

The open display of goods in retail stores is an invitation to shoplifting but we could hardly eliminate such displays. A man who carries a large amount of cash in his billfold is asking for trouble but we generally consider that to be his own business. If he carries his billfold in an unbuttoned back pocket, he is inviting pickpockets but that, too, is his own business. Some people sleep with their money under their pillows as a safety precaution but there is no law that says you have to. Flashy jewelry might be a temptation to the unscrupulous but women can still wear it if they so desire.

It all gets down to the fact that you can't just provide against every eventuality. No one ever knows what is going to happen to him from one minute to the next so it is good to be a little fatalistic. Get too concerned about what might happen and you won't be getting out of bed in the mornings. Who knows, you may walk into the kitchen, put the coffee water on to boil and end up scalding yourself.

When we cannot even hope to protect ourselves from all adversity, it seems illogical for the government to attempt to do so. The keys-in-the-ignition ordinance is a nuisance law and one we should forget about at this convenient point in its development. The government of Lincoln and its prosecution and enforcement arms could find a lot more important things to do than to stick people with a fine and court costs for leaving their keys in their cars.

There are a lot of little laws that count that never seem to be enforced, such as keeping weeds cut on vacant lots, keeping hedges and plants and trees cut back at intersections, parking on the correct side of the street for snow removal purposes, etc. We could easily use a 50 per cent increase in our traffic law-enforcement division to crack down on the countless nutty drivers all of us encounter every time we find ourselves on the streets. What sort of reaction do you suppose you would get from a fellow who has just paid out $7 for a keys-in-the-ignition violation who is then passed in a 25-mile-per-hour speed zone by some hot-rodder doing 40 or 50?

Unenforced Laws

The intent behind the ordinance against keys left in an unattended car is all right but it represents just too much meddling in the affairs of private citizens. It is tough enough scrounging up enough money to pay your taxes without having to be hooked every time you turn around for some small bit of thoughtlessness. If a thief wants your car bad enough, all he has to do, anyway, is wire around the ignition.

Pardon Our Skepticism

City government and civic leaders have now been presented a prospectus for another study—this one at a cost of $35,000 to determine the feasibility of converting the abandoned Lincoln Air Force Base into an aerial cargo complex. Realization of such a development would undoubtedly be a tremendous thing for Lincoln but it is a long way from dreams to reality.

We recently had a $20,000 study of base uses which told us a lot of things all of us already knew. Fortunately, we decided to study a suggested further study of the base for $75,000. Luckily, to study a study doesn't cost anything and you seem generally to get just about as much out of it.

A traffic study of Lincoln was recently completed at a cost of $125,000 and the experts maintain that it has just paved the way for a kind of implementation study and report that will cost more thousands. At least, no kind of action has resulted from that original study.

We are studying recreation centers this year and some people want to study the proposed Northeast Diagonal. In recent years, we have been up to our neck in studies and down around our shoestrings in accomplishments. The big problems we just keep shuffling aside and the big accomplishments we just keep missing.

It isn't confidence we are lacking, but faith: We don't say the potential isn't there for an aerial cargo complex or that we couldn't possibly realize it but we are tired of talk and no action, no leadership. We are tired of everybody looking at us for a fat fee and ending up a fat boy. We would like for a change to get a little return on some of our investment. About the only thing we haven't studied is the Job Corps, and we have it.

A Legend May Come True

One of the most delightful legends has to do with King Arthur and his knights of the Round Table, residing at Camelot, before there was a history of England in writing.

Retelling the story of the great chieftain embroidered it to the point that he became half divine, a great hero who is supposed to return to save England whenever needed. Even his sword became legendary. Named Excalibur, it was found mysteriously with its blade held fast in rock, waiting for the day when the right man could free it. Of course, King Arthur was the only one who could turn the trick and once the sword was in his hands, his greatness was secure. In the Lady of The Lake, by Sir Walter Scott, it was related that upon King Arthur's death, the sword was cast into a lake and an arm, clothed in white samint, reached up from the waves and reclaimed it.

The only fault in the story is that no one has ever found Camelot nor any trace of the castle of King Arthur. In Cornwall they said that the encroaching sea had consumed the location. Another fault was that the legend was retold in many countries, which makes one skeptical of its true authenticity. It is like the legend of Sir Roland duBois who performed such great feats for France. The only trouble, he shows up in legend as Italy's great Orlando, performing similar feats. He is also known by other names in the Near East.

Now finally we have some evidence that King Arthur did exist. Archeologists digging deep in the soil at Cadbury castle near Yeoville, in Cornwall, have penetrated a treasure trove of early artifacts indicating King Arthur lived there and made war against the invading Saxons somewhere around the year 500. A little more money to pay the diggers and a little more digging may prove the legend substantially true.

English For Americans

From The Christian Science Monitor

Robert Cassell of Atlanta, Ga., is a high school honor student. But Robert apparently was deficient on one point: He couldn't understand English-English. He and his companion missed their plane from London to Paris because, he admitted, "We couldn't understand that English of our British cousins on the announcement system."

His plight was that of many Americans touring Britain this summer. In countries where foreign languages are spoken, American travelers keep their eyes fixed on the electronic bulletin boards, knowing they can't understand the announcement. But in England, land of their native tongue, they trust the loudspeaker to tell them the departure gate. When the information comes in some special British accent—Oxford, Yorkshire, Scottish, or some other—they may not recognize it as even referring to their own flight. They continue to read their newspaper until the clock tells them something went wrong.

But it is not all one-sided. An American asking his way to Tottingham Road got no help until a clever Londoner spotted the cause of his trouble and corrected him. "Tinhm, not Tottingham."

We hope to see a new travel manual put on the market, an English-American, American-English pronunciation guide. Such a volume could enable Robert Cassell not only to catch his plane but to make himself understood to the British stewardess if he wanted marmalade with his cracker (biscuit).

Army Demonstration On The Art Of Killing

WASHINGTON — Various people have been telephoning me about an Army exhibition on how to murder people in cold blood, called "Torchlight Tattoo," which is being staged weekly in front of the Jefferson Memorial. Spectators seemed to think this demonstration of death was not the thing to show young people; so I sent an assistant, Lewis Katz, down to witness the simulated blood-letting first hand.

He reported that the purpose of the military circus was to sell the public on the Army. The program began with one soldier attacking another from behind and strangling him with piano wire. As the strangulation started, the army announcer said:

"The garrote: Some people feel that it's old fashioned, but when pulled taut and twisted violently, I can assure you it's most effective." (Laughter from audience.)

Then another soldier sneaked up and lunged with a huge sword at an unsuspecting Viet Cong (played by a Ranger).

Says the announcer:

"The machete: Usually used for clearing underbrush but its sharp blade can always be used to kill a man." At that moment a sharp grunt is heard from the "dying Viet Cong."

Then two men demonstrated the art of killing with a knife, as the announcer explained.

Concluding the program, the announcer showed the art of killing with the hands and feet, by pointing out the most vulnerable areas of the body which when hit will cripple or kill the victim.

Finally, the announcer offered this joking advice: "We would like to caution the youngsters in the audience not to try any of these techniques on their friends or even on their parents because someone might get hurt."

☆ ☆ ☆

Next day, we called the commanding officer of the Third Infantry, Col. Joseph Conmy, director of the program, to ask why, in view of the nation's concern over juvenile crime and TV violence, the Army had to demonstrate so blatantly the art of killing.

"This show has been seen by over a hundred thousand, and yours is the first complaint," replied Col. Conmy. "I just never thought of this aspect of it before. All we were doing was showing the training of an everyday soldier."

"Yes, but did you take into consideration that our national crime rate is climbing and that this sort of performance not only hardens our people to violence, but also may train them in it?" Col. Conmy was asked.

"Well, I'm certainly not in the business of training killers in the civilian world," he replied. "What you say is food for thought."

Later, Col. Patrick Klein, deputy director of D.C. Army Information, telephoned. "They only showed how to use karate and judo, and this type of exercise is healthy for the public," he explained.

"Is demonstrating how to strangle a man with piano wire and the best way to cut a man's throat also healthy for the public?" Col. Klein was asked.

"I think the public is well versed in these subjects," the colonel replied. "They read it in these detective magazines and see it on TV. Why, my children saw this show and they just shrugged off the Ranger act."

The Frustrated Gulls On Nantucket Beaches

WASHINGTON—The other day I noticed a small item about an unspecified government agency's experiment with sea gulls. It seems that the agency has seeded the beaches of Nantucket and is observing the foolish gulls trying to hatch them.

A mean trick, to be sure, but not beneath our scientists. Anyway, the columnist didn't know which agency and I've called about 10 of the science-related ones here without finding the culprit. But the point of my dissertation is this no doubt whatsoever that I have our government is gulling the gull.

Just the other day Sen. Abraham Ribicoff (D., Conn.) was marveling at the fact that we're spending $27,500 annually to fight rats in our cities and $45 million annually to combat yellow fever. This is odd, you see, because rats killed or maimed 14,000 Americans last year, but we haven't had a case of yellow fever since 1917.

☆ ☆ ☆

Which brings us to a recent report issued by the Naval Oceanographic Office. In an effort to grab reader interest, the report opens like this: "Undersea mountains have a frightening habit of being found where only deep ocean water has previously been recorded."

From that I gathered that underseas mountains are popping up faster than hives and that our Navy has found some and is frightened. Unfortunately, instead of illustrating the underseas mountains habit of being found, the report gives us the 1948 adventure of S.S. American Scout. Right away you get the impression that things are a little slow in the underseas mountains department.

Anyway, American Scout was 600 miles east of Newfoundland, in an area chartered as deep water, when its fathometer recorded "shallow depths." American Scout notified the Navy and an instrument ship was dispatched to verify this "undersea mountain." What it found was water 2.5 miles deep. No mountain.

Apparently American Scout's fathometer needed an overhaul. Why this story was used for the report, we'll never know. And perhaps we'll never know if the Navy ever finds mountains, because the report ends there. (I wonder if I asked the Navy why it looks for phantom mountains, if it would answer, "Because they are not there.")

Conclusion: Any government that brags about going on goose chases in the Atlantic is likely to be frustrating gulls in Nantucket.

ON TARGET

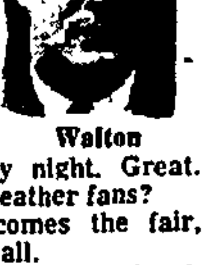
By DON WALTON

Polfect.

Nebraska in August is usually a grim experience—hot and muggy, oppressive at night. Often worse than July, if that's possible.

But suddenly Nebraska is air-conditioned.

Cool, invigorating temperatures. Chilly night. Great. Right, cool weather fans?



Walton

So, here comes the fair, fall and football.

You'll know it's Fair Week when traffic starts moving both directions on Lincoln's one-way streets. About next weekend.

Fall may be a little more difficult to distinguish this year if Nebraska keeps its pre-autumn cool. But, you'll know October.

And football? Watch for the tell-tale signs: a touch of madness; red hats, red eyes, ready opinions from thousands of experts. And the return of that midnight prowler, the mad punter.

☆ ☆ ☆

First class.

That was the AAU swim-and-dive show and the way Lincoln handled it.

Praise flowed freely from a national swim magazine editor who told Lincoln newsmen that, in his 10 years of covering national meets, this one chalked up the best attendance of all and only the Los Angeles meet of four or five years ago could compare to it in terms of performance by the swimmers.

Nine world's records in four days is truly a fantastic performance.

Encore, Mr. Groth?

You know what would be fun?

To ask all Democratic nominees in Nebraska, in view of the recent polls which indicate that Democratic voters prefer Bob Kennedy over LBJ for the 1968 presidential nomination, to express their views on the same subject.

Whom, Mr. Nominee, do you prefer in 1968?

Oh, Senator Kennedy isn't a candidate. Oh, he says he supports Mr. Johnson in 1968. Oh, besides that decision will be up to the convention. And that's two years away. And the polls may change by then. And they're not always right anyway. And you'll support whoever the convention nominates. And they're both great men. And . . .

No, that wouldn't be much fun after all.

Behind-the-scenes pressure from senators who hold two-year terms and must seek re-election this fall was one of the reasons the Legislative Council's executive board declined to summon all senators to Lincoln for a briefing on the highway construction revenue bond proposal.

A batch of two-year-term senators, we are told, passed the word that they didn't want to face the issue this year before the election.

That factor influenced the vote of at least one member of the board, he admitted privately.

☆ ☆ ☆

Clair Callan is at the moment considered the Democratic Party's strongest nominee in Nebraska, the only Democratic candidate for major office whom leaders of both parties believe is clearly ahead.

But is he really strong enough to take on two congressional districts at the same time?

Four Callan billboards are advertising the congressman in Grand Island. And Grand Island just happens to be in Dave Martin's Third District, not Callan's First.

Credit the Callan spill-over to an over-enthusiastic, or under-informed, billboard company.

☆ ☆ ☆

Let's finish it up:

—Bill Ettinger has been interviewed in Topeka for a post with a state institution, and has a job opportunity available in Philadelphia.

—No one even came close to drowning at Woods Pool last weekend, but a few thousand fans almost went under at the Shrine football game at Devaney Bowl.

—AAU swim publicity director Jim Raglin, known to his many admirers as "Rags," was a little flaky last Sunday when it was all over, having dutifully recorded all the events, the order of finish, the times, team points and the zillion records. It got so he flinched every time his name was called and finally he "resigned"—with a press release inviting all those sportswriters to a hospitality hour, "free-style."

—Is it true that a local newspaper has purchased four white crash helmets for its reporters to wear when they cover Lincoln riots? And to assure that the white-helmeted guys with pencils and notepads remain inconspicuous, the headgear will be labeled "Press." Really?

Tired Of It

Lincoln, Neb.

I am a tired American, too. I am tired of riots and demonstrations where there is no cause to do so.

I am tired of courts that are easy on criminals, especially where the United States Supreme Court overturned the conviction of Miranda, in Miranda vs. Arizona. This action freed the man to commit more crime.

On Firearms

Lincoln, Neb.

Much has been said about the sale of guns through the mail, but has anyone ever stopped to consider that most of the people who are screaming for stringent gun controls are people who have never owned a gun?

Most will frankly admit that they have never fired one or are deathly afraid of them. Some will argue that a firearm has but one purpose, and that is to kill. This is a narrow-minded attitude and stems primarily from a lack of education in the use of firearms. Judging from what I have been reading lately, most newspaper columnists and magazine writers are in this group. These people don't understand firearms, yet they think they are qualified to condemn them.

I think that legislation should be directed at the criminal misuse of firearms and not the weapon itself. We need stiffer penalties and stricter enforcement of existing laws.

We could remove every instrument from the face of this earth that has ever been used to kill people and we would have nothing left but people. Yet we would still have killing because guns, knives, baseball bats, ad infinitum don't kill people. People kill people.

Old-Time Fishing

Lincoln, Neb.

One upon a time on a Saturday night after man's work was done, he hurried home, loaded the car with fishing tackle, pillows, blankets and some food, while the children clamored into the back seat. Nights were beautiful with bright moonlight and there was Crete, Ashland, or some other favorite spot along the river. Other neighbors circled in. The men took off in the darkness to set their poles and toss out throw lines. Some stretched out and went to sleep; others came back to camp.

The morning awoke with joyous bird song and the tantalizing smell of coffee, bacon and eggs. There was only contentment, away from the daily tensions of busy days.

The dam just south of town was a delight, alive with fat bullhead. The men sat below the bank, caught, cleaned and tossed the fish up to be washed in a pan and fried. Mouths watered in anticipation. When enough was ready, the men came up, and all fell to.

Those were the days when fishing was a real family affair, a weekend that brought them close to God-given beauty. It was wonderful relaxation for townsfolk.

Matter Of Self-Protection

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Collapse of the ordinance requiring the removal of ignition keys from parked cars is welcome and it is hoped that the Council now forgets about the subject. The ordinance has failed because enforcement or prosecution officials cannot establish under it who is the guilty party in a violation. The violation, leaving keys in an unattended car, can be established but not the specific offender.

Technicality Catchy

This all seems a little vague to us out that appears to be the way the legal experts spell it out. It seems to us that this is the case with just about all non-moving violations since the violation is seldom determined with the actual driver present. The citation for the violation goes to the owner of the car, regardless of who might have been driving it at the time of the offense. But apparently the same kind of reasoning does not apply to all violations. Or, maybe we just don't understand the situation. Some of the technicalities of the law can be pretty tricky.

What we do understand is that the law against leaving your keys in the car is an unpopular one and one against which frequent complaint is heard. It is not difficult to see the purpose of the law—to protect the individual and to aid in the enforcement of law and the prevention of auto theft.

All of this notwithstanding it still seems that it is going too far to fine a person for leaving his keys in his car. This is, after all, a rather small thing and something that can be done totally without thought. And it has to do strictly with the personal property of the car owner.

Nor do keys in a parked car have any adverse effect upon anyone else. Such an act is no threat to anyone, as you find in speeding or violating a stop sign. It is no inconvenience to anyone as you find in overtime parking or parking in a no-parking zone. These offenses bother or interfere with other people in varying degrees but leaving your keys in your car bothers no one. If we are to be fined for leaving keys in the car, we could be fined for a lot of things. How about a fine for leaving doors or windows unlocked at home? Open doors and windows are an invitation to thievery and locking them would be an assistance to good law-enforcement.

The open display of goods in retail stores is an invitation to shoplifting but we could hardly eliminate such displays. A man who carries a large amount of cash in his billfold is asking for trouble but we generally consider that to be his own business. If he carries his billfold in an unbuttoned back pocket, he is inviting pickpockets but that, too, is his own business. Some people sleep with their money under their pillows as a safety precaution but there is no law that says you have to. Flashy jewelry might be a temptation to the unscrupulous but women can still wear it if they so desire.

It all gets down to the fact that you can't just provide against every eventuality. No one ever knows what is going to happen to him from one minute to the next so it is good to be a little fatalistic. Get too concerned about what might happen and you won't be getting out of bed in the mornings. Who knows, you may walk into the kitchen, put the coffee water on to boil and end up scalding yourself.

When we cannot even hope to protect ourselves from all adversity, it seems illogical for the government to attempt to do so. The keys-in-the-ignition ordinance is a nuisance law and one we should forget about at this convenient point in its development. The government of Lincoln and its prosecution and enforcement arms could find a lot more important things to do than to stick people with a fine and court costs for leaving their keys in their cars.

Unenforced Laws

There are a lot of little laws that count that never seem to be enforced, such as keeping weeds cut on vacant lots, keeping hedges and plants and trees cut back at intersections, parking on the correct side of the street for snow removal purposes, etc. We could easily use a 50 per cent increase in our traffic law-enforcement division to crack down on the countless nutty drivers all of us encounter every time we find ourselves on the streets. What sort of reaction do you suppose you would get from a fellow who has just paid out $7 for a keys-in-the-ignition violation who is then passed in a 25-mile-per-hour speed zone by some hot-rodder doing 40 or 50?

The intent behind the ordinance against keys left in an unattended car is all right but it represents just too much meddling in the affairs of private citizens. It is tough enough scrounging up enough money to pay your taxes without having to be hooked every time you turn around for some small bit of thoughtlessness. If a thief wants your car bad enough, all he has to do, anyway, is wire around the ignition.

Pardon Our Skepticism

City government and civic leaders have now been presented a prospectus for another study—this one at a cost of $35,000 to determine the feasibility of converting the abandoned Lincoln Air Force Base into an aerial cargo complex. Realization of such a development would undoubtedly be a tremendous thing for Lincoln but it is a long way from dreams to reality.

We recently had a $20,000 study of base uses which told us a lot of things all of us already knew. Fortunately, we decided to study a suggested further study of the base for $75,000. Luckily, to study a study doesn't cost anything and you seem generally to get just about as much out of it.

A traffic study of Lincoln was recently completed at a cost of $125,000 and the experts maintain that it has just paved the way for a kind of implementation study and report that will cost more thousands. At least, no kind of action has resulted from that original study.

We are studying recreation centers this year and some people want to study the proposed Northeast Diagonal. In recent years, we have been up to our neck in studies and down around our shoestrings in accomplishments. The big problems we just keep shuffling aside and the big accomplishments we just keep missing.

It isn't confidence we are lacking, but faith. We don't say the potential isn't there for an aerial cargo complex or that we couldn't possibly realize it but we are tired of talk and no action, no leadership. We are tired of everybody looking at us for a fat fee and ending up a fat boy. We would like for a change to get a little return on some of our investment. About the only thing we haven't studied is the Job Corps, and we have it.

A Legend May Come True

One of the most delightful legends has to do with King Arthur and his knights of the Round Table, residing at Camelot, before there was a history of England in writing.

Retelling the story of the great chieftain embroidered it to the point that he became half divine, a great hero who is supposed to return to save England whenever needed. Even his sword became legendary. Named Excalibur, it was found mysteriously with its blade held fast in rock, waiting for the day when the right man could free it. Of course, King Arthur was the only one who could turn the trick and once the sword was in his hands, his greatness was secure. In the Lady of The Lake, by Sir Walter Scott, it was related that upon King Arthur's death, the sword was cast into a lake and an arm, clothed in white samint, reached up from the waves and reclaimed it.

The only fault in the story is that no one has ever found Camelot nor any trace of the castle of King Arthur. In Cornwall they said that the encroaching sea had consumed the location. Another fault was that the legend was retold in many countries, which makes one skeptical of its true authenticity. It is like the legend of Sir Roland duBois who performed such great feats for France. The only trouble, he shows up in legend as Italy's great Orlando, performing similar feats. He is also known by other names in the Near East.

Now finally we have some evidence that King Arthur did exist. Archeologists digging deep in the soil at Cadbury castle near Yeoville, in Cornwall, have penetrated a treasure trove of early artifacts indicating King Arthur lived there and made war against the invading Saxons somewhere around the year 500. A little more money to pay the diggers and a little more digging may prove the legend substantially true.

English For Americans

From The Christian Science Monitor

Robert Cassell of Atlanta, Ga., is a high school honor student. But Robert apparently was deficient on one point: He couldn't understand English-English. He and his companion missed their plane from London to Paris because, he admitted, "We couldn't understand that English of our British cousins on the announcement system."

His plight was that of many Americans touring Britain this summer. In countries where foreign languages are spoken, American travelers keep their eyes fixed on the electronic bulletin boards, knowing they can't understand the announcement. But in England, land of their native tongue, they trust the loudspeaker to tell them the departure gate. When the information comes in some special British accent—Oxford, Yorkshire, Scottish, or some other—they may not recognize it as even referring to their own flight. They continue to read their newspaper until the clock tells them something went wrong.

But it is not all one-sided. An American asking his way to Tottingham Road got no help until a clever Londoner spotted the cause of his trouble and corrected him. "Ttnhm, not Tottingham."

We hope to see a new travel manual put on the market, an English-American, American-English pronunciation guide. Such a volume could enable Robert Cassell not only to catch his plane but to make himself understood to the British stewardess if he wanted marmalade with his cracker (biscuit).

Army Demonstration On The Art Of Killing

WASHINGTON — Various people have been telephoning me about an Army exhibition on how to murder people in cold blood, called "Torchlight Tattoo," which is being staged weekly in front of the Jefferson Memorial. Spectators seemed to think this demonstration of death was not the thing to show young people; so I sent an assistant, Lewis Katz, down to witness the simulated blood-letting first hand.

He reported that the purpose of the military circus was to sell the public on the Army. The program began with one soldier attacking another from behind and strangling him with piano wire. As the strangulation started, the army announcer said:

"The garrote: Some people feel that it's old fashioned, but when pulled taut and twisted violently, I can assure you it's most effective." (Laughter from audience.)

Then another soldier sneaked up and lunged with a huge sword at an unsuspecting Viet Cong (played by a Ranger).

Says the announcer:

"The machete: Usually used for clearing underbrush but its sharp blade can always be used to kill a man." At that moment a sharp grunt is heard from the "dying Viet Cong."

Then two men demonstrated the art of killing with a knife, as the announcer explained.

Concluding the program, the announcer showed the art of killing with the hands and feet, by pointing out the most vulnerable areas of the body which when hit will cripple or kill the victim.

Finally, the announcer offered this joking advice: "We would like to caution the youngsters in the audience not to try any of these techniques on their friends or even on their parents because someone might get hurt."

☆ ☆ ☆

Next day, we called the commanding officer of the Third Infantry, Col. Joseph Conmy, director of the program, to ask why, in view of the nation's concern over juvenile crime and TV violence, the Army had to demonstrate so blatantly the art of killing.

"This show has been seen by over a hundred thousand, and yours is the first complaint," replied Col. Conmy. "I just never thought of this aspect of it before. All we were doing was showing the training of an everyday soldier."

"Yes, but did you take into consideration that our national crime rate is climbing and that this sort of performance not only hardens our people to violence, but also may train them in it?" Col. Conmy was asked.

"Well, I'm certainly not in the business of training killers in the civilian world," he replied. "What you say is food for thought."

Later, Col. Patrick Klein, deputy director of D.C. Army Information, telephoned. "They only showed how to use karate and judo, and this type of exercise is healthy for the public," he explained.

"Is demonstrating how to strangle a man with piano wire and the best way to cut a man's throat also healthy for the public?" Col. Klein was asked.

"I think the public is well versed in these subjects," the colonel replied. "They read it in these detective magazines and see it on TV. Why, my children saw this show and they just shrugged off the Ranger act."

The Frustrated Gulls On Nantucket Beaches

WASHINGTON—The other day I noticed a small item about an unspecified government agency's experiment with sea gulls. It seems that the agency has seeded the beaches of Nantucket and is observing the foolish gulls trying to hatch them.

A mean trick, to be sure, but not beneath our scientists. Anyway, the columnist didn't know which agency and I've called about 10 of the science-related ones here without finding the culprit. But the point of my dissertation is this no doubt whatsoever that I have our government is gulling the gull.

Just the other day Sen. Abraham Ribicoff (D., Conn.) was marveling at the fact that we're spending $27,500 annually to fight rats in our cities and $45 million annually to combat yellow fever. This is odd, you see, because rats killed or maimed 14,000 Americans last year, but we haven't had a case of yellow fever since 1917.

☆ ☆ ☆

Which brings us to a recent report issued by the Naval Oceanographic Office. In an effort to grab reader interest, the report opens like this: "Undersea mountains have a frightening habit of being found where only deep ocean water has previously been recorded."

From that I gathered that underseas mountains are popping up faster than hives and that our Navy has found some and is frightened. Unfortunately, instead of illustrating the underseas mountains habit of being found, the report gives us the 1948 adventure of S.S. American Scout. Right away you get the impression that things are a little slow in the underseas mountains department.

Anyway, American Scout was 600 miles east of Newfoundland, in an area chartered as deep water, when its fathometer recorded "shallow depths." American Scout notified the Navy and an instrument ship was dispatched to verify this "undersea mountain." What it found was water 2.5 miles deep. No mountain.

Apparently American Scout's fathometer needed an overhaul. Why this story was used for the report, we'll never know. And perhaps we'll never know if the Navy ever finds mountains, because the report ends there. (I wonder if I asked the Navy why it looks for phantom mountains, if it would answer, "Because they are not there.")

Conclusion: Any government that brags about going on goose chases in the Atlantic is likely to be frustrating gulls in Nantucket.

ON TARGET

Poifect.

Nebraska in August is usually a grim experience—hot and muggy, oppressive at night. Often worse than July, if that's possible.

Walton

But suddenly Nebraska is air-conditioned.

Cool, invigorating temperatures. Chilly night. Great. Right, cool weather fans?

So, here comes the fair, fall and football.

You'll know it's Fair Week when traffic starts moving both directions on Lincoln's one-way streets. About next weekend.

Fall may be a little more difficult to distinguish this year if Nebraska keeps its pre-autumn cool. But, you'll know October.

And football? Watch for the tell-tale signs: a touch of madness; red hats, red eyes, ready opinions from thousands of experts. And the return of that midnight prowler, the mad punter.

First class.

That was the AAU swim-and-dive show and the way Lincoln handled it.

Praise flowed freely from a national swim magazine editor who told Lincoln newsmen that, in his 10 years of covering national meets, this one chalked up the best attendance of all and only the Los Angeles meet of four or five years ago could compare to it in terms of performance by the swimmers.

Nine world's records in four days is truly a fantastic performance.

Encore, Mr. Groth?

You know what would be fun?

To ask all Democratic nominees in Nebraska, in view of the recent polls which indicate that Democratic voters prefer Bob Kennedy over LBJ for the 1968 presidential nomination, to express their views on the same subject.

Whom, Mr. Nominee, do you prefer in 1968?

Oh, Senator Kennedy isn't a candidate. Oh, he says he supports Mr. Johnson in 1968. Oh, besides that decision will be up to the convention. And that's two years away. And the polls may change by then. And they're not always right anyway. And you'll support whoever the convention nominates. And they're both great men. And . . .

No, that wouldn't be much fun after all.

Behind-the-scenes pressure from senators who hold two-year terms and must seek re-election this fall was one of the reasons the Legislative Council's executive board declined to summon all senators to Lincoln for a briefing on the highway construction revenue bond proposal.

A batch of two-year-term senators, we are told, passed the word that they didn't want to face the issue this year before the election.

That factor influenced the vote of at least one member of the board, he admitted privately.

☆ ☆ ☆

Clair Callan is at the moment considered the Democratic Party's strongest nominee in Nebraska, the only Democratic candidate for major office whom leaders of both parties believe is clearly ahead.

But is he really strong enough to take on two congressional districts at the same time?

Four Callan billboards are advertising the congressman in Grand Island. And Grand Island just happens to be in Dave Martin's Third District, not Callan's First.

Credit the Callan spillover to an over-enthusiastic, or under-informed, billboard company.

☆ ☆ ☆

Let's finish it up:

—Bill Ettinger has been interviewed in Topeka for a post with a state institution, and has a job opportunity available in Philadelphia.

—No one even came close to drowning at Woods Pool last weekend, but a few thousand fans almost went under at the Shrine football game at Devaney Bowl.

—AAU swim publicity director Jim Raglin, known to his many admirers as "Rags," was a little flaky last Sunday when it was all over, having dutifully recorded all the events, the order of finish, the times, team points and the zillion records. It got so he flinched every time his name was called and finally he "resigned"—with a press release inviting all those sportswriters to a hospitality hour, "free-style."

—Is it true that a local newspaper has purchased four white crash helmets for its reporters to wear when they cover Lincoln riots? And to assure that the white-helmeted guys with pencils and notepads remain inconspicuous, the headgear will be labeled "Press." Really?

Employment Agency's Commission Rate Irks Typist

By ROBERT PETERSON

Q. "You recently urged lder people to sign up with he agencies that handle emporary employment. I'm good typist, so I went to n agency and they sent me out on a job where I work two days a week. The agency pays me $1.75 per hour, but I've discovered they bill the customer $2.85 — thus pocketing a profit of $1.10 an hour on my services. I'm thinking of quitting and telling them where to go."

A. Cool down. The agency is in business to make a profit. It had to risk its capital in getting started, and has the continuing expense of recruiting people, finding temporary jobs, and making assignments. It also does all the paper work in handling personnel records, social security deductions, and so forth. It's your privilege to quit, but maybe you're making a mistake. You shouldn't begrudge the agency what seems to be a fair commission on your services.

Q. "My wife drives me wild making incorrect statements. She'll say Kennedy was shot in 1961, or that Edna Ferber wrote Gone With the Wind. When I correct her she lights into me like a tiger. When I bring her the proof he says sweetly that anyone can make a mistake. It drives me wild and this has been going on for 17 years."

A. You don't expect women to be as logical as men, do you? My wife has a few foibles too — as whose doesn't? Just develop the habit of not arguing with the missus. Let her prattle on as she pleases. This will launch an era of such tranquility that you'll wonder why you ever let her errors bother you.

Q. "Both my parents are deaf, but won't admit it. We used to enjoy visiting them, but it's a nuisance now with the conversation spiked with, 'Speak up' and 'Louder please.' What makes me mad is that they won't even try a hearing aid."

A. Find a family friend who has a hearing aid, and get him to come by and demonstrate it to your parents. Many older people have a resistance to anything new and need to be cajoled and prodded to try it. Elders who don't bother to make themselves as acceptable as possible to others are the losers.

Q. "I'm 62 and recently lost my job as a secretary. I can't afford to retire. I've been offered a job as housekeeper in a large suburban home. But it scares me to think of starting a new kind of work at my age, and it also seems to mean a loss in prestige. What do you think?"

A. I think you should try it. Think positively about the possibilities. Anyone with the ability to be a secretary can certainly master the duties of a housekeeper —provided she wants to. Forget the prestige factor. At your age you should be less worried about prestige than about finding a secure and rewarding life that may stimulate new satisfactions.

If you would like a booklet "Deciding Where to Live in Retirement" write to Robert Peterson, "Life Begins at Forty," c/o The Lincoln Star, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents to cover handling costs.

Your columns are usually ost helpful and informative. owever, I feel that your aner to Mrs. T.M. did not go r enough.

I am publicity chairman the Westchester Committe of the N.Y. Association for rain Injured Children. A ild who is impulsive, has a ort attention-span, has lit- self-control and has a highemotional behavior pattern ould be tested immediately by a qualified individual with training in the field of brain injury. She is displaying some of the classic symptoms of minimal brain damage. A brain injury is especially to be suspected if the above behavior is accompanied by hyperactivity, immaturity, temper tantrums and poor coordination.

Such a child needs early diagnosis and proper education to realize his or her capabilities. Highly specialized training is necessary to help overcome the specific learning disabilities, perceptual difficulties and behavior disturbances which so frequently result from brain damage.

Mrs. H.D., White Plains, N.Y.

Answer:

These types of behavior are not always associated with brain damage. However, since sometimes they are, parents and school counselors should, as you suggest, be on the alert and seek professional advice when other efforts seem to be slow in producing results.

Dear Dr. Nason:

One of my daughter's high school teachers seemed to be very unfair. He gave tests at unexpected times and completely without warning. My daughter always made good grades on tests for which she had a chance to prepare, but did very poorly in this class. Don't you think this is an unfair practice?

A.A., Haddonfield, N.J.

Answer:

This practice is not unfair. It is the same for all members of the class. The difficulty arises because your daughter's plan of study is not effective in this situation.

She should review before studying each day's assignment, and thus keep the course organized in her mind as though a test were to be given every day of the course. Under this learn-as-you-go plan, your daughter will absorb more both from reading and from listening in class.

Some variation of this plan should be used in the study of other courses even though warning is given on tests. In the long run, it will make her a better student.

ack Of Planning Cited ls Cause Of Flooding

United Press International

Governor Morrison Friday id the recent flood in the oup River region was caused the lack of adequate planng and coordination of ate and federal agencies.

The governor labeled as n alibi" a letter released his senatorial opponent, n. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., at no feasible federal flood ntrol project could have evented the rampaging wars.

A letter from acting U.S. ureau of Reclamation Commissioner N. B. Bennett to rtis said a flood of such agnitude would occur only ice in a hundred years.

Bennett said it was doubtl that any structures in the gion could have held back e waters.

Morrison, however, disgreed. He said the reason e existing reservoirs failed as because the rains fell far east from them.

He also said the floods could have been prevented.

"If Senator Curtis had been working on his job, he wouldn't have had to ask the Army Corps of Engineers or the Bureau of Reclamation what caused the flood," Morrison said.

"Watershed development in the region of the flood doesn't exist," Morrison said.

He said with sheds and proper land management a flood of any size could be controlled.

"His (Curtis') attitude doesn't furnish the leadership we need to establish the flood control districts," Morrison said. "He voted against appropriations to soil and water conservation districts."

The governor also reaffirmed his position that the creation of a Missouri River Basin Commission could provide the necessary flood control planning to prevent future disasters.

But at present he keeps busy delivering The Lincoln Star to the paper's subscribers in Beatrice. Popular with his customers because of his efficiency, Bruce thinks a newspaper route is great and points to a healthy saving account and part of his school clothes as tangible proofs of his job's advantages.

Cited as one of the outstanding paperboys in the state, Bruce has won trips to the State Fair and the Nebraskaland Rodeo through subscription contests.

But his job and baseball activities have not kept Bruce from maintaining a high grade average at Beatrice Junior High, participating in the Boy Scout program and devoting some time to his collection of model cars, planes and tanks.

Employment Agency's Commission Rate Irks Typist

By ROBERT PETERSON

Q. "You recently urged older people to sign up with the agencies that handle temporary employment. I'm a good typist, so I went to an agency and they sent me out on a job where I work two days a week. The agency pays me $1.75 per hour, but I've discovered they bill the customer $2.85 — thus pocketing a profit of $1.10 an hour on my services. I'm thinking of quitting and telling them where to go."

A. Cool down. The agency is in business to make a profit. It had to risk its capital in getting started, and has the continuing expense of recruiting people, finding temporary jobs, and making assignments. It also does all the paper work in handling personnel records, social security deductions, and so forth. It's your privilege to quit, but maybe you're making a mistake. You shouldn't begrudge the agency what seems to be a fair commission on your services.

Q. "My wife drives me wild making incorrect statements. She'll say Kennedy was shot in 1961, or that Edna Ferber wrote Gone With the Wind. When I correct her she lights into me like a tiger. When I bring her the proof he says sweetly that anyone can make a mistake. It drives me wild and this has been going on for 17 years."

A. You don't expect women to be as logical as men, do you? My wife has a few foibles too — as whose doesn't? Just develop the habit of not arguing with the missus. Let her prattle on as she pleases. This will launch an era of such tranquility that you'll wonder why you ever let her errors bother you.

Q. "Both my parents are deaf, but won't admit it. We used to enjoy visiting them, but it's a nuisance now with the conversation spiked with, 'Speak up' and 'Louder please.' What makes me mad is that they won't even try a hearing aid."

A. Find a family friend who has a hearing aid, and get him to come by and demonstrate it to your parents. Many older people have a resistance to anything new and need to be cajoled and prodded to try it. Elders who don't bother to make themselves as acceptable as possible to others are the losers.

Q. "I'm 62 and recently lost my job as a secretary. I can't afford to retire. I've been offered a job as housekeeper in a large suburban home. But it scares me to think of starting a new kind of work at my age, and it also seems to mean a loss in prestige. What do you think?"

A. I think you should try it. Think positively about the possibilities. Anyone with the ability to be a secretary can certainly master the duties of a housekeeper —provided she wants to. Forget the prestige factor. At your age you should be less worried about prestige than about finding a secure and rewarding life that may stimulate new satisfactions.

If you would like a booklet "Deciding Where to Live in Retirement" write to Robert Peterson, "Life Begins at Forty," c/o The Lincoln Star, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents to cover handling costs.

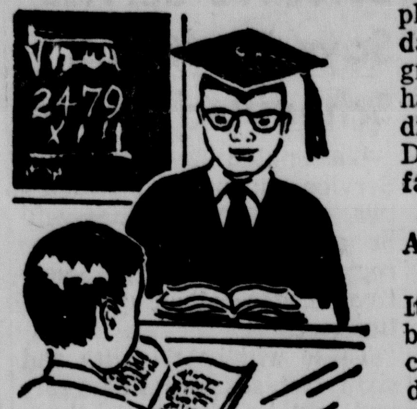
NASON ON EDUCATION:

Timely Counseling May Avert Suspension Of College Student

By DR. LESLIE J. NASON



Dear Dr. Nason:

There is one phase of college life which I cannot condone or understand. It is the suspension of a student who does not meet the required number of points in a semester and is dropped from the enrollment until the following semester. This suspension can be demoralizing and in my opinion, is the cause of many college dropouts.

No matter how busy college officials are there should be time for a conference where counsel is given with perhaps a suggestion of change of one's intended field.

Am I wrong in my thinking?

N.H., Rye, New York

Answer:

Colleges do provide the counseling services you suggest. However, students too often fail to make use of these services.

Consequently, they drift along rather than remedy their shortcomings. Suspension may be a drastic punishment for this neglect, but it does serve as a reminder to students that their first responsibility is to their subjects.

Hossack, Fremont OK Relocation Of U.S. 30

State Engineer John Hossack and Fremont officials reported Friday they had reached mutually-satisfactory agreements over the proposed relocation of U.S. 30 west of the city.

"If the ultimate decision is to relocate U.S. 30 a half-mile north of its present route west of Fremont," Hossack said, "the state will resurface old U.S. 30 early next spring."

"It will serve as a detour route during construction relocated U.S. 30 and also leave road in good condition before being turned over to Dodge County as a county road."

Hossack said a connecting link between Fremont and the new highway will also be paved and a right-of-way purchased for a bypass from U.S. 275 and 77 west of Fremont.

"The bypass route will not be constructed until such future time as it is needed," he said. "The right-of-way would be purchased as an insurance policy."

The engineer also said U.S. 275 would be relocated about a half-mile further east than proposed to overcome community objections.

He said right-of-way for new U.S. 30 west of Fremont would be purchased for four lanes, but only two lanes of highway would be constructed initially.

Both city and county officials as well as Fremont Chamber of Commerce representatives attended the conference meeting with Hossack.

Selective Service Says Draft Test Scheduled Again

Washington (AP) — Selective Service announced Friday two more opportunities will be given—on Nov. 18-19—for registrants to take the Selective Service college qualification test.

These will be the fifth and sixth test sessions this year, and will be similar to those held in May and June, the announcement said.

Eligibility will be limited to registrants who voluntarily apply to take the test and who have not taken any previous Selective Service qualification tests. A registrant takes the test only once.

Sister Ship Auction

Piraeus, Greece (AP) — The 5,500-ton modern Greek cruise ships Agamemnon and Achilleus, seized here for debts twice in the last two months, stranding hundreds of foreign tourists, will be sold at public auction Sept. 9, shipping sources reported. The sister ships were built in Italy in 1952-53 for the Greek government under a reparations account and are owned by Dorian Cruises S.A. of Piraeus.

Hossack, Fremont OK Relocation Of U.S. 30

State Engineer John Hossack and Fremont officials reported Friday they had reached mutually-satisfactory agreements over the proposed relocation of U.S. 30 west of the city.

"If the ultimate decision is to relocate U.S. 30 a half-mile north of its present route west of Fremont," Hossack said, "the state will resurface old U.S. 30 early next spring."

"It will serve as a detour route during construction relocated U.S. 30 and also leave road in good condition before being turned over to Dodge County as a county road."

Hossack said a connecting link between Fremont and the new highway will also be paved and a right-of-way purchased for a bypass from U.S. 275 and 77 west of Fremont.

"The bypass route will not be constructed until such future time as it is needed," he said. "The right-of-way would be purchased as an insurance policy."

The engineer also said U.S. 275 would be relocated about a half-mile further east than proposed to overcome community objections.

He said right-of-way for new U.S. 30 west of Fremont would be purchased for four lanes, but only two lanes of highway would be constructed initially.

Both city and county officials as well as Fremont Chamber of Commerce representatives attended the conference meeting with Hossack.

Family Flees Poland

Gorizia, Italy (UPI)—Italian border officials said a Polish engineer, his wife and two-teen age children crossed over from Yugoslavia during the night and asked for political asylum. The family was vacationing in Yugoslavia with Polish passports valid only for Eastern Europe.

JUDGE LAY SWORN IN

Donald P. Lay, 39-year-old Omaha attorney, was sworn in Friday as a member of the Eighth District Circuit Court of Appeals. Gov. Frank Morrison told a crowd filled with attorneys and judges in Omaha that Lay was "the youngest man named to a circuit court in the United States in the last 20 to 25 years."

Selective Service Says Draft Test Scheduled Again

Washington (AP) — Selective Service announced Friday two more opportunities will be given—on Nov. 18-19—for registrants to take the Selective Service college qualification test.

These will be the fifth and sixth test sessions this year, and will be similar to those held in May and June, the announcement said.

Eligibility will be limited to registrants who voluntarily apply to take the test and who have not taken any previous Selective Service qualification tests. A registrant takes the test only once.

Sister Ship Auction

Piraeus, Greece (AP) — The 5,500-ton modern Greek cruise ships Agamemnon and Achilleus, seized here for debts twice in the last two months, stranding hundreds of foreign tourists, will be sold at public auction Sept. 9, shipping sources reported. The sister ships were built in Italy in 1952-53 for the Greek government under a reparations account and are owned by Dorian Cruises S.A. of Piraeus.

Socialists Attack Von Hassel Anew

Bonn, Germany (AP) — The West German government sought to cool off the nation's military crisis Friday, but it was kept simmering with a new attack on Defense Minister Kai-Uwe von Hassel by the opposition Socialist Party.

Von Hassel, who instituted a top-level command shakeup, issued a conciliatory declaration to the armed forces in which he dismissed charges that his top generals had been undemocratic and disloyal to the constitution.

Soon thereafter, Helmut Schmiddt, the Socialist military expert in parliament, renewed his call for Von Hassel's resignation, proposed a reorganization of the defense ministry and promised to seek a full airing of the crisis when parliament's defense committee meets next Thursday.

The crisis erupted with the resignation of three top generals, including the armed forces chief and the head of the air force, in a dispute over defense ministry policies.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard met with his cabinet Friday and endorsed Von Hassel's shakeup, underscoring "the full confidence of the federal government" in the new promotions made by the defense minister.

While the changing of the guard in the armed forces high command appears to have been accomplished smoothly, Von Hassel's future remained in doubt. His resignation is being sought not only by the Socialists but by some factions of the Free Democratic Party, whose support Erhard needs to make his coalition government work.

Erhard and other leaders of his Christian Democratic Party appeared to be trying to convey the impression that they consider the military dispute ended and have turned to more pressing matters—such as the state of the nation's economy.

Morrison Defends His Part In Ettinger Case

By Associated Press

Gov. Frank Morrison declared Friday that if his adherence to the law in the Ettinger case "has in any way prejudiced me politically, it is because people have passed judgment without full knowledge of the facts involved or the law . . ."

The governor commented after publication of his off-the-record remarks at a press conference earlier Friday. Morrison, who is running for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Carl T. Curtis, a Republican, was quoted as saying the Ettinger case had hurt him politically.

Ettinger was fired as superintendent of the Boys Training School at Kearney. He asked for a hearing but later withdrew the request.

The off-the-record comments were made in Lincoln Friday morning.

Angry Morrison

An angry Morrison told the Associated Press Friday afternoon that "it will be a tragedy if ill-advised controversy should harm the Boys Training School or other institutions."

The governor had just stepped from an Omaha federal courtroom where Donald P. Lay was sworn in as a federal appeals judge.

"In the Ettinger case I followed the law as spelled out by the Legislature," he said. "I followed the constitution. Both constitution and legislation were interpreted for me by the attorney general.

"Many times there was a clamor that I departed from the law in the Ettinger case. This I could not and would not do."

Evidence

The governor said "the evidence which was prepared by the investigative bureau of the highway patrol is part of the records of this case and is available for release by Mr. Ettinger at his discretion."

Ettinger himself, the governor said, had made the statement that he, Ettinger, was the only one who had injected politics into the controversy over his firing.

The Ettinger case apparently was closed when George Morris, state institutions director, said new evidence had led him to believe that Ettinger had not permitted homosexual acts at the school.

Ettinger then withdrew his demand for a hearing.

All Non-Communist Parties To Dissolve, Says Red Guard

Tokyo (AP)—The young Red Guards of Peking have told all non-communist parties to dissolve, thus shattering Red China's facade of a united front, a Japanese press report said Friday.

First to comply was the Democratic League, once the most influential of the eight non-communist parties. Formed in 1941 by intellectuals in Nationalist China, its leaders flocked to Peking when the Communists took over the mainland in 1949.

Most quarters in Tokyo were puzzled by the order, reported by the Peking correspondent of the newspaper Asahi, since all the eight minor parties were nothing but figureheads.

Apparently it means that the Communist regime, which has set up the teen-age Red Guards and spurred them to action, has decided to dispense with the parties while it pushes a campaign against all opponents of party chairman Mao Tze-tung's thinking.

One source noted that existence of the parties is guaranteed under Red China's constitution. The Communists permitted the parties to exist to show that the regime was "democratic."

Second to quit was the Revolutionary Committee of the Kuomintang, formed in 1948. Expected to fall quickly into line are the China Democratic National Construction Association, the China Association for Promoting Democracy, the Chinese Peasants and Workers Democratic Party, the Taiwan (Formosa) Democratic Self-Government League, the China Chih Kung Party and the Chiu San Society.

Nationalists Shot Dead In Battle In So. West Africa

Cape Town, South Africa (AP)—Police battled a band of African nationalist infiltrators at dawn Friday in the Ovamboland district of South-West Africa and Justice Minister Balthazar Vorster announced they shot two dead. Eight were arrested.

The band is believed to be the first organized group to move into South-West Africa, a disputed territory that South Africans have run for decades. The gunfight was in a remote area several hundred miles from the nearest white settlers.

Vorster told parliament the band was armed with automatic weapons believed to be of Chinese or Russian origin.

Jane Fonda Asks $19 Million For Playboy Photos

New York (AP) — Actress Jane Fonda Friday filed a $19 million suit over seven pictures which display her "almost completely nude and with her breasts exposed" in the August issue of Playboy magazine.

The defendants are the HMH Publishing Co. and Hugh M. Hefner.

Miss Fonda said in the suit filed in supreme court that "her professional career and aspirations are and will be incalculably and permanently harmed."

Nancy Kwan Detained

Tehran, Iran (UPI) — Iranian authorities detained American movie actress Nancy Kwan overnight at the Mehrabad Airport because she failed to have a visa. She was released in the morning on special instructions from the foreign ministry. The actress came to Iran to appear in a film.

PAT MORRIS . . . In her tight pants.

Tight Pants At Bottom Of Strike

Gardiner, Ore. (AP)—The International Paper Co. has asked damages of $12,786 in a strike that began over complaints of a woman's tight pants.

The action asking the damages was filed in U.S. District Court in Portland, 160 miles north of this small coastal town.

The company contended the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Local 2195 breached their contract and did not complete the proper grievance procedures when workers left their jobs at the local plywood plant on Tuesday.

About 315 union members marched off their jobs when Miss Pat Morris, 35, was suspended for wearing tight sweaters and stretch pants that her foreman claimed distracted male employes.

Heartbroken

Miss Morris's measurements are 39-27-39. She says she is "heartbroken about so much trouble it has caused"

The end of the strike did not appear imminent. No meetings between the union and management were scheduled The union has called a membership meeting for next Sunday night

Gardiner and nearby Reedsport have been hard hit economically because the other big plywood plant in the area recently closed because of decreased building demands.

"I don't know why they singled me out," Miss Norris said. "The other women wore the same type of clothes; I told them I would buy other clothes on payday. They said something about being too stacked and sent me home.'

Big Apron

She said she wears a big leather apron and works behind a pile of equipment on her shift, which starts at midnight.

The strike is nonsense, says the manager of the plant, R. A. Meyers. "As a matter of fact, she had been warned several times about the way she dressed."

The statement issued by International after filing the claim did not mention Miss Morris. It said only 'that the union did not complete the prescribed grievance procedure as required by the working agreement between the company and the union before striking."

The complaint asked damages amounting to $4,262.30 per day for the duration of the strike.

"I feel just terrible when I think of all the families with children that can be hurt by this," said Miss Morris.

Parish Ordered Desegregated

New Orleans (AP)—A federal judge Friday ordered Plaquemines Parish, home of fiery segregationist Leander Perez, to desegregate its schools next week.

Judge Herbert W. Christenberry directed that grades 1, 7, 10 and 12, plus two others to be selected by the parish (county) school board, be desegregated for the fall term.

The other eight grades must desegregate a year later, he said.

The order also directed that teaching faculties be desegregated next year.

Perez, 78, who was excommunicated by the Roman Catholic Church in 1962 for his opposition to school integration, could not be reached immediately for comment. He is Parish council president.

Earlier this week Perez said he foresaw no trouble when schools open next Wednesday.

Djibouti Rioting Bloody

Djibouti, French Somaliland (AP)—Angry crowds demanding independence from France fought police and troops in bloody riots in the Place Lagarde Friday, balking plans for a speech there by President Charles de Gaulle. Two persons were reported killed and scores of demonstrators, police and soldiers were injured.

With clubs, tear gas, and concussion grenades, police and soldiers finally cleared the square shortly before the visiting French president arrived. Instead of speaking in the square, he talked briefly to the Territorial Assembly in its hall on the square and spoke disdainfully of the demonstrators.

"The sort of thing we have just witnessed," he said scornfully "hardly suffices to establish the democratic will of the French citizens (Somalis) who live here."

108 Degrees

Demonstrations had dogged De Gaulle since he arrived Thursday on this last outpost of French empire in Africa and the independence-minded were out in force around Place Lagarde and elsewhere in the 108-degree heat long before De Gaulle was due to put in an appearance.

After one outbreak, police and troops succeeded in emptying the square. But the crowds grew, and they rushed back into the square shouting abuse at the police and soldiers. Rocks and bottles were hurled.

The security forces attacked with clubs, tear gas grenades and concussion grenades—which stun but do not kill — and the crowds fell back, stampeding in panic.

Foot Blown Off

Several demonstrators were wounded and fell moaning to the pavement. A number of Somalis, one with his foot blown off by a grenade, tried to climb in any army ambulance. Troops hauled them out. The dazed and wounded took refuge in a nearby hotel.

The square was a litter of stones, broken bottles and shoes left behind by the demonstrators. Troops and police blocked off the square and street sweepers cleaned the pavement.

DeGaulle arrived in schedule and some of the Somali dignitaries were still dabbing handkerchiefs to their eyes from the tear gas.

Lincoln church news is carried on a special page in the "Sunday Journal and Star".

Socialists Attack Von Hassel Anew

Bonn, Germany (AP) — The West German government sought to cool off the nation's military crisis Friday, but it was kept simmering with a new attack on Defense Minister Kai-Uwe von Hassel by the opposition Socialist Party.

Von Hassel, who instituted a top-level command shakeup, issued a conciliatory declaration to the armed forces in which he dismissed charges that his top generals had been undemocratic and disloyal to the constitution.

Soon thereafter, Helmut Schmiddt, the Socialist military expert in parliament, renewed his call for Von Hassel's resignation, proposed a reorganization of the defense ministry and promised to seek a full airing of the crisis when parliament's defense committee meets next Thursday.

The crisis erupted with the resignation of three top generals, including the armed forces chief and the head of the air force, in a dispute over defense ministry policies.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard met with his cabinet Friday and endorsed Von Hassel's shakeup, underscoring "the full confidence of the federal government" in the new promotions made by the defense minister.

While the changing of the guard in the armed forces high command appears to have been accomplished smoothly, Von Hassel's future remained in doubt. His resignation is being sought not only by the Socialists but by some factions of the Free Democratic Party, whose support Erhard needs to make his coalition government work.

Erhard and other leaders of his Christian Democratic Party appeared to be trying to convey the impression that they consider the military dispute ended and have turned to more pressing matters—such as the state of the nation's economy.

Morrison Defends His Part In Ettinger Case

By Associated Press

Gov. Frank Morrison declared Friday that if his adherence to the law in the Ettinger case "has in any way prejudiced me politically, it is because people have passed judgment without full knowledge of the facts involved or the law . . ."

The governor commented after publication of his off-the-record remarks at a press conference earlier Friday. Morrison, who is running for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Carl T. Curtis, a Republican, was quoted as saying the Ettinger case had hurt him politically.

Ettinger was fired as superintendent of the Boys Training School at Kearney. He asked for a hearing but later withdrew the request.

The off-the-record comments were made in Lincoln Friday morning.

Angry Morrison

An angry Morrison told the Associated Press Friday afternoon that "it will be a tragedy if ill-advised controversy should harm the Boys Training School or other institutions."

The governor had just stepped from an Omaha federal courtroom where Donald P. Lay was sworn in as a federal appeals judge.

"In the Ettinger case I followed the law as spelled out by the Legislature," he said. "I followed the constitution. Both constitution and legislation were interpreted for me by the attorney general.

"Many times there was a clamor that I departed from the law in the Ettinger case. This I could not and would not do."

Evidence

The governor said "the evidence which was prepared by the investigative bureau of the highway patrol is part of the records of this case and is available for release by Mr. Ettinger at his discretion."

Ettinger himself, the governor said, had made the statement that he, Ettinger, was the only one who had injected politics into the controversy over his firing.

The Ettinger case apparently was closed when George Morris, state institutions director, said new evidence had led him to believe that Ettinger had not permitted homosexual acts at the school.

Ettinger then withdrew his demand for a hearing.

All Non-Communist Parties To Dissolve, Says Red Guard

Tokyo (AP)—The young Red Guards of Peking have told all non-communist parties to dissolve, thus shattering Red China's facade of a united front, a Japanese press report said Friday.

First to comply was the Democratic League, once the most influential of the eight non-communist parties. Formed in 1941 by intellectuals in Nationalist China, its leaders flocked to Peking when the Communists took over the mainland in 1949.

Most quarters in Tokyo were puzzled by the order, reported by the Peking correspondent of the newspaper Asahi, since all the eight minor parties were nothing but figureheads.

Apparently it means that the Communist regime, which has set up the teen-age Red Guards and spurred them to action, has decided to dispense with the parties while it pushes a campaign against all opponents of party chairman Mao Tze-tung's thinking.

One source noted that existence of the parties is guaranteed under Red China's constitution. The Communists permitted the parties to exist to show that the regime was "democratic."

Second to quit was the Revolutionary Committee of the Kuomintang, formed in 1948. Expected to fall quickly into line are the China Democratic National Construction Association, the China Association for Promoting Democracy, the Chinese Peasants and Workers Democratic Party, the Taiwan (Formosa) Democratic Self-Government League, the China Chih Kung Party and the Chiu San Society.

Nationalists Shot Dead In Battle In So. West Africa

Cape Town, South Africa (AP)—Police battled a band of African nationalist infiltrators at dawn Friday in the Ovamboland district of South-West Africa and Justice Minister Balthazar Vorster announced they shot two dead. Eight were arrested.

The band is believed to be the first organized group to move into South-West Africa, a disputed territory that South Africans have run for decades. The gunfight was in a remote area several hundred miles from the nearest white settlers.

Vorster told parliament the band was armed with automatic weapons believed to be of Chinese or Russian origin.

Nancy Kwan Detained

Tehran, Iran (UPI) — Iranian authorities detained American movie actress Nancy Kwan overnight at the Mehrabad Airport because she failed to have a visa. She was released in the morning on special instructions from the foreign ministry. The actress came to Iran to appear in a film.

Jane Fonda Asks $19 Million For Playboy Photos

New York (AP) — Actress Jane Fonda Friday filed a $19 million suit over seven pictures which display her "almost completely nude and with her breasts exposed" in the August issue of Playboy magazine.

The defendants are the HMH Publishing Co. and Hugh M. Hefner.

Miss Fonda said in the suit filed in supreme court that "her professional career and aspirations are and will be incalculably and permanently harmed."

Parish Ordered Desegregated

New Orleans (AP)—A federal judge Friday ordered Plaquemines Parish, home of fiery segregationist Leander Perez, to desegregate its schools next week.

Judge Herbert W. Christenberry directed that grades 1, 7, 10 and 12, plus two others to be selected by the parish (county) school board, be desegregated for the fall term.

The other eight grades must desegregate a year later, he said.

The order also directed that teaching faculties be desegregated next year.

Perez, 76, who was excommunicated by the Roman Catholic Church in 1962 for his opposition to school integration, could not be reached immediately for comment. He is Parish council president.

Earlier this week Perez said he foresaw no trouble when schools open next Wednesday.

PAT MORRIS . . . in her tight pants.

Tight Pants At Bottom Of Strike

Gardiner, Ore. (AP)—The International Paper Co. has asked damages of $12,786 in a strike that began over complaints of a woman's tight pants.

The action asking the damages was filed in U.S. District Court in Portland, 160 miles north of this small coastal town.

The company contended the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Local 2195 breached their contract and did not complete the proper grievance procedures when workers left their jobs at the local plywood plant on Tuesday.

About 315 union members marched off their jobs when Miss Pat Morris, 35, was suspended for wearing tight sweaters and stretch pants that her foreman claimed distracted male employes.

Heartbroken

Miss Morris's measurements are 39-27-39. She says she is "heartbroken about so much trouble it has caused."

The end of the strike did not appear imminent. No meetings between the union and management were scheduled The union has called a membership meeting for next Sunday night

Gardiner and nearby Reedsport have been hard hit economically because the other big plywood plant in the area recently closed because of decreased building demands.

"I don't know why they singled me out," Miss Norris said. "The other women wore the same type of clothes. I told them I would buy other clothes on payday. They said something about being too stacked and sent me home.'

Big Apron

She said she wears a big leather apron and works behind a pile of equipment on her shift, which starts at midnight.

The strike is nonsense, says the manager of the plant, R. A. Meyers. "As a matter of fact, she had been warned several times about the way she dressed."

The statement issued by International after filing the claim did not mention Miss Morris. It said only 'that the union did not complete the prescribed grievance procedure as required by the working agreement between the company and the union before striking."

The complaint asked damages amounting to $4,262.30 per day for the duration of the strike.

"I feel just terrible when I think of all the families with children that can be hurt by this," said Miss Morris.

Djibouti Rioting Bloody

Djibouti, French Somaliland (AP)—Angry crowds demanding independence from France fought police and troops in bloody riots in the Place Lagarde Friday, balking plans for a speech there by President Charles de Gaulle. Two persons were reported killed and scores of demonstrators, police and soldiers were injured.

With clubs, tear gas, and concussion grenades, police and soldiers finally cleared the square shortly before the visiting French president arrived. Instead of speaking in the square, he talked briefly to the Territorial Assembly in its hall on the square and spoke disdainfully of the demonstrators.

"The sort of thing we have just witnessed," he said scornfully "hardly suffices to establish the democratic will of the French citizens (Somalis) who live here."

108 Degrees

Demonstrations had dogged De Gaulle since he arrived Thursday on this last outpost of French empire in Africa and the independence-minded were out in force around Place Lagarde and elsewhere in the 108-degree heat long before De Gaulle was due to put in an appearance.

After one outbreak, police and troops succeeded in emptying the square. But the crowds grew, and they rushed back into the square shouting abuse at the police and soldiers. Rocks and bottles were hurled.

The security forces attacked with clubs, tear gas grenades and concussion grenades—which stun but do not kill — and the crowds fell back, stampeding in panic.

Foot Blown Off

Several demonstrators were wounded and fell moaning to the pavement. A number of Somalis, one with his foot blown off by a grenade, tried to climb in any army ambulance. Troops hauled them out. The dazed and wounded took refuge in a nearby hotel.

The square was a litter of stones, broken bottles and shoes left behind by the demonstrators. Troops and police blocked off the square and street sweepers cleaned the pavement.

DeGaulle arrived in schedule and some of the Somali dignitaries were still dabbing handkerchiefs to their eyes from the tear gas.

Lincoln church news is carried on a special page in the "Sunday Journal and Star".

COEDS chose late summer weddings

Miss Bonnie Jean Kovar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Kovar of Wilber, became the bride of Larry J. Kastanek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kastanek of Dorchester, at a candlelight service Saturday evening, Aug. 20. The chancel of the Lutheran Church at Wilber was decorated with yellow gladioli and russet chrysanthemums for the ceremony, which was solemnized by the Rev. H. Brei.

Wearing long-skired frocks of yellow silk were Miss Janis Kovar, sister of the bride, as the maid of honor; and the bridesmaids, Miss Diane Heckman, Albion; Miss Rebecca Vilda, Wilber; and Mrs. Harry Hauschild, Syracuse.

Serving his brother as best man was Loren Kastanek, Dorchester, and the ushers were Steve Pomajzl, Robert Krupicka and Leslie Chyba, Crete; Ted Wehrbein, Plattsmouth; and Robert Schanou, Shelton.

Re-embroidered Venise lace trimmed the bride's gown of Irish linen in the candlelight shade. The lace edged the lantern sleeves and traced the Empire waist of the basque above the slender skirt, and the lace was repeated at the hem of the panel train. A single fabric rose held to the head her pouf veil of illusion, and she carried a white orchid showered with stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Kastanek will live in Lincoln, where both are students at the University of Nebraska. The bride is a member of Phi Mu sorority, and Mr. Kastanek's fraternity is Alpha Gamma Rho.

White candles burning in pedestal candelabra and tall bouquets of gold chrysanthemums decorated the chancel of the Federated Church at Sutton, Friday evening, Aug. 26, for the wedding of Miss DeAnne Kae Ebert, daughter of Mrs. Homer Ebert of Sutton and James Thomas Niemeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Niemeyer of Franklin.

Empire frocks fashioned with basques of gold brocade and slim crepe skirts in lime green were worn by Miss Peg Bennett of Seward, who was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Robertson, Benkelman; Miss Lorna Kepler, Otto; and Miss Elizabeth Hecox, Gothenburg.

Serving as best man was Steve Hutchins of Franklin, and seating the guests were John Baker, Hebron; Bob Samuelson, Franklin; Robert Ebert, Clay Center; Richard Reier, Sargent; Ronald Heminger and Richard Ebert, Lincoln.

Given in marriage by her brother, Russell Ebert, the bride appeared in a gown of ivory peau de soie. The snug basque was designed with above-elbow sleeves, patterned with jeweled re-embroidered Alencon lace, and the lace was repeated in the trim of the slender skirt, complemented by an aisle-wide Watteau train of the silk. Her bouffant veil of illusion was held by a tiara of pearls and crystal beading.

Mr. and Mrs. Niemeyer, both seniors at the University of Nebraska, will make their home at 6605 Colfax.

Bridal Parties

Entertaining Saturday evening in prenuptial courtesy to their son, John Roux, Jr., and his fiancee, Miss Becky Haas, Mr. and Mrs. John Roux will be host and hostess at dinner at the Hotel Lincoln.

The dinner guests will include members of the family and bridal party for the wedding of Miss Haas and Mr. Roux, which will take place Sunday afternoon, at St. Paul Methodist Church.

Miss Haas has been honored at a series of bridal courtesies in recent weeks. On Thursday evening, Aug. 11, Mrs. Charles Conners was hostess to 16 guests at her home. During the party, a miscellaneous shower was presented to the honoree.

Honoring the soon-to-be bride at a pottery shower on Sunday, July 31, were Miss Marian Fisher and Miss Diana Focht. The 30 guests included Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters of Miss Haas.

When Mrs. Carl Norden, III, and Mrs. John Maseman entertained at a kitchen shower for Miss Haas recently the guests included feminine members of the bridal party and their mothers. The informal party was held at the home of Mrs. Norden.

Also honoring Miss Haas recently, Mrs. Lyle B. Eno was hostess at her home at a kitchen shower. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert O. Clifford, Mrs. Robert Tate, III, and Mrs. Robert Jett.

A linen shower was presented to the bride-elect recently at a party given by Mrs. Larry Donovan and her mother, Mrs. Selma Merriam, at the home of Mrs. Merriam. The 12 guests, incidentally, were members of the University of Nebraska Pompon cheer group, of which Miss Haas is a former member.

Miss Dearwyn Loewenstein, whose marriage to Dennis P. Hudson will be an event of Friday, Sept. 9, was the guest of honor Friday evening, Aug. 19, when members of the Jobs Daughters Bethel 60 entertained at a miscellaneous shower. The party was held at the Masonic Temple, 46th and Cooper.

The future bride was presented a kitchen shower recently when Mrs. Norman Lutzi was hostess at her home, Thursday evening, Aug. 18. The guests included neighbors of the bridegroom-to-be and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hudson.

This is a double - dummy problem. The contract is Six No-trump played by South, and West leads the jack of spades. The goal is to make twelve tricks, assuming the best possible defense by East-West. As usual in double-dummy problems, you are permitted to look at all four hands.

Cash the A-K of spades and A-K of hearts, then cash the ace of clubs.

If East plays the four on the ace, lead the eight, forcing East to win the club with the queen. If East now returns a spade or a heart, you discard the K-10 of clubs on the major suit queens, thus unblocking the club suit so that dummy can cash the 7-6-5 of clubs. At the end of the hand you take a diamond finesse to produce the twelfth trick.

If East returns a low diamond at trick seven, instead of a spade or a heart, you play low from your hand, winning the trick in dummy, and make the contract by unblocking the clubs as before.

If East plays the queen of clubs on the ace (at trick five), you must use different measures to make the contract. You lead the jack of diamonds at trick six. If East takes the jack with the king, the queen of diamonds becomes an entry to dummy and you easily make twelve tricks.

But suppose East refuses to take the jack of diamonds when you play it. In that case, West suddenly becomes your pigeon. You first cash the ace of diamonds, running West out of diamonds. You then lead the eight of clubs.

West is forced to win the club with the jack and must then put you in dummy by returning a spade or a heart. This variation works out the same way as when East was thrust into the lead with the queen.

You discard the K-10 of clubs on the major suit queens, and then cash the last three tricks with the 7-6-5 of clubs.

All roads lead to Rome.

NEWS of suburban areas

Lincoln star soc saturday .....

Ushering summer into oblivion for another year seems to be a big thing for most suburban residents at this time of year. After an active, fun summer, they want to do a bang-up job of ending it. Or, perhaps, they simply want to be carried into autumn on the crest of their last-minute summer "waves."

Whatever the reason, everyone was doing something this past week. They either were blocking off the street for a block party, entertaining guests, coming home after vacations, or visiting a brewery. Almost all of the activities people dreamed up were new and different, and even the re-used summer recipes for fun were nice, being as they were the last of the season.

The youngsters, meanwhile, lessened the blow of soon-to-begin school, by shopping for new fall clothes or making plans for again seeing friends after a "free" summer.

EASTRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carlo shouldn't have any trouble remembering who they have been visiting in Lincoln; at least not if they stick to last names only.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlo have been in Lincoln visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Witt, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Witt. On Wednesday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Carlo spent some time chatting with their host's parents, who also happen to be Mr. Carlo's cousins.

Hopefully, Mr. and Mrs. Carlo will take with them to Pasadena, Calif., memories of a pleasant—and not too confusing—Lincoln stay.

LINCOLN HEIGHTS

There is some dispute at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas E. Tucker, Scott, and Vicky, about exactly what was the most interesting part of their week-long Colorado vacation.

Scott and Vicky contend that the high point of the trip was the zoo located on Lookout Mountain, near Colorado Springs. Built along the side of the mountain, the zoo is a many-leveled affair with natural surroundings and some of the more unusual zoo inhabitants.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, on the other hand, rather enjoyed the tour they took through the Coors beer brewery, also located in Colorado Springs.

Both parents and children do agree on their opinion of the chuck wagon supper which they attended—everyone was delighted. Eight hundred people were served in less than half-an-hour by the experienced staff, and entertainment was provided by authentic Indians and slightly less authentic, but still enjoyed, cowboys.

Although over half of the trip was marred by rains, it was still the kind of vacation that is remembered for quite a long time.

Yet another Lincoln Heights family vacationing recently was that of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Jerenberg. Although daughter Barbie was at camp, son Bruce accompanied them on their week-long trip, which took them out through the Black Hills, and brought them back home via the Estes Park route.

Friday Wedding

The wedding of Miss Ruth Ann Conner of Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deterding of Friend, and Wilfrid Joseph Ekeler, son of Mrs. Frank Ekeler, Jr., of Exeter, took place Friday evening, August 26, at St. Joseph's Church in Friend. Bouquets of white and pink blossoms appointed the altar for the candlelight service, which was solemnized by Msgr. Leslie V. Barnes, and Mrs. Jim Anderson of Exeter, organist, played the wedding music. The vocalist was Miss Cherlyn Johnson, Exeter.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Walter Neemann of Lincoln, who wore a sheath frock in vivid pink crepe with a matching jacket. She carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

John J. Dineen of Exeter served Mr. Ekeler as best man, and the groomsmen were John Ekeler, Exeter, brother of the bridegroom; and Walter Neemann, Lincoln.

The bride's sheath gown of white silk crepe was complemented by a long-sleeved jacket of white lace. A tiny pillbox cap of lace and silk held her illusion veil, and she carried a white prayer book ornamented with white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

The couple will make their home in Exeter. Mrs. Ekeler is a graduate of St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing.

COEDS chose late summer weddings

Miss Bonnie Jean Kovar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Kovar of Wilber, became the bride of Larry J. Kastanek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kastanek of Dorchester, at a candlelight service Saturday evening, Aug. 20. The chancel of the Lutheran Church at Wilber was decorated with yellow gladioli and russet chrysanthemums for the ceremony, which was solemnized by the Rev. H. Brei.

Wearing long-skired frocks of yellow silk were Miss Janis Kovar, sister of the bride, as the maid of honor; and the bridesmaids, Miss Diane Heckman, Albion; Miss Rebecca Vilda, Wilber; and Mrs. Harry Hauschild, Syracuse.

Serving his brother as best man was Loren Kastanek, Dorchester, and the ushers were Steve Pomajzl, Robert Krupicka and Leslie Chyba, Crete; Ted Wehrbein, Plattsmouth; and Robert Schanou, Shelton.

Re-embroidered Venise lace trimmed the bride's gown of Irish linen in the candlelight shade. The lace edged the lantern sleeves and traced the Empire waist of the basque above the slender skirt, and the lace was repeated at the hem of the panel train. A single fabric rose held to the head her pouf veil of illusion, and she carried a white orchid showered with stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Kastanek will live in Lincoln, where both are students at the University of Nebraska. The bride is a member of Phi Mu sorority, and Mr. Kastanek's fraternity is Alpha Gamma Rho.

White candles burning in pedestal candelabra and tall bouquets of gold chrysanthemums decorated the chancel of the Federated Church at Sutton, Friday evening, Aug. 26, for the wedding of Miss DeAnne Kae Ebert, daughter of Mrs. Homer Ebert of Sutton and James Thomas Niemeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Niemeyer of Franklin.

Empire frocks fashioned with basques of gold brocade and slim crepe skirts in lime green were worn by Miss Peg Bennett of Seward, who was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Robertson, Benkelman; Miss Lorna Kepler, Otto; and Miss Elizabeth Hecox, Gothenburg.

Serving as best man was Steve Hutchins of Franklin, and seating the guests were John Baker, Hebron; Bob Samuelson, Franklin; Robert Ebert, Clay Center; Richard Reier, Sargent; Ronald Heminger and Richard Ebert, Lincoln.

Given in marriage by her brother, Russell Ebert, the bride appeared in a gown of ivory peau de soie. The snug basque was designed with above-elbow sleeves, patterned with jeweled re-embroidered Alencon lace, and the lace was repeated in the trim of the slender skirt, complemented by an aisle-wide Watteau train of the silk. Her bouffant veil of illusion was held by a tiara of pearls and crystal beading.

Mr. and Mrs. Niemeyer, both seniors at the University of Nebraska, will make their home at 6605 Colfax.

This is a double - dummy problem. The contract is Six No-trump played by South, and West leads the jack of spades. The goal is to make twelve tricks, assuming the best possible defense by East-West. As usual in double-dummy problems, you are permitted to look at all four hands.

Cash the A-K of spades and A-K of hearts, then cash the ace of clubs.

If East plays the four on the ace, lead the eight, forcing East to win the club with the queen. If East now returns a spade or a heart, you discard the K-10 of clubs on the major suit queens, thus unblocking the club suit so that dummy can cash the 7-6-5 of clubs. At the end of the hand you take a diamond finesse to produce the twelfth trick.

If East returns a low diamond at trick seven, instead of a spade or a heart, you play low from your hand, winning the trick in dummy, and make the contract by unblocking the clubs as before.

If East plays the queen of clubs on the ace (at trick five), you must use different measures to make the contract. You lead the jack of diamonds at trick six. If East takes the jack with the king, the queen of diamonds becomes an entry to dummy and you easily make twelve tricks.

But suppose East refuses to take the jack of diamonds when you play it. In that case, West suddenly becomes your pigeon. You first cash the ace of diamonds, running West out of diamonds. You then lead the eight of clubs.

West is forced to win the club with the jack and must then put you in dummy by returning a spade or a heart. This variation works out the same way as when East was thrust into the lead with the queen.

You discard the K-10 of clubs on the major suit queens, and then cash the last three tricks with the 7-6-5 of clubs.

All roads lead to Rome.

Bridal Parties

Entertaining Saturday evening in prenuptial courtesy to their son, John Roux, Jr., and his fiancee, Miss Becky Haas, Mr. and Mrs. John Roux will be host and hostess at dinner at the Hotel Lincoln.

The dinner guests will include members of the family and bridal party for the wedding of Miss Haas and Mr. Roux, which will take place Sunday afternoon, at St. Paul Methodist Church.

Miss Haas has been honored at a series of bridal courtesies in recent weeks. On Thursday evening, Aug. 11, Mrs. Charles Conners was hostess to 16 guests at her home. During the party, a miscellaneous shower was presented to the honoree.

Honoring the soon-to-be bride at a pottery shower on Sunday, July 31, were Miss Marian Fisher and Miss Diana Focht. The 30 guests included Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters of Miss Haas.

When Mrs. Carl Norden, III, and Mrs. John Maseman entertained at a kitchen shower for Miss Haas recently the guests included feminine members of the bridal party and their mothers. The informal party was held at the home of Mrs. Norden.

Also honoring Miss Haas recently, Mrs. Lyle B. Eno was hostess at her home at a kitchen shower. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert O. Clifford, Mrs. Robert Tate, III, and Mrs. Robert Jett.

A linen shower was presented to the bride-elect recently at a party given by Mrs. Larry Donovan and her mother, Mrs. Selma Merriam, at the home of Mrs. Merriam. The 12 guests, incidentally, were members of the University of Nebraska Pompon cheer group, of which Miss Haas is a former member.

Miss Dearwyn Loewenstein, whose marriage to Dennis P. Hudson will be an event of Friday, Sept. 9, was the guest of honor Friday evening, Aug. 19, when members of the Jobs Daughters Bethel 60 entertained at a miscellaneous shower. The party was held at the Masonic Temple, 46th and Cooper.

The future bride was presented a kitchen shower recently when Mrs. Norman Lutzi was hostess at her home, Thursday evening, Aug. 18. The guests included neighbors of the bridegroom-to-be and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hudson.

NEWS of suburban areas

Lincoln star soc saturday .....

Ushering summer into oblivion for another year seems to be a big thing for most suburban residents at this time of year. After an active, fun summer, they want to do a bang-up job of ending it. Or, perhaps, they simply want to be carried into autumn on the crest of their last-minute summer "waves."

Whatever the reason, everyone was doing something this past week. They either were blocking off the street for a block party, entertaining guests, coming home after vacations, or visiting a brewery. Almost all of the activities people dreamed up were new and different, and even the re-used summer recipes for fun were nice, being as they were the last of the season.

The youngsters, meanwhile, lessened the blow of soon-to-begin school, by shopping for new fall clothes or making plans for again seeing friends after a "free" summer.

EASTRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carlo shouldn't have any trouble remembering who they have been visiting in Lincoln; at least not if they stick to last names only.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlo have been in Lincoln visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Witt, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Witt. On Wednesday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Carlo spent some time chatting with their host's parents, who also happen to be Mr. Carlo's cousins.

Hopefully, Mr. and Mrs. Carlo will take with them to Pasadena, Calif., memories of a pleasant—and not too confusing—Lincoln stay.

LINCOLN HEIGHTS

There is some dispute at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas E. Tucker, Scott, and Vicky, about exactly what was the most interesting part of their week-long Colorado vacation.

Scott and Vicky contend that the high point of the trip was the zoo located on Lookout Mountain, near Colorado Springs. Built along the side of the mountain, the zoo is a many-leveled affair with natural surroundings and some of the more unusual zoo inhabitants.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, on the other hand, rather enjoyed the tour they took through the Coors beer brewery, also located in Colorado Springs.

Both parents and children do agree on their opinion of the chuck wagon supper which they attended—everyone was delighted. Eight hundred people were served in less than half-an-hour by the experienced staff, and entertainment was provided by authentic Indians and slightly less authentic, but still enjoyed, cowboys.

Although over half of the trip was marred by rains, it was still the kind of vacation that is remembered for quite a long time.

Yet another Lincoln Heights family vacationing recently was that of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Jerenberg. Although daughter Barbie was at camp, son Bruce accompanied them on their week-long trip, which took them out through the Black Hills, and brought them back home via the Estes Park route.

Friday Wedding

The wedding of Miss Ruth Ann Conner of Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deterding of Friend, and Wilfrid Joseph Ekeler, son of Mrs. Frank Ekeler, Jr., of Exeter, took place Friday evening, August 26, at St. Joseph's Church in Friend. Bouquets of white and pink blossoms appointed the altar for the candlelight service, which was solemnized by Msgr. Leslie V. Barnes, and Mrs. Jim Anderson of Exeter, organist, played the wedding music. The vocalist was Miss Cherlyn Johnson, Exeter.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Walter Neemann of Lincoln, who wore a sheath frock in vivid pink crepe with a matching jacket. She carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

John J. Dineen of Exeter served Mr. Ekeler as best man, and the groomsmen were John Ekeler, Exeter, brother of the bridegroom; and Walter Neemann, Lincoln.

The bride's sheath gown of white silk crepe was complemented by a long-sleeved jacket of white lace. A tiny pillbox cap of lace and silk held her illusion veil, and she carried a white prayer book ornamented with white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

The couple will make their home in Exeter. Mrs. Ekeler is a graduate of St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing.

3RIDE at chapel ceremony

For the marriage of Miss Martha Anne Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Porter to Terry David Drayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Drayton of Orchard, which was solemnized Friday evening, Aug. 26, an arrangement of gold chrysanthemums and lighted ivory candles appointed the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church. The lines of the service were read at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Laurence Brown.

As the matron of honor and her sister-in-law's only attendant, Mrs. Alan Porter of Denver, appeared in a frock of silk crepe and brocade in the topaz shade. She carried a single, large gold chrysanthemum.

Thomas Drayton of Fargo, N.D., served his brother as best man, and the groomsman was Alan Porter of Denver, brother of the bride.

The bride selected white silk crepe for her wedding gown. A crescent neckline contoured the sculptured bodice, completed by fitted below-the-elbow sleeves edged with Venise lace, and the lace encircled the slim waist above the sheath skirt, which was shirred into black fullness and continued into a cotillion train. A circlet of pearls held to the head her veil of silk illusion, and she carried a cascade of gardenias.

Mr. Drayton, a graduate of Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, and his bride will make their home in Fargo, N.D. Mrs. Drayton is a former student at the University of Missouri at Columbia, and a member of Theta Sigma Phi journalism honorary.

TALK

Since early week we have been trying to catch up with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haupt who, with their three daughters, Julie, Meredie and Laurie, arrived from Dallas, Tex., to spend 10 days as the house guests of Mr. Haupt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Haupt. Perhaps we should say that Mr. Haupt came to Lincoln from Dallas, and was joined here by Mrs. Haupt and the three young daughters who had been visiting Mrs. Haupt's family in St. Paul, Minn.

Our difficulty in catching up with the Haupt family has been due to the fact that they are constantly on the go — Not an amazing fact when you consider that until a short time ago Mr. and Mrs. Haupt and their family were a popular part of Lincoln's young married set.

And yesterday we mentioned a new dancing club—It has the enticing name of 'Carousel' and at this moment it is the baby in the dancing club world.

The 1966-67 calendar for the new dining and dancing group includes three parties—the first on Saturday evening, Sept. 10—a dinner dance in the Terrace Room at Hotel Lincoln—The second party will be held on New Year's Eve and already reservations have been made for the new party room at Tony and Luigi's. The third and last party of the season is a spring party—with date and place yet to be determined.

For its first season Carousel will have no officers—Instead there is an executive committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Romjue, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hinrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. John Glynn and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Cheuvront. We suspect that sometime between now and the spring party officers will be elected for the 1967-68 season.

Back in town are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Talbot who returned earlier this week from Minnesota where they spent a few weeks at Pine River.

There was another birthday party on Friday for Mrs. Howard B. Cather who was the honoree at a family celebration on Thursday evening.

Yesterday Mrs. Cather's daughter, Mrs. John Cox, paid courtesy to the anniversary when she entertained a foursome at luncheon at her home.

Annual Tea

Mrs. Bob Peterson will be hostess at her home, 7521 Englewood Dr., on Sunday afternoon when she will entertain prospective members as well as current and former members of the Mrs. JayCees of Lincoln.

Mrs. Bob Smith, chairman of the membership committee, is in charge of arrangements for the 2 o'clock to 4 o'clock tea, and greeting the guests with Mrs. Peterson will be members of the organization's board of directors.

Courtesy

A surprised guest of honor on Monday evening was September bride-elect, Miss Carol Mentzer, who arrived at the home of Mrs. James Sohl to find a bridal shower in progress. Mrs. Dru Hart was co-hostess for the informal party, during which the 10 guests presented a miscellaneous shower to Miss Mentzer.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mentzner.

Card Party

Beginning their fall season of social activities this coming week will be the feminine members of the Fifty-Fifty Club who will meet for an afternoon of bridge on Friday at the University Club.

A 12:45 o'clock luncheon will precede the card party, and serving as hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Harold Edwards and Mrs. Glenn Bonacker.

ABBY

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I wish you would say something in your column about the short skirts girls and women are wearing these days. I ride the bus to work and I see women with their skirts hiked up so high you can see the tops of their nylons, their girdles, and even their underpanties. It's disgusting. And they act like they don't even care.

If girls MUST wear these short skirts to be in style, why can't they at least keep their knees tightly pressed together when they sit on a bus? I am not an old fuddy-duddy. I am a 23-year-old married working girl.

SHOCKED IN DETROIT

DEAR SHOCKED: I can't dictate fashion, but I can recommend that women who wear short skirts carry sweaters, jackets or coats to throw across their knees when they sit down.

DEAR ABBY: Will you please tell us waitresses why a man will come into a dining room where there is just one table messed up, and he will sit there every time.

A WAITRESS

DEAR WAITRESS: Maybe he's just a slob who feels more "at home" at a messed up table.

Devaney Moves Past Bible In Big 8 Coaching Records

. . . HUSKER COACH TRAILS WILKINSON BY FIVE PERCENTAGE POINTS; CAN TAKE LEAD WITH 7-0 MARK IN 1966

Kansas City (AP)—Nebraska's Bob Devaney moved past Dana X. Bible last fall and is now second by a scant five percentage points, .898 to .895, behind Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma in Big Eight football history.

The rankings, for conference games only, show that Devaney, now 25-3 in the league through four seasons, could take over the top spot at .914 with another sweep of all seven conference games. Wilkinson's 17-year league record was 91-9-3.

Missouri's Dan Devine, losing only to Nebraska in league play last year, moved into a sixth place tie in the 38-year rankings with a .750 percentage on a Big Eight record of 39 won, 12 lost and 3 tied. Jack Mitchell of Kansas dropped a notch to No. 11 with a .602 percentage at 31-20-3.

Bible, coach at Nebraska in the 1930s, dropped to third with .875 on a league record of 33-3-4. Ties are computed as half won and half lost in the percentages and forfeited games are disregarded. The list includes only coaches with at least three years service.

The high ranking of Devaney and Devine in league history was to be expected, because Devaney's full career record of 73-16-5 leads the nation's active coaches, while Devine's 84-24-7 is third.

But the Big Eight list has some surprises. A pair of sleepers are Oklahoma's wartime coach, Dewey Luster, with a fourth-place .800 ranking on 19-4-2, and Missouri's Chauncey Simpson, another wartime leader, with an eighth-place .733 on 10-3-2. Tom Stidham of Oklahoma is No. 5 with 15-4-1 in four seasons.

Tied with Devine for sixth is Colorado's Sonny Grandelius with .750 on his 15-5 league record, clouded by NCAA recruiting penalties after his 1961 title year. Biff Jones, 21-10-4 at Oklahoma and Nebraska, is ninth, and Don Faurot of Missouri No. 10 at 60-35-9 for .620.

Others at .500 or above were Lewis Hardage, 3-6-1 at Oklahoma; Bill Glassford, 22-18-2 at Nebraska; Dallas Ward, 31-29-4 at Colorado; J. V. Sikes, 18-18 at Kansas; and Bo McMillin, 15-15 at Kansas State.

George Sauer, 8-1-1 with two co-titles at Kansas, and Lynn Waldorf, 5-0 for one title year at Kansas State in 1934, are eliminated by the three-season limitation. All present league members were in the old Missouri Valley conference organized in 1907. In this era, Jumbo Stiehm of Nebraska never lost a league game in his five seasons as headman.

NU Camp Routine?

. . . DEVANEY SAYS NO

With a number of veterans on hand, you'd probably think Nebraska's fall football camp could become a routine affair

Not so, says coach Bob Devaney

"We expect a lot of veterans will get pressed by new players," Devaney said. "We will play the athletes who are doing the best job. No one has a position clinched if he isn't producing."

Among the positions where interesting battles appear to be shaping up include.:

Offensive Left End — With nary a letterman, it's wide open. Soph Mike Wynn, a 6-4, 210-pounder, gets opening day nod over 1965 squadmen Miles Kimmel, Dennis Morrison and Dan Delaney.

Offensive Right Tackle — Letterman Bob Taucher, 6-5 and 264, returns, but Bob Pickens, 6-5, 274, a transfer from Wisconsin who is an Olympic and AAU wrestling star, is listed No. 1 for opening day.

Defensive Left Tackle — Two-year starter Dick Czap is back, but jim McCord, a 1965 letterman as a soph, had a good spring and rates the No. 1 spot as drills open.

Middle (Right) Linebacker —Lettermen Rick Coleman and Barry Alvarez saw duty in back-up status last fall, and waged a hot spring battle. Coleman starts as No. 1.

Veteran Staff Returns At NU

A veteran staff returns with Nebraska football coach Bob Devaney for this year's campaign.

Included are Carl Selmer, Jim Ross, Mike Corgan, George Kelly, Tom Osborne, John Melton and Cletus Fischer.

Five graduate assistants will also be on hand. They are Duane Mongerson, a former star lineman during the Bill Jennings era; Stan Schalla, a native of Hooper, and 1965 Husker team members Fred Duda, Larry Casey and Dennis Carlson

Koufax Gains 21st Victory

. . . GIANTS LOSE TO DODGERS

From News Wires

Sandy Koufax pitched a four-hit shutout Friday night to lead the streaking Los Angeles Dodgers to a 4-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants and become the season's first 21-game winner.

Koufax struck out seven batters and walked only one in running his record to 21-7.

The seven strikeouts gave him 2,340 for his career and pushed him past Early Wynn to eighth place in the all-time strikeout list.

The victory was the third-place Dodgers' fifth straight and knocked the Giants out of first place in the three club National League race.

As a result, the Pittsburgh Pirates who beat St. Louis 7-4 took over first place with the Giants second, a half game out. The Dodgers trail by another game.

Bob Bolin and Koufax were locked in a scoreless pitching duel for seven innings before the Dodgers scored four times in the eighth to wrap it up. They sent nine batters to the plate in the rally with three of them getting hits and three others reaching first on walks.

Wes Parker walked for the third straight time leading off the eighth, moved to second on a sacrifice by Willie Davis and scored the game's first run on Ron Fairly's single to center. When Bolin followed with another walk to Jim Lefebvre, he was taken out in favor of Bill Henry.

John Roseboro hit Henry's first pitch for a single, scoring Fairly, and Lindy McDaniel replaced him. Lou Johnson promptly doubles to score Lefebvre, and after Jim Gilliam was walked intentionally Koufax scored the frame's fourth run with a sacrifice fly.

A crowd of 42,647 — biggest of the season at Candlestick Park — saw the first game of the three-game weekend set.

Jim O'Toole and Bill McCool blanked Philadelphia on six hits as Cincinnati beat the Phillies 2-0. Singles by Pete Rose and Tommy Helms and Vada Pinson's sacrifice fly gave the Reds a run in the first inning off loser Rick Wise.

They added their final run in the sixth when Helms doubled with two out and came home after centerfielder Jackie Brandt dropped Deron Johnson's fly ball for an error.

Roberto Clemente rapped out four hits and Gene Alley and Jim Pagliaroni contributed three each to lead the 17-hit attack that paced the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 7-4 win over St. Louis.

The Pirates built up a 6-0 lead with two runs in the third and fourth innings and one each in the fifth and sixth before the Cardinals scored. Woody Fryman went 8⅓ innings to earn his 10th win. Pete Mikkelson finished up.

Pirates To Hire Walker For '67

Pittsburgh (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates said Friday that Manager Harry Walker will be back in 1967.

General Manager Joe L. Brown indicated that no formal contract or terms were discussed, but that he had a verbal agreement with Walker.

"I told Harry that we'd like him to come back and he said he would like to; that was all there was to it," Brown said.

Huskers To Wear Stripes In '66

The Nebraska Cornhuskers will be adorned in new uniforms for Sunday's football photo day.

Helmets will be white with a red stripe over the middle and red numerals on the sides.

Jerseys will be the traditional scarlet with white numerals, while the pants will be white with a red stripe down the outsides of the legs.

Lincolnite Captures First In Trapshoot

Lincoln Star Special

Vandalia, Ohio—Thanks to an "okay" from his wife to shoot and a free trip to Vandalia, Del Grim is $6,000 richer after breakings 100 straight to win the 67th Grand American Handicap Friday.

The 47-year-old Lincoln, Neb., resident came to Vandalia with the Pacific Gunsight Co. as a factory representative and scored the only 100 among a 3,465-record field.

"I thought as long as I was going to be here, I might as well shoot," said the bespectacled, blue-eyed father of two daughters.

"But since we were a little short on cash at home, I asked my wife what she thought about me shooting while I was here.

"She said, 'Yah, you're a shooter and like to shoot, so shoot.'"

Still, Grim admitted, "I was a little short on cash so I didn't play everything. I just played the purse."

A shooter can wager the options on his own abilities. Had Grim optioned, he would have nailed $10,000 instead of $6,000.

Il figured if you're going to shoot the Grand, you might as well at least play the purse," he said. "But I didn't have the money to throw away and play the whole ball of was."

Grim fired from the 23-yard from the 23-yard mark in 1945.

The 100-score is the first perfect since 1963, and only the eighth in the 67-year Grand history. The last champs had shot from either the 20 or 21-yard line.

When Grim is not shooting he spends his time at a camping trailer on the grounds demonstrating Pacific's tools for reloading shells.

"I came to the Grand with Pacific last year and broke 88 in the preliminary and 86 in the Grand," Grim pointed out, "I broke 91 in the preliminary Friday.

"I'd never broken 100 before in handicap. A 98 was my best, shot July 28 at the Iowa State Shoot. I took up trap shooting in 1964 and broke 77 my first try.

"I was real fortunate. I had one target come out broken. All that was left of it was the yellow center. I was right on the 5-10, 165-pounder.

"I didn't get nervous until the 96th target," he said, nervously chewing on a toothpick. "Then it hit me. I don't know how I finished. I still can't visualze myself ever breaking 100 again."

Grim brought $300 with him, "More than we can afford. We just married off a daughter and put another one through college.

"What will I do with my money? Well, mom (his wife) hasn't had any new clothes in years—and she sure needs them. She's going to get them."

Grim, who has been hunting since he was 10, is fond of whipping out a picture of his 2½-year-old grandson, shown holding a lever-action gun.

"Here's a future Grand American Champion in about 16 to 18 years," Grim tells friends. "He's 2½ and shooting already."

Grampa Grim beat him to it.

Mickey Wright Ties Record In Taking Gals Lead

Toledo, Ohio (AP) — Mickey Wright equaled a Ladies PGA record with a 30 on the front nine Friday in the first round of the $25,000 Glass City Golf Classic, then came in with a 39 for a 69 and the first round lead.

The 30 on the Highland Meadow Golf Club course, where par is 34-37-71, was the second front-nine 30 in the history of LPGA tournament Play. The other 30, also by Miss Wright, was in 1964 at Midland, Tex.

Three Tied For Lead In Philadelphia Golf

. . . WEISKOPF FALLS TO TIE FOR FOURTH

Whitemarsh, Pa. (AP)—Davey Marr, Don January and Billy Martindale were deadlocked at the top Friday with six-under-par 138s after 36 holes of the $110,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic.

Tommy Weiskopf, the 23-year-old rookie from Bedford, Ohio, who led by two strokes after the opening round, bogeyed two of his last three holes to fall into a six-way tie for fourth place at 139.

The long driving Weiskopf was tied with Roberto Divicenzo, Gene Littler, Dudley Wysong, Bob Charles and George Knudson, the Canadian pro. The first round runners-up, Bob Goalby and Dan Sikes, fell back.

Weiskopf had a chance to keep the lead as he approached the last three holes seven-under-par. But he drove into the rough and chipped over the green on two holes to finish with a one-over par 73.

The 32-year-old Marr carded eight birdies in a six-under-par 66 over the 6,708-yard Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course. He missed only two greens in regulation and holed out seven one-putt greens.

The 36-year-old January fired a second straight 69. He played the last nine holes in par after birdies on No. 6 through 9. He used only 33 putts.

Martindale shot a second round 68 to tie for the lead.

Two strokes off the pace were Goalby and Homero Blancas, each with 140. Goalby added a 72 to his opening 68, while Blancas combined a 66 Friday with a first round 74.

Marr, who said he played his best round of the year, explained that he had been swinging badly in recent weeks.

"I lost my rhythm," he observed.

He said he decided "not to worry where the ball was going and I went back to an old golf theory.

"I counted, 'one, take it back; two, come into the ball; three, follow through.' I wasn't trying to force the shot, just thought of the swing."

January said he was tired despite two three-under-par rounds over the tight Whitemarsh fairways.

"I have played too long, in eight straight tournaments," the former North Texas State college golfer said. "I'm so tired I don't even mind the bad shots." He said he would play only in a special television series the rest of the year.

Borner, Breitfelder Lose In Semifinals

Kansas Ctiy—Charlie Borner and Phil Breitfelder of Lincoln, Neb., were eliminated here Friday in the Heart of America Golf Tournament in the semifinals by tourney favorites Jack House and Rod Horn of Kansas City, Mo.

The Borner-Breitfelder duo defeated Don Dupske and John Powers of St. Louis, 2-up in a quarterfinal match Friday morning in the two-man, best-ball tourney.

However, House and Horn scored a 2 and 1 win in the afternoon semifinals. The House-Horn team were medalists in the 36-hole qualifying earlier in the week, finishing one stroke ahead of Borner and Breitfelder.

The semi-final match was all even after 12 holes, but Horn ran in a six-foot birdie putt at the 13th and House sank a 13-foot birdie putt at the 16th hole to put the Kansas City team two-up.

When the golfers halved the 17th hole, the match was over. House's winning birdie was the only one he had scored during the match.

Big Game Permits Dwindling

Big game hunters were warned Friday by the Nebraska Game Commission that permits were being exhausted at a rapid rate.

As the Nov. 5 to 13 rifle deer season approaches, applications for permits continue to pour in and the supply dwindles.

As of Friday noon, rifle deer areas still open included Omaha 69, Pine Ridge 855, Plains 1155, Platte 395, Republican 39; Sand Hills 1544 and Upper Platte 371.

All permits are issued for the Blue, Buffalo Calamus, -De Soto Elkhorn, Frenchmen, Keya Paha, Loup, Missouri, Nemaha and Wahoo deer units.

All antelope areas have been filled for some time. Wild turkey permits remain for Lincoln 2, Red Willow 32, Round Top 92, and Wildcat 25.

The Verdigre and Niobrara turkey units are filled.

Some hunters who did get their applications in on time may be disappointed if their correct addresses are determined. Permit applications that have been filled and mailed out, but returned by the post office for various reasons are the following:

Cliff Roberts, Richard Rogers, Ed Sommers, Ralph Westadt, M. James Young, Ronald D. Hazen, Patrick Jacobson, Boyd L. Lacy, Thomas Little, Harold Meade, Keith Pyle, and Carl Rezabek.

Devaney Moves Past Bible In Big 8 Coaching Records

. . . HUSKER COACH TRAILS WILKINSON BY FIVE PERCENTAGE POINTS; CAN TAKE LEAD WITH 7-0 MARK IN 1966

Kansas City (AP)—Nebraska's Bob Devaney moved past Dana X. Bible last fall and is now second by a scant five percentage points, .898 to .895, behind Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma in Big Eight football history.

The rankings, for conference games only, show that Devaney, now 25-3 in the league through four seasons, could take over the top spot at .914 with another sweep of all seven conference games. Wilkinson's 17-year league record was 91-9-3.

Missouri's Dan Devine, losing only to Nebraska in league play last year, moved into a sixth place tie in the 38-year rankings with a .750 percentage on a Big Eight record of 39 won, 12 lost and 3 tied. Jack Mitchell of Kansas dropped a notch to No. 11 with a .602 percentage at 31-20-3.

Bible, coach at Nebraska in the 1930s, dropped to third with .875 on a league record of 33-3-4. Ties are computed as half won and half lost in the percentages and forfeited games are disregarded. The list includes only coaches with at least three years service.

The high ranking of Devaney and Devine in league history was to be expected, because Devaney's full career record of 73-16-5 leads the nation's active coaches, while Devine's 84-24-7 is third.

But the Big Eight list has some surprises. A pair of sleepers are Oklahoma's wartime coach, Dewey Luster, with a fourth-place .800 ranking on 19-4-2, and Missouri's Chauncey Simpson, another wartime leader, with an eighth-place .733 on 10-3-2. Tom Stidham of Oklahoma is No. 5 with 15-4-1 in four seasons.

Tied with Devine for sixth is Colorado's Sonny Grandelius with .750 on his 15-5 league record, clouded by NCAA recruiting penalties after his 1961 title year. Biff Jones, 21-10-4 at Oklahoma and Nebraska, is ninth, and Don Faurot of Missouri No. 10 at 60-35-9 for .620.

Others at .500 or above were Lewis Hardage, 3-6-1 at Oklahoma; Bill Glassford, 22-18-2 at Nebraska; Dallas Ward, 31-29-4 at Colorado; J. V. Sikes, 18-18 at Kansas; and Bo McMillin, 15-15 at Kansas State.

George Sauer, 8-1-1 with two co-titles at Kansas, and Lynn Waldorf, 5-0 for one title year at Kansas State in 1934, are eliminated by the three-season limitation. All present league members were in the old Missouri Valley conference organized in 1907. In this era, Jumbo Stiehm of Nebraska never lost a league game in his five seasons as headman.

NU Camp Routine?

. . . DEVANEY SAYS NO

With a number of veterans on hand, you'd probably think Nebraska's fall football camp could become a routine affair Not so, says coach Bob Devaney.

"We expect a lot of veterans will get pressed by new players," Devaney said. "We will play the athletes who are doing the best job. No one has a position clinched if he isn't producing."

Among the positions where interesting battles appear to be shaping up include.:

Offensive Left End — With nary a letterman, it's wide open. Soph Mike Wynn, a 6-4, 210-pounder, gets opening day nod over 1965 squadmen Miles Kimmel, Dennis Morrison and Dan Delaney.

Offensive Right Tackle — Letterman Bob Taucher, 6-5 and 264, returns, but Bob Pickens, 6-5, 274. a transfer from Wisconsin who is an Olympic and AAU wrestling star, is listed No. 1 for opening day.

Defensive Left Tackle — Two-year starter Dick Czap is back, but jim McCord, a 1965 letterman as a soph, had a good spring and rates the No. 1 spot as drills open.

Middle (Right) Linebacker —Lettermen Rick Coleman and Barry Alvarez saw duty in back-up status last fall, and waged a hot spring battle. Coleman starts as No. 1.

Veteran Staff Returns At NU

A veteran staff returns with Nebraska football coach Bob Devaney for this year's campaign.

Included are Carl Selmer, Jim Ross, Mike Corgan, George Kelly, Tom Osborne, John Melton and Cletus Fischer.

Five graduate assistants will also be on hand. They are Duane Mongerson, a former star lineman during the Bill Jennings era; Stan Schalla, a native of Hooper, and 1965 Husker team members Fred Duda, Larry Casey and Dennis Carlson

Huskers To Wear Stripes In '66

The Nebraska Cornhuskers will be adorned in new uniforms for Sunday's football photo day.

Helmets will be white with a red stripe over the middle and red numerals on the sides.

Jerseys will be the traditional scarlet with white numerals, while the pants will be white with a red stripe down the outsides of the legs.

Koufax Gains 21st Victory

. . . GIANTS LOSE TO DODGERS

From News Wires

Sandy Koufax pitched a four-hit shutout Friday night to lead the streaking Los Angeles Dodgers to a 4-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants and become the season's first 21-game winner.

Koufax struck out seven batters and walked only one in running his record to 21-7.

The seven strikeouts gave him 2,340 for his career and pushed him past Early Wynn to eighth place in the all-time strikeout list.

The victory was the third-place Dodgers' fifth straight and knocked the Giants out of first place in the three club National League race.

As a result, the Pittsburgh Pirates who beat St. Louis 7-4 took over first place with the Giants second, a half game out. The Dodgers trail by another game.

Bob Bolin and Koufax were locked in a scoreless pitching duel for seven innings before the Dodgers scored four times in the eighth to wrap it up. They sent nine batters to the plate in the rally with three of them getting hits and three others reaching first on walks.

Wes Parker walked for the third straight time leading off the eighth, moved to second on a sacrifice by Willie Davis and scored the game's first run on Ron Fairly's single to center. When Bolin followed with another walk to Jim Lefebvre, he was taken out in favor of Bill Henry.

John Roseboro hit Henry's first pitch for a single, scoring Fairly, and Lindy McDaniel replaced him. Lou Johnson promptly doubles to score Lefebvre, and after Jim Gilliam was walked intentionally Koufax scored the frame's fourth run with a sacrifice fly.

A crowd of 42,647 — biggest of the season at Candlestick Park — saw the first game of the three-game weekend set.

Jim O'Toole and Bill McCool blanked Philadelphia on six hits as Cincinnati beat the Phillies 2-0. Singles by Pete Rose and Tommy Helms and Vada Pinson's sacrifice fly gave the Reds a run in the first inning off loser Rick Wise.

They added their final run in the sixth when Helms doubled with two out and came home after centerfielder Jackie Brandt dropped Deron Johnson's fly ball for an error.

Roberto Clemente rapped out four hits and Gene Alley and Jim Pagliaroni contributed three each to lead the 17-hit attack that paced the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 7-4 win over St. Louis.

The Pirates built up a 6-0 lead with two runs in the third and fourth innings and one each in the fifth and sixth before the Cardinals scored. Woody Fryman went 8⅓ innings to earn his 10th win. Pete Mikkelson finished up.

Pirates To Hire Walker For '67

Pittsburgh (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates said Friday that Manager Harry Walker will be back in 1967.

General Manager Joe L. Brown indicated that no formal contract or terms were discussed, but that he had a verbal agreement with Walker.

"I told Harry that we'd like him to come back and he said he would like to; that was all there was to it," Brown said.

Borner, Breitfelder Lose In Semifinals

Kansas Ctiy—Charlie Borner and Phil Breitfelder of Lincoln, Neb., were eliminated here Friday in the Heart of America Golf Tournament in the semifinals by tourney favorites Jack House and Rod Horn of Kansas City, Mo.

The Borner-Breitfelder duo defeated Don Dupske and John Powers of St. Louis, 2-up in a quarterfinal match Friday morning in the two-man, best-ball tourney.

However, House and Horn scored a 2 and 1 win in the afternoon semifinals. The House-Horn team were medalists in the 36-hole qualifying earlier in the week, finishing one stroke ahead of Borner and Breitfelder.

The semi-final match was all even after 12 holes, but Horn ran in a six-foot birdie putt at the 13th and House sank a 13-foot birdie putt at the 16th hole to put the Kansas City team two-up.

When the golfers halved the 17th hole, the match was over. House's winning birdie was the only one he had scored during the match.

Lincolnite Captures First In Trapshoot

Lincoln Star Special

Vandalia, Ohio—Thanks to an "okay" from his wife to shoot and a free trip to Vandalia, Del Grim is $6,000 richer after breakings 100 straight to win the 67th Grand American Handicap Friday.

The 47-year-old Lincoln, Neb., resident came to Vandalia with the Pacific Gunsight Co. as a factory representative and scored the only 100 among a 3,465-record field.

"I thought as long as I was going to be here, I might as well shoot," said the bespectacled, blue-eyed father of two daughters.

"But since we were a little short on cash at home, I asked my wife what she thought about me shooting while I was here.

"She said, 'Yah, you'e a shooter and like to shoot, so shoot.'"

Still, Grim admitted, "I was a little short on cash so I didn't play everything. I just played the purse."

A shooter can wager the options on his own abilities. Had Grim optioned, he would have nailed $10,000 instead of $6,000.

II figured if you're going to shoot the Grand, you might as well at least play the purse," he said. "But I didn't have the money to throw away and play the whole ball of was."

Grim fired from the 23-yard from the 23-yard mark in 1945.

The 100-score is the first perfect since 1963, and only the eighth in the 67-year Grand history. The last champs had shot from either the 20 or 21-yard line.

When Grim is not shooting he spends his time at a camping trailer on the grounds demonstrating Pacific's tools for reloading shells.

"I came to the Grand with Pacific last year and broke 88 in the preliminary and 86 in the Grand," Grim pointed out, "I broke 91 in the preliminary Friday.

"I'd never broken 100 before in handicap. A 98 was my best, shot July 28 at the Iowa State Shoot. I took up trap shooting in 1964 and broke 77 my first try.

"I was real fortunate. I had one target come out broken. All that was left of it was the yellow center. I was right on the 5-10, 165-pounder.

"I didn't get nervous until the 96th target," he said, nervously chewing on a toothpick. "Then it hit me. I don't know how I finished. I still can't visualze myself ever breaking 100 again."

Grim brought $300 with him, "More than we can afford. We just married off a daughter and put another one through college.

"What will I do with my money? Well, mom (his wife) hasn't had any new clothes in years—and she sure needs them. She's going to get them."

Grim, who has been hunting since he was 10, is fond of whipping out a picture of his 2½-year-old grandson, shown holding a lever-action gun.

"Here's a future Grand American Champion in about 16 to 18 years," Grim tells friends. "He's 2½ and shooting already."

Grampa Grim beat him to it.

Mickey Wright Ties Record In Taking Gals Lead

Toledo, Ohio (AP) — Mickey Wright equaled a Ladies PGA record with a 30 on the front nine Friday in the first round of the $25,000 Glass City Golf Classic, then came in with a 39 for a 69 and the first round lead.

The 30 on the Highland Meadow Golf Club course, where par is 34-37-71, was the second front-nine 30 in the history of LPGA tournament Play. The other 30, also by Miss Wright, was in 1964 at Midland, Tex.

Three Tied For Lead In Philadelphia Golf

. . . WEISKOPF FALLS TO TIE FOR FOURTH

Whitemarsh, Pa. (AP)—Davey Marr, Don January and Billy Martindale were deadlocked at the top Friday with six-under-par 138s after 36 holes of the $110,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic.

Tommy Weiskopf, the 23-year-old rookie from Bedford, Ohio, who led by two strokes after the opening round, bogeyed two of his last three holes to fall into a six-way tie for fourth place at 139.

The long driving Weiskopf was tied with Roberto Divicezo, Gene Littler, Dudley Wysong, Bob Charles and George Knudson, the Canadian pro. The first round runners-up, Bob Goalby and Dan Sikes, fell back.

Weiskopf had a chance to keep the lead as he approached the last three holes seven-under-par. But he drove into the rough and chipped over the green on two holes to finish with a one-over par 73.

The 32-year-old Marr carded eight birdies in a six-under-par 66 over the 6,708-yard Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course. He missed only two greens in regulation and holed out seven one-putt greens.

The 36-year-old January fired a second straight 69. He played the last nine holes in par after birdies on No. 6 through 9. He used only 33 putts.

Martindale shot a second round 68 to tie for the lead.

Two strokes off the pace were Goalby and Homero Blancas, each with 140. Goalby added a 72 to his opening 68, while Blancas combined a 66 Friday with a first round 74.

Marr, who said he played his best round of the year, explained that he had been swinging badly in recent weeks.

"I lost my rhythm," he observed.

He said he decided "not to worry where the ball was going and I went back to an old golf theory.

"I counted, 'one, take it back; two, come into the ball; three, follow through.' I wasn't trying to force the shot, just thought of the swing."

January said he was tired despite two three-under-par rounds over the tight Whitemarsh fairways.

"I have played too long, in eight straight tournaments," the former North Texas State college golfer said. "I'm so tired I don't even mind the bad shots." He said he would play only in a special television series the rest of the year.

Browns Lose To Baltimore

. . . VIKINGS TOP REDSKINS

Cleveland (AP) — The Baltimore Colts spotted Cleveland two touchdowns, then beat the Browns 24-17 on a pair of second-half touchdown passes by second-string quarterback Gary Cuozzo before 83,418 in the second game of a National Football League exhibition double-header Friday night.

The Minnesota Vikings downed the Washington Redskins 30-27 in the opener on three field goals by Fred Cox in the fourth quarter.

Cuozzo, replacing starter Johnny Unitas after the intermission, threw a 44-yard touchdown to Willie Richardson in the third quarter to tie Tom Matte for 24 yards in the fourth quarter. Matte, who scored on a 13-yard screen pass in the first half, made a leaping catch at the three-yard line and scored untouched.

The Browns jumped to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on a 39-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Frank Ryan to Gary Collins and a 46-yard zig-zag run by Leroy Kelly.

Lou Michaels booted a 43-yard field goal for the Colts just before the half, and Lou Groza had a 27-yarder for the Browns just after the intermission to send the Browns ahead 17-10.

In the first game, Cox kicked two field goals that twice tied the game before booting the third one in the last six seconds Quarterback Ron Vander Kelen moved the Vikings into position on passes to Paul Flatley and Red Phillips.

Cox tied it with a nine-yard boot at 1:56 of the fourth quarter but the Redskins' Charley Gogolak put the Skins ahead with a 25-yard field goal.

Minnesota had a 21-17 halftime lead after a passing duel between Jurgensen and Fran Tarkenton.

Tarkenton played only the first half and hit on nine of 11 passes, while VanderKelen connected on nine of 21 in the second half.

Jurgensen, who finished with 32 completions on 52 attempts for 278 yards, went all the way for Washington. The Redskins rushed for 38 yards, while the Vikings gained nine.

San Diego Coach In Vengeful Mood

By Associated Press

The new owners of the San Diego Chargers retained general manger-coach Sid Gillman, but he remains in a vengeful mood as he prepares his team to meet the Boston Patriots in their final 1966 American Football League exhibition tonight.

"We're here to win," Gillman said recently. "That's what we're in business for."

So you can imagine how he feels after his Chargers lost their last two pre-season games, the first time that has happened to Gillman, who has won five Western Division titles.

On the other hand, the Patriots beat Oakland 21-10 last week for their first exhibition victory after 17 straight defeats.

The rest of the final AFL exhibition weekend puts Houston at Kansas City and New York against Buffalo at Allentown, Pa., Saturday night and Oakland at Denver in a nationally televised game Sunday.

In the National Football League, with still another exhibition weekend to go, New York plays Philadelphia at Princeton, N.J., Saturday afternoon and Pittsburgh is at Green Bay, St. Louis at Los Angeles, Atlanta and San Francisco at Columbus, S.C., and Dallas and Detroit at Tulsa, Okla., Saturday night.

Most of the AFL teams will rely on regulars in the final tuneup, including Gillman in the game at San Diego. He is expected to use quarterback John Hadl and running backs Paul Lowe and Keith Lincoln most of the game. Missing, however, will be flanker Lance Alworth and linebacker Frank Buncom, out with injuries.

Kansas City, along with Oakland, appears to be the main threat to another division crown for the Chargers. After beating them 24-21. The Chiefs take a 3-0 mark and a smart running attack into the game with the Oilers.

Bert Coan has been a pleasant surprise and may be the answer to Kansas City's running problems. They also have sophomore Otis Taylor, 23, whom coach Hank Stram calls "the finest flanker to come into the AFL since Alworth."

The Jets will be missing quarterback Joe Namath, who is scheduled to return to action next weekend after a knee injury.

Denver will be playing its second game this week after beating the new Miami Dolphins 28-16 Wednesday night for its first victory. Oakland will send fullback Hewitt Dixon, acquired from Denver, against his old mates and also will keep a close eye on quarterback Cotton Davidson, trying for a comeback after an injury last season.

Browns Lose To Baltimore

. . . VIKINGS TOP REDSKINS

Cleveland (AP) — The Baltimore Colts spotted Cleveland two touchdowns, then beat the Browns 24-17 on a pair of second-half touchdown passes by second-string quarterback Gary Cuozzo before 83,418 in the second game of a National Football League exhibition double-header Friday night.

The Minnesota Vikings downed the Washington Redskins 30-27 in the opener on three field goals by Fred Cox in the fourth quarter.

Cuozzo, replacing starter Johnny Unitas after the intermission, threw a 44-yard touchdown to Willie Richardson in the third quarter to tie Tom Matte for 24 yards in the fourth quarter. Matte, who scored on a 13-yard screen pass in the first half, made a leaping catch at the three-yard line and scored untouched.

The Browns jumped to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on a 39-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Frank Ryan to Gary Collins and a 46-yard zig-zag run by Leroy Kelly.

Lou Michaels booted a 43-yard field goal for the Colts just before the half, and Lou Groza had a 27-yarder for the Browns just after the intermission to send the Browns ahead 17-10.

In the first game, Cox kicked two field goals that twice tied the game before booting the third one in the last six seconds. Quarterback Ron Vander Kelen moved the Vikings into position on passes to Paul Flatley and Red Phillips.

Cox tied it with a nine-yard boot at 1:56 of the fourth quarter but the Redskins' Charley Gogolak put the Skins ahead with a 25-yard field goal.

Minnesota had a 21-17 half-time lead after a passing duel between Jurgensen and Fran Tarkenton.

Tarkenton played only the first half and hit on nine of 11 passes, while VanderKelen connected on nine of 21 in the second half.

Jurgensen, who finished with 32 completions on 52 attempts for 278 yards, went all the way for Washington. The Redskins rushed for 38 yards, while the Vikings gained nine.

—RETAINED, BUT—

San Diego Coach In Vengeful Mood

By Associated Press

The new owners of the San Diego Chargers retained general manger-coach Sid Gillman, but he remains in a vengeful mood as he prepares his team to meet the Boston Patriots in their final 1966 American Football League exhibition tonight.

"We're here to win," Gillman said recently. "That's what we're in business for."

So you can imagine how he feels after his Chargers lost their last two pre-season games, the first time that has happened to Gillman, who has won five Western Division titles.

On the other hand, the Patriots beat Oakland 21-10 last week for their first exhibition victory after 17 straight defeats.

The rest of the final AFL exhibition weekend puts Houston at Kansas City and New York against Buffalo at Allentown, Pa., Saturday night and Oakland at Denver in a nationally televised game Sunday.

In the National Football League, with still another exhibition weekend to go, New York plays Philadelphia at Princeton, N.J., Saturday afternoon and Pittsburgh is at Green Bay, St. Louis at Los Angeles, Atlanta and San Francisco at Columbus, S.C., and Dallas and Detroit at Tulsa, Okla., Saturday night.

Most of the AFL teams will rely on regulars in the final tuneup, including Gillman in the game at San Diego. He is expected to use quarterback John Hadl and running backs Paul Lowe and Keith Lincoln most of the game. Missing, however, will be flanker Lance Alworth and linebacker Frank Buncom, out with injuries.

Kansas City, along with Oakland, appears to be the main threat to another division crown for the Chargers. After beating them 24-21. The Chiefs take a 3-0 mark and a smart running attack into the game with the Oilers.

Bert Coan has been a pleasant surprise and may be the answer to Kansas City's running problems. They also have sophomore Otis Taylor, 23, whom coach Hank Stram calls "the finest flanker to come into the AFL since Alworth."

The Jets will be missing quarterback Joe Namath, who is scheduled to return to action next weekend after a knee injury.

Denver will be playing its second game this week after beating the new Miami Dolphins 28-16 Wednesday night for its first victory. Oakland will send fullback Hewitt Dixon, acquired from Denver, against his old mates and also will keep a close eye on quarterback Cotton Davidson, trying for a comeback after an injury last season.

"WHERE BOWLING IS FUN"

Convinced you're 5 years away from your first luxury car?

Meet the Mind-Changer.
(Ambassador DPL)

This up-and-coming attorney figured he was five years away from owning his first luxury car. Now, one's gracing his garage. What did it? The Mind-Changer: our sleek, rakish Ambassador DPL Hardtop. A glance inside at all that Ambassador luxury, and he had to agree with Motor Trend magazine: "the industry's richest interior." Posh coil-spring seats. Lush cut-pile carpeting. Costly paneling with the look of walnut. A 232-cubic-inch Six that's standard, and big optional V-8's. Like all Ambassadors, the DPL now sports a very unluxurious model-year-end price. Come see why! American Motors... where quality is built in, not added on.

STOP Built with your safety in mind. Every American Motors car includes a Double-Safety brake system, Single-Unit body construction, padded dash and visors, outside mirror, seat belts front and rear, back-up lights, windshield washers, higher-strength windshield, variable-speed wipers.

Big cleanup savings now at your American Motors/Rambler dealer.

The rangy Texan was given the starting assignment by Atlanta coach Norb Hecker in an attempt to put more punch in the Falcons attack, which has harvested only 27 points so far.

Johnson will replace Dennis Claridge, who completed 29 of 55 passes for 253 yards and started every Falcon game. Johnson's target will be flanker Alex Hawkins, former South Carolina standout.

Aussies, U. S. Team Advance To Net Semis

Brookline, Mass. (AP) — Defending champions Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle of Australia and U.S. Davis Cup players Arthur Ashe and Marty Riessen stormed into the semifinals of the 86th U.S. National Doubles Tennis Tournament Friday with straight set victories at Longwood Cricket Club.

Emerson, who also won the U.S. Doubles crown with Neale Fraser in 1959 and 1960, and Stolle overpowered England's Mark Cox and Graham Stilwell, 9-7, 11-9, 6-3.

Ashe, an Army bound ace from Los Angeles, and Riessen, former Northwestern University Star from Evanston, Ill., romped to a 6-3, 6-4, 15-13 victory over Aussies Owen Davidson and William Bowrey, who upset America's top pair of Dennis Ralston and Clark Graebner in the Newport, R.I. Invitational finals last Sunday.

Emerson and Stolle, top seeded in defense of their title, upheld their lofty ranking in ousting the eighth rated Cox and Stilwell in a hard-hitting match.

Peru To Open Cross Country Slate Today

Peru—Peru State College will open its 1966 cross country season today when they compete in the Elmwood Park Run in Omaha.

Peru State was defeated only once last year by a Nebraska team, losing to Kearney State in the NCC championships. That defeat was later avenged in the national and regional NAIA runs.

This year's edition will include all runners from last year's squad with the exception of graduates Louis Fritz and Jim Sprague, South Lyon, Mich.

Back to lead the Bobcats this year will be lettermen Ron Jones, Henderson, Iowa, Tim Hendricks, Omaha; Dick Zaparanick, Westfield, N.J.; Van Allen, Nemaha; Jim Watson, Red Cloud, and Jim O'Donoghue, Worcester, Mass.

The schedule:

Aug. 27, at Elmwood Park Run, Omaha; Sept. 16, at AAU Meet, Auburn; Sept. 24, at Wayne State; Oct. 1, High School Invitational; Oct. 1, Peru, Tarkio, Culver Stockton at Tarkio, Mo.; Oct. 7, at Omaha University; Oct. 11, Northwest Missouri State; Oct. 14, John F. Kennedy at Omaha; Oct. 18, at Northwest Missouri State; Oct. 21, at Doane College; Oct. 25, Tarkio and John F. Kennedy at Peru; Oct. 29, Nebraska College Conference Meet; Nov. 1, Midland College at Omaha; Nov. 4, at Nebraska Wesleyan Invitational; November 7, Midwestern College at Omaha; Nov. 11, NAIA Regional Meet; Nov. 19, Peru State Intercollegiate Invitational; Nov. 22, Doane College at Peru; Nov. 26, NAIA National Meet at Omaha.

Dowell Scores Upset In Senior Golf Meet

Colorado Springs, Colo. (AP) — Walter Dowell of Walnut Ridge, Ark., upset Merrill Carlsmith of Hilo, Hawaii, 2-up in the semifinals of the World Senior Golf Championship on the Broadmoor course Friday.

Cecil Dees of Glendale, Calif., won the other semi-final match, beating Ward Watson of La Mesa, Calif., 2 and 1.

Adams To Speak At Knights Fete

Omaha (UPI) — The main speaker at the Omaha Knights face-off breakfast Thursday at the Sheraton-Fontenelle Hotel will be Jack Adams, Central Professional Hockey League president.

Adams, who is often referred to as "Mr. Hockey," has devoted more than 50 years to the sport as a player, coach, general manager and president of the CPHL.

He had a distinguished playing career with Toronto, Vancouver and Ottawa. He started and finished his playing span in identical fashion, by being a member of a Stanley Cup winning team.

Shooting Hours For Teel Differ In Early Season

Shooting hours for teal during the special early teal season Sept. 3-11 are from sunrise to sunset, not the same as during the regular duck season, the Game Commissioner reminds.

This is to insure easier identification during the early morning hours. Opening hour for teal was held to sunrise during the special teal season only.

During the regular duck season, Oct. 15-Dec. 13, teal may be hunted from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset, the same as other ducks. The shooting hours for ducks and geese during the regular seasons were moved up to one-half hour before sunrise by the federal Fish and Wildlife Service.

Shooting hours for ducks, geese, and all upland game are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. For Wilson's snipe, rails, and gallinules, hours are from sunrise to sunset. Big game shooting hours for wild turkey, deer, and antelope, are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Kearney Expects 80 Gridders To Report Sunday

Kearney — Eighty football hopefuls will report Sunday for physicals and photography at Kearney State College in preparation for a 10-game schedule.

Included in the group are 46 who were squad members a year ago and 35 newcomers and transfers. Included are 31 who lettered last year and one who lettered two years ago.

The returnees include 8 ends; 0 tackles; 7 guards; 4 centers; 6 quarterbacks; 9 half-backs; and 3 fullbacks.

The newcomers include transfers from McCook College, Norfolk College, Fairbury College, Wyoming, Napa Junior College, and Hastings College.

Returning seniors include Neal Knup, Oxford quarterback; Mike Inselman, Leigh end; John Torczon, Columbus end; Richard Dostal, Scribner tackle; Randy Rasmussen, Elba tackle; Jim Buck, Grand Island guard; Bill Maggiacomo, East Providence, Rhode Island, guard; and Fred Gerhardt Jr., Kearney quarterback.

The squad begins 3-a-day practices Monday in preparation for their opening game with Eastern Montana State in Billings Sept. 10.

Head Coach Allen H. Zikmund will have the same assisting staff. Joe D. Willis will be line coach, Les Livingston, chief scout, R. D. Hauver, "B" team, and Fred Gerhardt, backs.

Graduate assistants include Dick Butolph, Kearney, NCC and NAIA All American two years ago; Robert Clay, Broken Bow, NCC guard of a decade ago; Jerry Dunlap, Ord, NCC halfback three years ago; and John Richman, Kearney, a 1966 Kearney State graduate.

Madison To Open Longest Racing Season Sept. 8

Madison (UPI) — Madison Downs will open Sept. 8 for 13 days of racing — the longest season in the 30-year history of the track.

Monies earned from Madison Races have been reinvested in the improvement of the Madison County Fair and 4-H activities.

Some of the top horses from Nebraska and Canada will campaign at Madison this year, according to Morris Moyer, general manager at the track.

Starring Seven

Aussies, U. S. Team Advance To Net Semis

Brookline, Mass. (AP) — Defending champions Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle of Australia and U.S. Davis Cup players Arthur Ashe and Marty Riessen stormed into the semifinals of the 86th U.S. National Doubles Tennis Tournament Friday with straight set victories at Lingwood Cricket Club.

Emerson, who also won the U.S. Doubles crown with Neale Fraser in 1959 and 1960, and Stolle overpowered England's Mark Cox and Graham Stilwell, 9-7, 11-9, 6-3.

Ashe, an Army bound ace from Los Angeles, and Riessen, former Northwestern University Star from Evanston, Ill., romped to a 6-3, 6-4, 15-13 victory over Aussies Owen Davidson and William Bowrey, who upset America's top pair of Dennis Ralston and Clark Graebner in the Newport, R.I. Invitational finals last Sunday.

Emerson and Stolle, top seeded in defense of their title, upheld their lofty ranking in ousting the eighth rated Cox and Stilwell in a hard-hitting match.

Peru To Open Cross Country Slate Today

Peru—Peru State College will open its 1966 cross country season today when they compete in the Elmwood Park Run in Omaha.

Peru State was defeated only once last year by a Nebraska team, losing to Kearney State in the NCC championships. That defeat was later avenged in the national and regional NAIA runs.

This year's edition will include all runners from last year's squad with the exception of graduates Louis Fritz and Jim Sprague, South Lyon, Mich.

Back to lead the Bobcats this year will be lettermen Ron Jones, Henderson, Iowa, Tim Hendricks, Omaha; Dick Zaparanick, Westfield, N.J.; Van Allen, Nemaha; Jim Watson, Red Cloud, and Jim O'Donoghue, Worcester, Mass.

The schedule:

Aug. 27, at Elmwood Park Run, Omaha; Sept. 16, at AAU Meet, Auburn; Sept. 24, at Wayne State; Oct. 1, High School Invitational; Oct. 1, Peru, Tarkio, Culver Stockton at Tarkio, Mo.; Oct. 7, at Omaha University; Oct. 11, Northwest Missouri State; Oct. 14, John F. Kennedy at Omaha; Oct. 18, at Northwest Missouri State; Oct. 21, at Doane College; Oct. 25, Tarkio and John F. Kennedy at Peru; Oct. 19, Nebraska College Conference Meet; Nov. 1, Midland College at Omaha; Nov. 4, at Nebraska Wesleyan Invitational; November 7, Midwestern College at Omaha; Nov. 11, NAIA Regional Meet; Nov. 19, Peru State Intercollegiate Invitational; Nov. 22, Doane College at Peru; Nov. 26, NAIA National Meet at Omaha.

Dowell Scores Upset In Senior Golf Meet

Colorado Springs, Colo. (AP) — Walter Dowell of Walnut Ridge, Ark., upset Merrill Carlsmith of Hilo, Hawaii, 2-up in the semifinals of the World Senior Golf Championship on the Broadmoor course Friday.

Cecil Dees of Glendale, Calif., won the other semifinal match, beating Ward Watson of La Mesa, Calif., 2 and 1.

Adams To Speak At Knights Fete

Omaha (UPI) — The main speaker at the Omaha Knights face-off breakfast Thursday at the Sheraton-Fontenelle Hotel will be Jack Adams, Central Professional Hockey League president.

Adams, who is often referred to as "Mr. Hockey," has devoted more than 50 years to the sport as a player, coach, general manager and president of the CPHL.

He had a distinguished playing career with Toronto, Vancouver and Ottawa. He started and finished his playing span in identical fashion, by being a member of a Stanley Cup winning team.

Shooting Hours For Teel Differ In Early Season

Shooting hours for teal during the special early teal season Sept. 3-11 are from sunrise to sunset, not the same as during the regular duck season, the Game Commissioner reminds.

This is to insure easier identification during the early morning hours. Opening hour for teal was held to sunrise during the special teal season only.

During the regular duck season, Oct. 15 - Dec. 13, teal may be hunted from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset, the same as other ducks. The shooting hours for ducks and geese during the regular seasons were moved up to one-half hour before sunrise by the federal Fish and Wildlife Service.

Shooting hours for ducks, geese, and all upland game are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. For Wilson's snipe, rails, and gallinules, hours are from sunrise to sunset. Big game shooting hours for wild turkey, deer, and antelope, are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Kearney Expects 80 Gridders To Report Sunday

Kearney — Eighty football hopefuls will report Sunday for physicals and photography at Kearney State College in preparation for a 10-game schedule.

Included in the group are 46 who were squad members a year ago and 35 newcomers and transfers. Included are 31 who lettered last year and one who lettered two years ago.

The returnees include 8 ends; 9 tackles; 7 guards; 4 centers; 6 quarterbacks; 9 half-backs; and 3 fullbacks.

The newcomers include transfers from McCook College, Norfolk College, Fairbury College, Wyoming, Napa Junior College, and Hastings College.

Returning seniors include Neal Kaup, Oxford quarterback; Mike Inselman, Leigh end; John Torczon, Columbus end; Richard Dostal, Scribner tackle; Randy Rasmussen, Elba tackle; Jim Buck, Grand Island guard; Bill Maggiacomo, East Providence, Rhode Island, guard; and Fred Gerhardt Jr., Kearney quarterback.

The squad begins 3-a-day practices Monday in preparation for their opening game with Eastern Montana State in Billings Sept. 10.

Head Coach Allen H. Zikmund will have the same assisting staff. Joe D. Willis will be line coach, Les Livingston, chief scout, R. D. Hauver, "B" team, and Fred Gerhardt, backs.

Graduate assistants include Dick Butolph, Kearney, NCC and NAIA All American two years ago; Robert Clay, Broken Bow, NCC guard of a decade ago; Jerry Dunlap, Ord, NCC halfback three years ago; and John Richman, Kearney, a 1966 Kearney State graduate.

Madison To Open Longest Racing Season Sept. 8

Madison (UPI) — Madison Downs will open Sept. 8 for 13 days of racing — the longest season in the 30-year history of the track.

Monies earned from Madison Races have been reinvested in the improvement of the Madison County Fair and 4-H activities.

Some of the top horses from Nebraska and Canada will campaign at Madison this year, according to Morris Moyer, general manager at the track.

Starring Seven

Chicago (UPI) — Seven members of the Chicago White Sox played in both 1960 All-Star games. They are Minnie Minoso, Sherman Lollar, Nellie Fox, Luis Aparicio, Early Wynn, Gerry Staley and Al Smith.

Wilber Youth Dominates Saline Fair Hog Show

By GLENN KREUSCHER
Farm Editor

Crete—The 1966 Saline County Fair entered it's second day here Friday with large classes of high quality livestock competing in the new judging arena just finished prior to fair opening.

Veteran livestockmen were high in praise for the excellent quality entered by 4-H and FFA members.

In the swine show it was Larry Kubicek of Wilber, who added to his long list of FFA wins by showing both the champion and reserve champion market hog.

Sheep Interest Up

A few years ago only a handful of sheep were shown in the Saline County Fair, but this year 75 head were entered in a highly contested event that saw Greg Peters of De Witt take the championship with his Shropshire lamb. Reserve champion lamb was owned by Jackie Johansen of Friend on a Hampshire.

Bob Beck of Fremont judged the livestock classes.

In the beef show 130 entries were competing for top positions, with more than half of the group slated to enter the State Fair.

Two farms in the county were recognized by Ak-Sar-Ben for 100 years of ownership.

Frank Miller of Western, who owns a farm that was founded by his father in 1866, has the distinction of having always had some member of the family operating the farm.

George Witt of Lincoln received recognition for a farm located one mile north and three east of Western that has been owned by the family since 1861.

Mrs. Fritton, 72 Albion, Is Dead

Albion (AP)—Funeral services have been tentatively scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday at St. Michael's Catholic Church for Mrs. Marie C. Fritton, 72, widow of Victor Fritton, a longtime Albion bottler and beverage distributor.

The rosary will be recited at 8:30 p.m. Sunday at the Levander Funeral home in Albion.

The final rites were left tentative while attempts were made to reach a son, J. Paul Fritton, a Kearney State College instructor now in Europe. Mrs. Fritton also is survived by a son, George, of Albion, and a daughter, Victoria of Kansas City. Her husband died last Dec. 6.

Rising City Man, Texas Daughter To Meet First Time in 32 Years

Lubbock, Texas (UPI)—A Texas woman is hoping to meet her Nebraskan father Labor Day for the first time in 32 years.

Mrs. Darlene Davis said her father, Logan Kinnison of Rising City, Neb., telephoned her Wednesday night. He said he had been trying to find her for many years.

Mrs. Davis, 36, said she was adopted at the age of four. Her father located her when several of her sisters and brothers visited a mutual friend of Kinnison's in Roscoe, Texas.

Mrs. Davis said she and her father, 54, now want to find her sister, Imogene, 34, whose last known home was in Florida in 1961.

At Rising City, Mrs. Violet Kinnison said the Nebraska family will leave by car this coming Friday for Lubbock and the long-awaited reunion.

She and Kinnison were married in 1947. The Kinnisons have two children, Logan Jr., 15, and Mrs. Gary (Barbara) West, 23, wife of a Columbus, Neb., service station manager.

Mrs. Kinnison said it is hoped both children will be able to make the trip to Texas. Kinnison is a rural mail carrier at Rising City.

HERE IN LINCOLN

Sorensen To Speak — Phil Sorensen, Democratic candidate for governor, will address the Executive Club Monday at a noon meeting in the Cornhusker Hotel.

Chairman Appointed —Dr. Marvel Baker has been appointed chairman of the research committee of the Lancaster County GOP organization, Republican County Chairman Ed Weaver Jr. announced Friday.

Elm Creek Youth Dead; 2nd Victim Critical In Crash

Brush, Colo. (UPI) — One Nebraska teen-ager was killed and another critically injured Thursday in a car-tractor accident on Interstate 80-S just northwest of Brush.

The Colorado State Patrol identified the victim as Kevin L. Stauffer, 17, of Elm Creek, Neb. The patrol said the youth was killed instantly.

Nebraska News

The other youth, Ross Marshall, 18, also of Elm Creek, was listed in critical condition at Mercy Hospital in Denver. Hospital officials said the youth was in the intensive care unit. He is the son of Lawrence Marshall of Elm Creek.

The patrol said the car carrying the two slammed into the rear of a tractor pulling a county road roller.

The operator of the tractor, Richard Lauck of Fort Morgan, Colo., was not hurt in the accident.

Paxton Man Dies As Truck Upsets

Cody, Wyo. (AP) — A 27-year-old Nebraskan was killed Thursday night when a truck and trailer loaded with lumber went out of control on U.S. Highway 120, about 12 miles south of Cody.

The victim was identified as Gerald Kubiak of Paxton.

Officers said Kubiak was thrown from the truck cab and was crushed when the vehicle turned over in a borrow pit.

Suspected Accomplice Apprehended

Ruby Conchola, 21, a suspected accomplice in the burglary last July of Stevens Credit Jewelers, 1338 O, has been apprehended in Milwaukee, Wis., Lincoln police said Friday.

She is charged, along with Bobby Gene Jones, 33, in connection with the incident, reportedly Lincoln's largest burglary at $40,000.

Police Inspector Robert Sawdon said the pair is wanted in seven states in connection with burglaries in which more than $200,000 in merchandise was taken.

Jones was apprehended in Milwaukee Thursday in a car that allegedly contained loot in connection with a Wisconsin burglary, police said.

Vaughn Arrested While Picketing Federal Building

Omaha (AP)—William Creighton Vaughn, 21-year-old Omahan, was arrested Friday as he picketed the Federal Building in downtown Omaha.

Vaughn and his wife appeared at the building while Donald P. Lay of Omaha was being sworn in as a judge of the Eighth Federal Circuit Court of Appeals.

Vaughn was taken into custody by the FBI and appeared before U.S. Commissioner Richard Peck on a charge of failure to answer his draft call. Vaughn waived indictment by a grand jury and was bound over to the U.S. District Court, then released on his own signature under $1,000 bond.

Chief Assistant U.S. Atty. Russell Blumenthal said an angry crowd of youths appeared as Vaughn and his wife walked up and down with signs protesting the Viet Nam war and the draft.

McPherson Requests School District Entry

Assistant State Education Commissioner Cecil Stanley reported Friday McPherson County has requested inclusion in the proposed mid plains area vocational technical school district.

He said the State Board of Education will consider the application from McPherson County commissioners at its Sept. 13 meeting.

The state board has already authorized a local vote on formation of the district to establish an area trade school under 1965 legislation. The district as now proposed would include 10 counties in the North Platte area.

Sanders Scholarship Established, Says PAL

The establishment of the Col. C. J. Sanders Memorial Scholarship, to be given annually by People and Law (PAL), was announced by Ben Goble of that organization Friday.

The scholarship will be given to a graduating high school senior who plans to study law or criminology. Amount of the scholarship and other details are to be worked out later.

The announcement came during a round-table discussion of PAL by Goble, Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce members and other interested persons.

Before More

Objective of the discussion was aimed at determining new avenues of bringing PAL before more persons.

During an open discussion, Goble praised news media for its part in publicizing PAL, an organization aimed at strengthening respect for law through individual responsibility.

As to PAL's reception, Goble said that there is a certain amount of apathy on the part of Lincolnites, "but we expected this to begin with," he added.

Basically, Goble said he still believed Lincoln was the natural base for an operation like PAL. Lincoln, he said, has many state offices here, and thus is a great deal of resources from which PAL can draw.

One thing that may help membership would be to publicize the fact that members are not called upon to serve on committees or spend time away from home several nights a week.

Offer Services

"They may, if they wish, offer their services," he noted. Dues are $2 for adults and $1 for youths for one year.

Beginning in December or January, Goble said, PAL will launch an active membership campaign. He said that one has not yet been conducted because advisory members felt that they should give the program time to become known. Membership presently stands at about 200.

Looking to the future, Goble said he felt that the organization could operate and carry out its objectives on a budget of about $2,500 per year. He added that this was not an excessive amount.

"We're trying to prove a point here, that interested citizens can promote respect for law without a vast and costly structure," he said.

Douglas Co. Board Plans Tax Rate Cut

Omaha (AP) — The Douglas County Board disclosed Friday it plans to reduce local property tax rates in the face of valuation increases.

The county levy, not yet adopted, would be cut more than a mill and the City of Omaha levy of 22 mills would be reduced by 3.29 mills.

Omahans now pay $85.86 per thousand. This would be reduced to a little more than $70.

County officials said the reductions will merely compensate for 24% valuation increases ordered by the State Board of Equalization and will not lower tax bills.

Chief Deputy Attorney Arthur D. O'Leary said state law clearly gives the county board, acting as the county board of equalization, authority to set levies for every governmental unit in the county.

The city has been leaning away from a decrease and Council President H. F. Jacobberger said if the city levy is rolled back and the 24% valuation increase "does not stick," the city could lose about $2 million in tax revenues.

He said the city has "full confidence" that if the county is contemplating reducing the city levy, it also is prepared to show the city how to guard against the possible loss.

State Teacher Shortage 'Overplayed'

By United Press International

A State Education Department official said Friday while there is a need for more teachers in Nebraska he doubts the pinch is unusual.

Leonard Skov, head of the teacher certification division, said figures purporting to show shortages could be misleading because some schools advertise for more teachers than they actually need.

The University of Nebraska teachers college replacement office recently reported about 500 vacaincies exist in Nebraska. One official called it the biggest shortage in 8 to 10 years.

Skov said the "crisis" tag is being overplayed.

For example, he added, an administrator may need only one teacher yet sends out requests to a half dozen colleges. He said this multiple listing approach is used to insure a supply as well as staff flexibility.

Skov said so far this year his office has discussed the possibility of issuing about 100 emergency teaching certificates. Last year, the number was 300.

Emergency certificates are issued to persons who don't quite fill all the requirements for a full certificate but are needed to complete a school's faculty.

Three Lincoln People Injured

Las Vegas, Nev. (UPI) — Three members of a Lincoln family were among five persons injured Friday when a Greyhound bus left Interstate 15 about 55 miles northwest of here and hit an embankment.

Treated at Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital were Kamal Ali Dabiker, 35; his wife, Damal and their infant daughter, Maja, all of Lincoln; and Etta Jo Sims, 36 and Susan Sims, both of Glen Rock, Wyo.

The Rev. Emmett G. Haas will be installed Sunday as pastor of the East Lincoln Church where he has been since the first of August.

Rev. Haas, taking the post over from the Rev. Ben E. Ogden who retired earlier this month, has served as president of the Nebraska Council of Churches.

He has also worked as the president of the executive committee of the Nebraska Christian Fellowship and as the executive secretary of that group.

Justice Department Says Rules Not Open To Litigation

The State Justice Department told the U.S. District Court Friday prison rules covering money earned by convicts are not open to litigation.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Richard H. Williams said such rules are solely matters of internal administration of the State Penintentiary.

The statements were made in a response submitted in two cases involving prisoner petitions against Nebraska Penal Complex Warden Maurice Sigler.

The convict—James Jackson and Vernon Davis—alleged that Sigler refused to permit them to use certain earnings for lawyer fees and that the prison rules covering inmate savings were invalid.

Under the regulations, two-thirds of a prisoner's earnings are placed in a savings account and one-third in a speeding account.

Money may be transferred from the savings account with the permission of the warden.

District Judge Robert Van Pelt earlier this month ordered Sigler to show why the rules should not be struck down.

"As a matter of law, there is a broad discretion in the warden to make reasonable rules and regulations pertaining to the spending and saving accounts of inmates for disciplinary purposes or for the protection of the inmate himself," Williams wrote

"Such matter is solely a matter of internal administration of the penitentiary and outside the purview of the supervision of the courts."

Wilber Youth Dominates Saline Fair Hog Show

By GLENN KREUSCHER
Farm Editor

Crete—The 1966 Saline County Fair entered it's second day here Friday with large classes of high quality livestock competing in the new judging arena just finished prior to fair opening.

Veteran livestockmen were high in praise for the excellent quality entered by 4-H and FFA members.

In the swine show it was Larry Kubicek of Wilber, who added to his long list of FFA wins by showing both the champion and reserve champion market hog.

Sheep Interest Up

A few years ago only a handful of sheep were shown in the Saline County Fair, but this year 75 head were entered in a highly contested event that saw Greg Peters of De Witt take the championship with his Shropshire lamb. Reserve champion lamb was owned by Jackie Johansen of Friend on a Hampshire.

Bob Beck of Fremont judged the livestock classes.

In the beef show 130 entries were competing for top positions, with more than half of the group slated to enter the State Fair.

Two farms in the county were recognized by Ak-Sar-Ben for 100 years of ownership.

Frank Miller of Western, who owns a farm that was founded by his father in 1866, has the distinction of having always had some member of the family operating the farm.

George Witt of Lincoln received recognition for a farm located one mile north and three east of Western that has been owned by the family since 1861.

Mrs. Fritton, 72 Albion, Is Dead

Albion (AP)—Funeral services have been tentatively scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday at St. Michael's Catholic Church for Mrs. Marie C. Fritton, 72, widow of Victor Fritton, a longtime Albion bottler and beverage distributor.

The rosary will be recited at 8:30 p.m. Sunday at the Levander Funeral home in Albion.

The final rites were left tentative while attempts were made to reach a son, J. Paul Fritton, a Kearney State College instructor now in Europe. Mrs. Fritton also is survived by a son, George, of Albion, and a daughter, Victoria of Kansas City. Her husband died last Dec. 6.

Rising City Man, Texas Daughter To Meet First Time in 32 Years

Lubbock, Texas (UPI)—A Texas woman is hoping to meet her Nebraskan father Labor Day for the first time in 32 years.

Mrs. Darlene Davis said her father, Logan Kinnison of Rising City, Neb., telephoned her Wednesday night. He said he had been trying to find her for many years.

Mrs. Davis, 36, said she was adopted at the age of four. Her father located her when several of her sisters and brothers visited a mutual friend of Kinnison's in Roscoe, Texas.

Mrs. Davis said she and her father, 54, now want to find her sister, Imogene, 34, whose last known home was in Florida in 1961.

At Rising City, Mrs. Violet Kinnison said the Nebraska family will leave by car this coming Friday for Lubbock and the long-awaited reunion.

She and Kinnison were married in 1947. The Kinnisons have two children, Logan Jr., 15, and Mrs. Gary (Barbara) West, 23, wife of a Columbus, Neb., service station manager.

Mrs. Kinnison said it is hoped both children will be able to make the trip to Texas. Kinnison is a rural mail carrier at Rising City.

HERE IN LINCOLN

Sorensen To Speak — Phil Sorensen, Democratic candidate for governor, will address the Executive Club Monday at a noon meeting in the Cornhusker Hotel.

Chairman Appointed—Dr. Marvel Baker has been appointed chairman of the research committee of the Lancaster County GOP organization, Republican County Chairman Ed Weaver Jr. announced Friday.

Paxton Man Dies As Truck Upsets

Cody, Wyo. (AP) — A 27-year-old Nebraskan was killed Thursday night when a truck and trailer loaded with lumber went out of control on U.S. Highway 120, about 12 miles south of Cody.

The victim was identified as Gerald Kubiak of Paxton.

Officers said Kubiak was thrown from the truck cab and was crushed when the vehicle turned over in a borrow pit.

Elm Creek Youth Dead; 2nd Victim Critical In Crash

Brush, Colo. (UPI) — One Nebraska teen-ager was killed and another critically injured Thursday in a car-tractor accident on Interstate 80-S just northwest of Brush.

Nebraska News

The Colorado State Patrol identified the victim as Kevin L. Stauffer, 17, of Elm Creek, Neb. The patrol said the youth was killed instantly.

The other youth, Ross Marshall, 18, also of Elm Creek, was listed in critical condition at Mercy Hospital in Denver. Hospital officials said the youth was in the intensive care unit. He is the son of Lawrence Marshall of Elm Creek.

The patrol said the car carrying the two slammed into the rear of a tractor pulling a county road roller.

The operator of the tractor, Richard Lauck of Fort Morgan, Colo., was not hurt in the accident.

Suspected Accomplice Apprehended

Ruby Conchola, 21, a suspected accomplice in the burglary last July of Stevens Credit Jewelers, 1338 O, has been apprehended in Milwaukee, Wis., Lincoln police said Friday.

She is charged, along with Bobby Gene Jones, 33, in connection with the incident, reportedly Lincoln's largest burglary at $40,000.

Police Inspector Robert Sawdon said the pair is wanted in seven states in connection with burglaries in which more than $200,000 in merchandise was taken.

Jones was apprehended in Milwaukee Thursday in a car that allegedly contained loot in connection with a Wisconsin burglary, police said.

Vaughn Arrested While Picketing Federal Building

Omaha (AP)—William Creighton Vaughn, 21-year-old Omahan, was arrested Friday as he picketed the Federal Building in downtown Omaha.

Vaughn and his wife appeared at the building while Donald P. Lay of Omaha was being sworn in as a judge of the Eighth Federal Circuit Court of Appeals.

Vaughn was taken into custody by the FBI and appeared before U.S. Commissioner Richard Peck on a charge of failure to answer his draft call. Vaughn waived indictment by a grand jury and was bound over to the U.S. District Court, then released on his own signature under $1,000 bond.

Chief Assistant U.S. Atty. Russell Blumenthal said an angry crowd of youths appeared as Vaughn and his wife walked up and down with signs protesting the Viet Nam war and the draft.

McPherson Requests School District Entry

Assistant State Education Commissioner Cecil Stanley reported Friday McPherson County has requested inclusion in the proposed mid plains area vocational technical school district.

He said the State Board of Education will consider the application from McPherson County commissioners at its Sept. 13 meeting.

The state board has already authorized a local vote on formation of the district to establish an area trade school under 1965 legislation. The district as now proposed would include 10 counties in the North Platte area.

Sanders Scholarship Established, Says PAL

The establishment of the Col. C. J. Sanders Memorial Scholarship, to be given annually by People and Law (PAL), was announced by Ben Goble of that organization Friday.

The scholarship will be given to a graduating high school senior who plans to study law or criminology. Amount of the scholarship and other details are to be worked out later.

The announcement came during a round-table discussion of PAL by Goble, Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce members and other interested persons.

Before More

Objective of the discussion was aimed at determining new avenues of bringing PAL before more persons.

During an open discussion, Goble praised news media for its part in publicizing PAL, an organization aimed at strengthening respect for law through individual responsibility.

As to PAL's reception, Goble said that there is a certain amount of apathy on the part of Lincolnites, "but we expected this to begin with," he added.

Basically, Goble said he still believed Lincoln was the natural base for an operation like PAL. Lincoln, he said, has many state offices here, and thus is a great deal of resources from which PAL can draw.

One thing that may help membership would be to publicize the fact that members are not called upon to serve on committees or spend time away from home several nights a week.

Offer Services

"They may, if they wish, offer their services," he noted. Dues are $2 for adults and $1 for youths for one year.

Beginning in December or January, Goble said, PAL will launch an active membership campaign. He said that one has not yet been conducted because advisory members felt that they should give the program time to become known. Membership presently stands at about 200.

Looking to the future, Goble said he felt that the organization could operate and carry out its objectives on a budget of about $2,500 per year. He added that this was not an excessive amount.

"We're trying to prove a point here, that interested citizens can promote respect for law without a vast and costly structure," he said.

Douglas Co. Board Plans Tax Rate Cut

Omaha (AP) — The Douglas County Board disclosed Friday it plans to reduce local property tax rates in the face of valuation increases.

The county levy, not yet adopted, would be cut more than a mill and the City of Omaha levy of 22 mills would be reduced by 3.29 mills.

Omahans now pay $85.86 per thousand. This would be reduced to a little more than $70.

County officials said the reductions will merely compensate for 24% valuation increases ordered by the State Board of Equalization and will not lower tax bills.

Chief Deputy Attorney Arthur D. O'Leary said state law clearly gives the county board, acting as the county board of equalization, authority to set levies for every governmental unit in the county.

The city has been leaning away from a decrease and Council President H. F. Jacobberger said if the city levy is rolled back and the 24% valuation increase "does not stick," the city could lose about $2 million in tax revenues.

He said the city has "full confidence" that if the county is contemplating reducing the city levy, it also is prepared to show the city how to guard against the possible loss.

State Teacher Shortage 'Overplayed'

By United Press International

A State Education Department official said Friday while there is a need for more teachers in Nebraska he doubts the pinch is unusual.

Leonard Skov, head of the teacher certification division, said figures purporting to show shortages could be misleading because some schools advertise for more teachers than they actually need.

The University of Nebraska teachers college replacement office recently reported about 500 vacancies exist in Nebraska. One official called it the biggest shortage in 8 to 10 years.

Skov said the "crisis" tag is being overplayed.

For example, he added, an administrator may need only one teacher yet sends out requests to a half dozen colleges. He said this multiple listing approach is used to insure a supply as well as staff flexibility.

Skov said so far this year his office has discussed the possibility of issuing about 100 emergency teaching certificates. Last year, the number was 300.

Emergency certificates are issued to persons who don't quite fill all the requirements for a full certificate but are needed to complete a school's faculty.

Rev. Emmett Haas To Be Installed

The Rev. Emmett G. Haas will be installed Sunday as pastor of the East Lincoln Church where he has been since the first of August.

Rev. Haas, taking the post over from the Rev. Ben E. Ogden who retired earlier this month, has served as president of the Nebraska Council of Churches.

He has also worked as the president of the executive committee of the Nebraska Christian Fellowship and as the executive secretary of that group.

Three Lincoln People Injured

Las Vegas, Nev. (UPI) — Three members of a Lincoln family were among five persons injured Friday when a Greyhound bus left Interstate 15 about 55 miles northwest of here and hit an embankment.

Treated at Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital were Kamal Ali Dabiker, 35; his wife, Damal and their infant daughter, Maja, all of Lincoln; and Etta Jo Sims, 36 and Susan Sims, both of Glen Rock, Wyo.

Justice Department Says Rules Not Open To Litigation

The State Justice Department told the U.S. District Court Friday prison rules covering money earned by convicts are not open to litigation.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Richard H. Williams said such rules are solely matters of internal administration of the State Penintentiary.

The statements were made in a response submitted in two cases involving prisoner petitions agaainst Nebraska Penal Complex Warden Maurice Sigler.

The convict—James Jackson and Vernon Davis—alleged that Sigler refused to permit them to use certain earnings for lawyer fees and that the prison rules covering inmate savings were invalid.

Under the regulations, two-thirds of a prisoner's earnings are placed in a savings account and one-third in a speeding account.

Money may be transferred from the savings account with the permission of the warden.

District Judge Robert Van Pelt earlier this month ordered Sigler to show why the rules should not be struck down.

"As a matter of law, there is a broad discretion in the warden to make reasonable rules and regulations pertaining to the spending and saving accounts of inmates for disciplinary purposes or for the protection of the inmate himself," Williams wrote

"Such matter is solely a matter of internal administration of the penitentiary and outside the purview of the supervision of the courts."

Glamor Stock Prices Tumble

New York (AP)—The prices of glamor stocks tumbled like a house of cards Friday as the stock market fell again, taking its ninth loss in 10 sessions.

Trading was active and the loss was a stiff one.

Prices sank from the start, recovered a little in early afternoon, then skidded to their lows at the close, ending a dismal week for Wall Street.

Volume rose to 8.16 million shares from 6.76 million Thursday.

The Dow Jones industrial average plunged 11.81 to 780.56, bringing it to its lowest level since Jan 21, 1964 when it closed at 776 44

Some technicians were predicting no support until the Dow sinks to 750, its level as of Nov. 29, 1963.

The havoc was bad, especially for those adventurous traders who were lured into glamor stocks by Wednesday's rally, called a "bear market trap" by some Wall Streeters.

Some of the big losses were:

Texas Instruments, off 15 at 113¾ Fairchild Camera off 14¾ at 176½; Delta Airlines, off 10⅝ at 96; Teledyne, off 9¾ at 77½; Braniff Airlines off 7⅛ at 65⅛: IBM, off 9⅛ at 315⅛ and Polaroid, off 7 at 146⅛.

"Everybody's gloomy," said one analyst. "Money is getting tighter and Viet Nam is getting worse."

There was no reprieve in sight, so far as the current news background is concerned. Investors and traders were depressed by reports that the investment funds were big sellers on Thursday. Some heard rumors that President Johnson was about to make a statement about taxes. There was renewed fear of a devaluation of the British pound, of a coming recession, a squeeze on profits by inflation and ballooning wage demands.

In spite of this the session was orderly. There was still no sign of a frantic "selling climax" to shake out the rest of the "weak holders."

Of 1,428 issues traded, 1,186 declined and 100 advanced. New lows for the year totaled 312. There were no new highs—for the third time this week.

Standard & Poor's 500-stock index fell 1.65 to 76.41.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 4.3 to 280.1, its lowest since Nov. 29, 1963 when it closed at 279.6.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange also fell sharply. Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds declined.

Barrows And Gilts Are Weak

Omaha (AP) — Barrows and gilts ranged 25 to 50c lower on 200 to 250 pound weights Friday, but for those under 200 pounds the trend was steady to 50c down.

A few fed steers and heifers sold steady.

There was not enough trading to establish a trend on sheep.

Chicago—Steer beef steady to 50 higher and heifer beef steady. Trading generally slow with heifer losing early upturn. Reduced live receipts at major terminals provided sufficient strength to boost dressed prices at the outset despite a slow trade. Hinds, rounds and ribs were best of primal cuts, forequarters along with arm and square cut chucks slow, moderate supply graded largely choice. Cow beef sold steady to 50 lower in only moderately active trading. Supply moderate. Spring lamb prices end up steady. Early sales were 50 higher but this advance lost Wednesday. Demand moderate and a good clearance affected. Moderate supply largely 30-50 lb carcasses. Pork loins 8-18 4.50-5.00 lower, boston butts 4-8 moved fairly well and were 1.50 higher. Fresh hams 10-20 4.00-5.00 lower, bellies 8-20 1.50-2.50 lower. Fresh pork supply slightly larger than a week ago. Liquidation Halts Grain Mart Rally

Chicago (AP) — Speculative liquidation squelched a mid-season rally in the grain futures market Friday and nearly all contracts again closed with rather substantial losses.

Only soybeans mustered enough persistent support to finish with small gains. Wheat and rye extended their recent declines another 2 cents or so and corn more than 2.

At the close, wheat was ⅛-1¾ cents a bushel lower, September $1.85⅜-¾; corn 2¼-2½ lower, September $1.45⅛-45; oats 1 to 1⅛ lower, September 74⅛ cents; rye ⅛ higher to 1¼ lower, September $1.27¾; soybeans unchanged to 2¾ higher, September $3.48¾-¼.

Feeder Cattle Prices Strong

Omaha (UPI)—The National Livestock Feeders Association said Friday steady to strong prices prevailed this week in feeder cattle trading as buyers seemed to exercise cautious optimism.

River Markets—Shipments from Omaha were considerably increased over the past week with an active market. Good and low choice 550-725 lb. Steers 25.00-27.25; Yearling heifers 26.00-27.00. Some 9,000 head moved at Sioux City. Prices were strong to .50 higher. Choice 525-700 lb. heifers were 25.00-25.75 and choice steer calves 29.25-31.50.

Prices were uneven at Kansas City's auction on Thursday. Thin steers sold .25 higher. Increased supply of fleshy steers moved at prices steady to weak. Good and choice 520-700lb. steers 26.75-28.50. Choice 800-875lb steers 25.50-26.25. Choice heifers 500-650 lbs., 24.75-26.00 with good and low choice heifers 22.50-24.50.

Marsh Says Floods Show Brand Needed

Secretary of State Frank Marsh said Friday that the recent Nance County flood accentuates the importance of cattle branding.

The Nebraska Brand Committee, which Marsh heads, dispatched a full-time investigator and brand inspector to the area for the purpose of assisting stockmen, where possible, in the identification of their animals.

"The flood was unfortunate enough," Marsh said, "But the resulting disagreements regarding the ownership of animals lost and involved in the flood were even more unfortunate."

Marsh noted a cattle brand, which is good for four years and is renewable, can be obtained for $3 and registered with his office.

He stressed the importance of livestock feeders and producers of making their stock identifiable through brands. Additional information is obtainable from Marsh's office.

Sherman Evaluation Appeal Late

A Sherman County resolution of intent to appeal from the State Board of Equalization's 1966 valuation increase for the county was received Friday by the State Tax Commissioner's office.

William Peters, state tax attorney, said the resolution of the county board was received after the filing deadline Thursday.

He noted the board resolution also was not in proper form, but said that "a formal notice, if received later, would be filed with the Supreme Court."

However, he noted the high court would make the final determination whether the appeal notice was filed in proper form withing the 10-day statutory period.

Twenty-five notices affecting 18 counties were received by Thursday, stating intent to appeal the state board's valuation orders to the Supreme Court.

White Dot In Sky Is Identified As Research Balloon

Omaha (UPI) — The Omaha Weather Bureau said Friday a "bright, white dot in the sky" over Omaha, Lincoln and Fairbury during the morning was "a special research balloon used for upper air observation."

A National Guard plane estimated the balloon's altitude to be 25,000 feet at one time.

Thursday night, for the second consecutive night, youngsters in the 4400 block on North 53rd Street in Omaha said they saw a bright, saucer-like object in the sky about half mile away.

They said the object flashed red and green and moved slowly southward.

Reports of unidentified objects were also received from Red Willow and Keith Counties.

Glamor Stock Prices Tumble

New York (AP)—The prices of glamor stocks tumbled like a house of cards Friday as the stock market fell again, taking its ninth loss in 10 sessions.

Trading was active and the loss was a stiff one.

Prices sank from the start, recovered a little in early afternoon, then skidded to their lows at the close, ending a dismal week for Wall Street.

Volume rose to 8.16 million shares from 6.76 million Thursday.

The Dow Jones industrial average plunged 11.81 to 780.56, bringing it to its lowest level since Jan 21, 1964 when it closed at 776 44

Some technicians were predicting no support until the Dow sinks to 750, its level as of Nov. 29, 1963.

The havoc was bad, especially for those adventurous traders who were lured into glamor stocks by Wednesday's rally, called a "bear market trap" by some Wall Streeters.

Some of the big losses were:

Texas Instruments, off 15 at 113¾ Fairchild Camera off 14¾ at 176½; Delta Airlines, off 10⅜ at 96; Teledyne, off 9¾ at 77½; Braniff Airlines off 7⅛ at 65⅛; IBM, off 9⅛ at 315⅛ and Polaroid, off 7 at 146⅛.

"Everybody's gloomy," said one analyst. "Money is getting tighter and Viet Nam is getting worse."

There was no reprieve in sight, so far as the current news background is concerned. Investors and traders were depressed by reports that the investment funds were big sellers on Thursday. Some heard rumors that President Johnson was about to make a statement about taxes. There was renewed fear of a devaluation of the British pound, of a coming recession, a squeeze on profits by inflation and ballooning wage demands.

In spite of this the session was orderly. There was still no sign of a frantic "selling climax" to shake out the rest of the "weak holders."

Of 1,428 issues traded, 1,186 declined and 100 advanced. New lows for the year totaled 512. There were no new highs—for the third time this week.

Standard & Poor's 500-stock index fell 1.65 to 76.41.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 4.3 to 280.1, its lowest since Nov. 29, 1963 when it closed at 279.6.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange also fell sharply. Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds declined.

Barrows And Gilts Are Weak

Omaha (AP) — Barrows and gilts ranged 25 to 50c lower on 200 to 250 pound weights Friday, but for those under 200 pounds the trend was steady to 50c down.

A few fed steers and heifers sold steady.

There was not enough trading to establish a trend on sheep.

Liquidation Halts Grain Mart Rally

Chicago (AP) — Speculative liquidation squelched a midseason rally in the grain futures market Friday and nearly all contracts again closed with rather substantial losses.

Only soybeans mustered enough persistent support to finish with small gains. Wheat and rye extended their recent declines another 2 cents or so and corn more than 2.

At the close, wheat was ⅛-1¾ cents a bushel lower, September $1.85⅝-¾; corn 2¼-2½ lower, September $1.45⅛-45; oats 1 to 1⅞ lower, September 74⅛ cents; rye ½ higher to 1¼ lower, September $1.27¾; soybeans unchanged to 2¾ higher, September $3.48¾-¼.

Feeder Cattle Prices Strong

Omaha (UPI)—The National Livestock Feeders Association said Friday steady to strong prices prevailed this week in feeder cattle trading as buyers seemed to exercise cautious optimism.

River Markets—Shipments from Omaha were considerably increased over the past week with an active market. Good and low choice 550-725 lb. Steers 25.00-27.25; Yearling heifers 26.00-27.00. Some 9,000 head moved at Sioux City. Prices were strong to .50 higher. Choice 525-700 lb. heifers were 25.00-25.75 and choice steer calves 29.25-31.50.

Prices were uneven at Kansas City's auction on Thursday. Thin steers sold .25 higher. Increased supply of fleshy steers moved at prices steady to week. Good and choice 520-700lb. steers 26.75-28.30. Choice 800-875lb. steers 25.50-26.25. Choice heifers 500-650 lbs., 24.75-26.00 with good and low choice heifers 22.50-24.50.

Marsh Says Floods Show Brand Needed

Secretary of State Frank Marsh said Friday that the recent Nance County flood accentuates the importance of cattle branding.

The Nebraska Brand Committee, which Marsh heads, dispatched a full-time investigator and brand inspector to the area for the purpose of assisting stockmen, where possible, in the identification of their animals.

"The flood was unfortunate enough," Marsh said, "But the resulting disagreements regarding the ownership of animals lost and involved in the flood were even more unfortunate."

Marsh noted a cattle brand, which is good for four years and is renewable, can be obtained for $3 and registered with his office.

He stressed the importance of livestock feeders and producers of making their stock identifiable through brands. Additional information is obtainable from Marsh's office.

Sherman Evaluation Appeal Late

A Sherman County resolution of intent to appeal from the State Board of Equalization's 1966 valuation increase for the county was received Friday by the State Tax Commissioner's office.

William Peters, state tax attorney, said the resolution of the county board was received after the filing deadline Thursday.

He noted the board resolution also was not in proper form, but said that "a formal notice, if received later, would be filed with the Supreme Court."

However, he noted the high court would make the final determination whether the appeal notice was filed in proper form withing the 10-day statutory period.

Twenty-five notices affecting 18 counties were received by Thursday, stating intent to appeal the state board's valuation orders to the Supreme Court.

White Dot In Sky Is Identified As Research Balloon

Omaha (UPI) — The Omaha Weather Bureau said Friday a "bright, white dot in the sky" over Omaha, Lincoln and Fairbury during the morning was "a special research balloon used for upper air observation."

A National Guard plane estimated the balloon's altitude to be 25,000 feet at one time.

Thursday night, for the second consecutive night, youngsters in the 4400 block on North 53rd Street in Omaha said they saw a bright, saucerlike object in the sky about half mile away.

They said the object flashed red and green and moved slowly southward.

Reports of unidentified objects were also received from Red Willow and Keith Counties.

Earthquake Zone Study

Ankara, Turkey (AP)—Robert Wallace of Menlo Park, Calif., a scientist of the U.S. Geological Survey, is expected to arrive to study eastern Turkey's earthquake disaster area at the request of the Turkish government. He will look into possibilities of damaging new after-shocks and ways of minimizing damage and casualties in major quakes.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Separate sealed proposals for the furnishing of all materials, equipment, and labor for the construction of The Peru State College Locker Facility, Peru, Nebraska, as per plans and specifications prepared by Clark & Enersen, Olsson, Burroughs & Thomsen, Architects and Engineers, 1313 Sharp Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, will be received by the Board of Education, State Normal Schools, State of Nebraska, in the office of E. Albin Larson, Secretary, Board of Education of State Normal Schools, Box 94605 or Room 2412, State Capitol Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, until 10:00 A.M., C.S.T., Wednesday, September 7, 1966. Bids will be publicly opened and read aloud. Any proposals received after the closing will be returned unopened.

Separate proposals are requested for the following divisions of the work:

(a) General Contract Work.

(b) Mechanical Contract, including Plumbing, Heating and Ventilating.

(c) Electrical Work Contract.

Include Proposal on all Alternates as listed on the Proposal Form.

All bids shall remain in effect for a period of thirty days after the scheduled closing time for the receipt of bids.

Each bid shall be accompanied by an acceptable Bid Bond, payable to The Board of Education, State Normal Schools, State of Nebraska, in the amount of (5%) five per cent of the total bid submitted as a guarantee that, if awarded the contract, the bidder shall promptly enter into a contract and execute such Bonds as may be required. If bid security is not received with the Proposal, bid will not be considered.

The successful bidder to whom a contract is to be awarded shall provide a "Performance Bond" and "Labor and Material Payment Bond," a double form of bond issued as "A.I.A. — Form A311" a standard form of the American Institute of Architects, and a Builders Risk Bond. Bond shall be in the amount of 100% of the contract.

The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all Proposals, and to waive any informality in any Proposal.

Plans and specifications may be inspected at the office of the Architects, 1313 Sharp Building, Lincoln, Nebraska; the office of the President of Peru State College, Peru, Nebraska; the office of the Secretary of the Board of Education, State Normal Schools, Room 2412, State Capitol Building, Lincoln, Nebraska; the Lincoln Builder's Bureau, 1734 "R" Street, Lincoln, Nebraska; the Omaha Builder's Bureau, 2562 St. Mary's Ave., Omaha, Nebraska; the F. W. Dodge Corp., 2929 Harney, Suite 30, Omaha, Nebraska; the Grand Island Plan Service, 116 W. 2nd Street, Grand Island, Nebraska; the Hastings Builder's Bureau, Hastings, Nebraska; the Norfolk Builder's Exchange, Box 386, Norfolk, Nebraska.

Plans and specifications may be obtained from the Architect by the Prime Contractors upon payment of $3.00 deposit for the first set. Deposit will be returned to Prime Contractor upon return of the plans and specifications in good condition within a period of ten days after the opening of bids. Deposit will not be returned to those who do not turn in a bid unless plans and specifications are returned to the Architect within three days prior to bid opening date. Plans and specifications, or individual sheets may be obtained from the Architect by all bidders upon payment of the cost of reproduction.

Earthquake Zone Study

Ankara, Turkey (AP)—Robert Wallace of Menlo Park., Calif., a scientist of the U.S. Geological Survey, is expected to arrive to study eastern Turkey's earthquake disaster area at the request of the Turkish government. He will look into possibilities of damaging new after-shocks and ways of minimizing damage and casualties in major quakes.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Separate sealed proposals for the furnishing of all materials, equipment, and labor for the construction of The Peru State College Locker Facility, Peru, Nebraska, as per plans and specifications prepared by Clark & Enersen, Olsson, Burroughs & Thomsen, Architects and Engineers, 1515 Sharp Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, will be received by the Board of Education, State Normal Schools, State of Nebraska, in the office of E. Albin Larson, Secretary, Board of Education of State Normal Schools, Box 94605 or Room 2412, State Capitol Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, until 10:00 A.M., C.S.T., Wednesday, September 7, 1966. Bids will be publicly opened and read aloud. Any proposals received after the closing will be returned unopened.

Separate proposals are requested for the following divisions of the work:

(a) General Contract Work.

(b) Mechanical Contract, including Plumbing, Heating and Ventilating.

(c) Electrical Work Contract.

Include Proposal on all Alternates as listed on the Proposal Form.

All bids shall remain in effect for a period of thirty days after the scheduled closing time for the receipt of bids.

Each bid shall be accompanied by an acceptable Bid Bond, payable to The Board of Education, State Normal Schools, State of Nebraska, in the amount of (5%) five per cent of the total bid submitted as a guarantee that, if awarded the contract, the bidder shall promptly enter into a contract and execute such Bonds as may be required. If bid security is not received with the Proposal, bid will not be considered.

The successful bidder to whom a contract is to be awarded shall provide a "Performance Bond" and "Labor and Material Payment Bond," a double form o bond issued as "A I. A. — Form A1311" a standard form of the American Institute of Architects, and a Builders Risk Bond. Bond shall be in the amount of 100% of the contract.

The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all Proposals, and to waive any informality in any Proposal.

Plans and specifications may be inspected at the office of the Architects, 1515 Sharp Building, Lincoln, Nebraska; the office of the President of Peru State College, Peru, Nebraska; the office of the Secretary of the Board of Education, State Normal Schools, Room 2412, State Capitol Building, Lincoln, Nebraska; the Lincoln Builder's Bureau, 1734 "R" Street, Lincoln, Nebraska; the Omaha Builder's Bureau, 2562 St. Mary's Ave., Omaha, Nebraska; the F. W. Dodge Corp., 3929 Harney, Suite 30, Omaha, Nebraska; the Grand Island Plan Service, 116 W. 2nd Street, Grand Island, Nebraska; the Hastings Builder's Bureau, Hastings, Nebraska; the Norfolk Builder's Exchange, Box 386, Norfolk, Nebraska.

Plans and specifications may be obtained from the Architect by the Prime Contractors upon payment of $5.00 deposit for the first set. Deposit will be returned to Prime Contractor upon return of the plans and specifications in good condition within a period of ten days after the opening of bids. Deposit will not be returned to those who do not turn in a bid unless plans and specifications are returned to the Architect within three days prior to bid opening date. Plans and specifications, or individual sheets may be obtained from the Architect by all bidders upon payment of the cost of reproduction.

3. True Story

When I was brought into this world six years ago I was put in ever popular Meadowlane on a well landscaped lot. My three bedrooms, large kitchen with built-in oven and range, snack bar, and large family room-eating area combination have been given loving care by considerate folks. I would like some kind family to move in for $17,950 and let me take care of them.

3. True Story
When I was brought into this world six years ago I was put in ever popular Meadowlane on a well landscaped lot. My three bedrooms, large kitchen with built-in oven and range, snack bar, and large family room-eating area combination have been given loving care by considerate folks. I would like some kind family to move in for $17,950 and let me take care of them.

The Way Grows Much Brighter
When God Gives Us Our Marching Orders

all clear

In the "railroad" business the brakeman's lantern means everything. His "signal lantern" preceded the driver's stop and go light. It must be obeyed. The brakeman, like God, must give us the "all clear." It is the only way we may know the track is clear, the switch in place, for us to move with confidence. How reassuring when we know that God is clearing the way ahead of us.

If you were ever in a business a righteous God could not bless, then, you well know how it hurts not to be able to get His "all clear." But He warned us, "There is a way that seemeth right, but the end is death." If one's destination is Heaven, it is important that he get on the main line and keep on going. Let us take the church as our "brakeman." It will not signal us wrong. Let us worship God in her pews every week and support her many programs of service.

You In The Church
The Church In You

— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.
